

THE WOODSTOCK DISPATCH.

CHARLES APPLEBY, Editor and Proprietor.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SEPT. 27, 1905.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Union Corner.

Mr. John Shepard died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. F. Chase on Friday 22 instant in the 76th year of his age. His children, Emerson Shepard, Mrs. E. Duncan, from Boston Mass., Mrs. Bailey from Pennsylvania and Mrs. Edminster from Chicago were with him when he died, and accompanied his remains to Keswick, York County, where they were buried beside those of his wife who died three years ago. Another daughter Mrs. John Porter of Lynn did not get here.

J. L. Henderson, J. R. Barton and V. S. Barton were at the exhibition in Fredericton last week.

Fort Fairfield.

Geo. Estes has been laid up with a lame foot.

Our school will re-open soon with Miss Palmer of Jacksonville in charge.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cram is very ill.

Mrs. B. C. Ames left for Bangor to attend the women's meeting of the W. C. T. U.

Rev. Mr. Goddard occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Miss Bessie Blanchard is attending high school at the village.

Mr. C. A. Estes who has been very ill for sometime is now much better.

Guy Dow of Southampton has occupied a position with R. C. Hoyt.

Demie and Herbert Tompkins of Hartford N. B. who has been spending the past few weeks here intend to return to their home the last of this week.

Kirkland.

The roads are very muddy at present.

Rev. and Mrs. Cosman passed through this place today.

Mrs. D. Dykeman her two children and her niece Laura Bustard spent a very pleasant day with Mrs. James McQuire at Bull Creek.

May Wetmore has been visiting friends in this vicinity.

Miss Seeley from Ashland is teaching the school at Golden Ridge.

Grover Flemming drives the mail through this place he is very popular and obliging.

Andrew McIntyre is very poorly at present.

Thomas Beasley is visiting friends in this place.

John Kennedy has built a handsome new barn.

A. Jean Bustard has been visiting friends in Amity for a few days.

The party of about fifteen men who are surveying the route for a new railway are camping in Monument Settlement.

Centreville.

A number went to Fredericton to the exhibition last week and have not yet returned.

Reports say the exhibition is proving very successful.

Miss Cullen arrived in the village on Saturday last to take charge of C. M. Sherwood's Millinery store, and goods in that line have been arriving in large quantities the past few days.

Miss Cullen was formerly employed by Miss Fitzgerald here and has many friends here who gladly welcome her back again.

Dr. Inch will speak in Sherwood's Opera House on the evening of the 29th inst., on "Consolidation of Schools" and every one should hear him for it is a subject wherein is centred some of the most vital interest of any community.

Rev. Mr. Bonnell is moving into the Parsonage at Tracy Mills which has been thoroughly renovated.

Clinton Cody and Ruel McClintock have gone to McGill to take up the study of medicine.

G. W. White has decided to be a Candidate for Municipal honors and is not afraid of loosing his deposit.

Rev. Mr. Savage who died suddenly from an injury was brought home from out West and buried by the side of his parents which was according to his often expressed wish.

His body was accompanied by his wife and a delegate from the Masonic Lodge to which he belonged. The funeral was large and the services very impressive.

Three carcasses of Moose have been taken through the village all going south. The hunters in that direction having been very successful this year.

A dinner and supper will be given to all who may desire it on the day of the Agricultural Show and the proceeds will be used for society purposes. Arrangements are in progress to make this the banner show.

W. J. Owens will contest the Parish of Wicklow for a seat at the County Council and from the long list of names on his requisition papers His success is well assured and is a strong evidence of his popularity.

Bristol.

D. S. Jones has moved into his new building near the station.

Thomas Lockhart has moved his family to Kincardine, and S. K. Farley to Upper Wicklow.

Mrs. I. N. Boyer left on Wednesday to visit her daughters in Boston, Manchester and New Hampshire.

Miss Slipp of Presque Isle who has been visiting friends in Bristol, returned to her home on Wednesday last.

Mr. E. Carey and Miss Maggie Hatheway were married on Wednesday. The ceremony took place at the bride's residence, East Florenceville, Rev. L. B. Gibson of Glassville officiating.

The Primitive Baptist church which has been repaired, will be re-dedicated on Sunday next.

C. A. Lockhart is building a new house on the Glassville road about a mile from the village.

Miss Ella Tompkins and Miss Alice Gibson, are visiting friends in Fredericton.

Quite a number are also visiting the Fredericton exhibition this week.

Mr. W. Kay, teacher of the advanced department, was called to his home at Sackville last week by the death of his sister.

G. W. Tinker, Holmesville, spent Sunday in Bristol with his son Charles Tinker.

A. W. Tompkins of Bridgewater, Maine, spent Sunday in the village with friends.

A. W. Phillips returned on Saturday from a trip through the province of Quebec.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gravinor have been visiting friends in Bristol and Gordonsville.

E. Drier and Blanchard Phillips have returned from an unsuccessful hunting trip on the Miramichi. Several parties have gone to those regions, but so far no moose have been captured.

East Florenceville.

C. S. Tompkins, of St. John, is spending his vacation at home.

Miss Resme Mills, St. John, is visiting at John R. Tompkins.

Mrs. D. B. Baird spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. M. M. Ross was attending Millinery opening in St. John last week.

Harry Hunter has been confined to the house the past two weeks.

Harry Stiles and Bedford Moore who are working on the Telephone near Jacksonville, spent Sunday here.

Miss Rose Banks was operated on at the Fredericton Hospital last week for appendicitis.

Those attending the Fredericton Exhibition from here were:—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith, H. B. Taylor, Miss Eva Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Boyer, Miss Norma Moores, Miss Kate Jameson, Roy Yerxa, R. B. Hagerman, Robert Straight.

Lebaron Moores left Thursday for a trip to the Northwest.

Geo. H. Wheeler is putting up a new house on Maple St.

There was a party at Mrs. D. Semple's Saturday night, where a most enjoyable time was spent.

Florenceville.

Miss Fannie Day, of St. Mary's is visiting Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

Dr. C. A. Kirkpatrick returned last week from Manitoba. After spending a few days with friends here he went to Edmundston to take up his practice.

Clarence Gatchell who returned from the Tobique last week in poor health is improving. Dr. Ross is in attendance.

Ed. Jewett spent Sunday in Arthurette.

Fred and Lorne Ryan left on Friday for their home in Fredericton. After the exhibition Lorne goes to Woodstock while Fred will return here to complete the work on the new school.

Andrew McCain is spending a few days in Halifax.

Dr. R. B. Hagerman attended the Fredericton exhibition.

B. F. Smith has extensively repaired his saw mill on this side of the river and is ready for the fall work.

O. N. Miller is one of the candidates in the coming councillors election.

The brick work on the consolidated school, with the exception of the chimneys, is completed, and the roof will be in position shortly.

The brick work of the consolidated school house is completed.

Sheriff Hayward was in town today visiting his brother Rev. A. H. Hayward who has been very sick, but we are glad to say that he is some better now.

Mrs. James McCain who has been confined to her bed is able to drive out.

James Peters who has been ill with typhoid fever is on the mend, but is still confined to the house. The I. O. F. members of Court King Richard helped to finish his harvesting and dug his potatoes, and housed them for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ross have returned from a pleasant visit to Lewiston, Me.

Dr. Ross and wife drove to Andover one day last week and have returned.

Miss Jennie O. Tweedie who has been visiting friends here left on Thursday for Boston to resume her professional duties.

Miss Annie Upton who has spent her summer vacation with her parents has returned to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kimball of Bridgewater Maine, spent Sunday with Mrs. Kimball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Boyer.

Hedley Jewett succeeded in shooting two partridges with one gun one day last week. Beat that if you can.

Fred Holmes has returned home after a long absence.

Among those who went to the Fredericton exhibition from here were: Mr. W. A. Taylor Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shaw, Mrs. Herb Kilpatrick and daughter, Jennie and Miss Shannon of Greenfield.

Central Southampton.

Mr. F. C. Brown is spending exhibition week in Fredericton.

Miss Lily Grant and Miss Calla Brown have been to St. John where Miss Grant was attending the millinery openings.

Miss Daisy Farnham and Miss Mabelle Schriver attended the teacher's institute in Fredericton.

Mr. Bishop, of Hopewell Cape is visiting his daughter, Mrs. N. W. Brown.

Mr. N. W. Brown is making extensive improvements on his dwelling house.

Mr. J. F. Grant made a business trip to Fredericton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Grant were called to Fredericton last week on account of the serious illness of Mr. Grant's sister, Mrs. Currie, who is suffering with typhoid fever in the Victoria hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor celebrated their golden wedding the 13th inst. On account of the rain only about forty were present, but a very pleasant time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor were presented with a hundred and thirty dollars in gold.

Miss Alice Tabor, who has been visiting in Woodstock has returned home much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Woster Cronkrite and Miss Florence Cronkrite drove to Fredericton last week to attend the exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum and Mr. and Mrs.

There Is A Time

For all things. Like the seasons one time is appropriate for one thing and another time more appropriate for something else.

There never was a better time though for than now. Our store is the place to go. There's a reason for it. We know your wants and have provided for them.

BUYING CLOTHING

Again, you're certain you're buying at the right price.

As I Was Saying

"There's a lot of things to buy when next shopping day arrives." That's so and some are extra important.

When it comes to

DRY GOODS

Ladies' Cloth and Fur Lined Coats, you'll surely have to take a look at our new arrivals. For style and extra value the way we have marked them is about equal to a closing sale. To see them is to appreciate them.

OAK HALL.

B. B. MANZER.

BORN.

OLMSTEAD.—At Grafton, September 22nd, to the wife of F. H. Olmstead, a son.

MARRIED.

ANDERSON-DUNHAM.—At the home of the bride, Charleston, Car. Co., on the 20th inst, by Rev. Jos. A. Cahill, Frederick Anderson to Miss Annie B. Dunham.

BURT-CHRISTIE.—At Smith's Corner, York County, September 20th, by Eld. A. H. Kearney assisted by Eld. H. E. Cook, Eld. Milton C. Burt and Miss Harriett H. Christie.

Harding, of Bridgewater Center, Maine, who were on a driving trip to Fredericton were the guests of Mr. Ketchum's sisters Mrs. A. E. Farnham and Mrs. A. Wright.

Mrs. Nebel, of Blain, Maine, spent a few days with her daughter Mrs. B. S. Cronkrite last week.

Miss Edna Grant has gone to Blain, Maine, to visit her uncle, Mr. Terril.

From the Hole Man.

A Parkhurst correspondent of the Caribou Republican writes:

I wrote a letter Sunday, for a man to his wife in St. John Planation. In closing he instructed me to write: "I come back just as queek as I can; if you come short of pork knock down one hens. I love you just as tight as I can jump. From your hole man. T—C—"

A training school for waiters was established at Ouchy some years ago by an association of Swiss hotel keepers. It has proved a great success.

STUDY CAREFULLY

What you do with your money. Care in spending is just as essential as diligence in earning. So if you are wise you will do your right here, for it is the one store where prices are a little lower than you expect. It is the store where the price economy never means inferior

SHOE BUYING

QUALITY.

It is the store of real money saving opportunities.

WALLACE GIBSON,
Cor. Main and Queen Sts.
WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Healthy Horses

Man's Best Friend Deserves Man's Best Treatment

For his many ailments there is nothing better than the following Clydesdale Remedies, made from the purest of ingredients, and sold under a positive guarantee of satisfaction or money cheerfully refunded by dealer.

Heave Cure one package will often cure a slight attack; six packages will cure nearly every case.

Embrocation Liniment, no ache or pain can escape its penetrating effect.

Tar Foot Remedy, keeps the hoof in a soft natural condition.

Worm Powder does the business. It cleanses and purifies the horse's system.

Call Cure is the quickest and safest remedy for sore shoulders, collar galls. Cures while working.

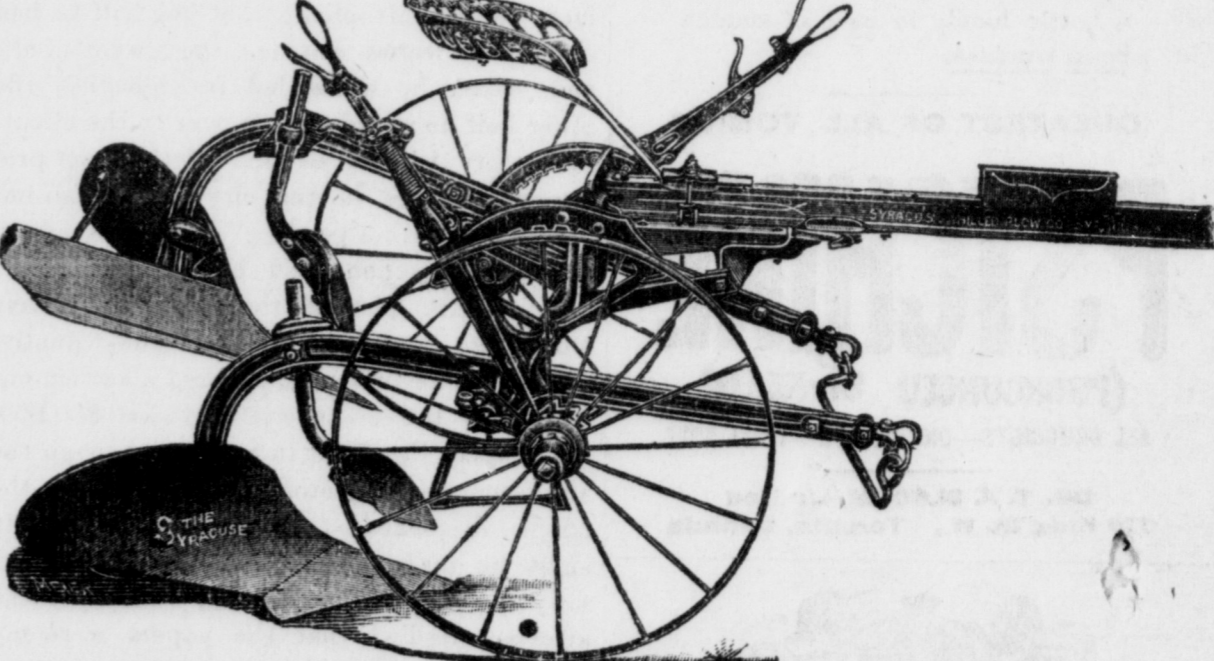

Balsam Fine Healing Oil for bruises, burns, cuts, scalds is a marvellous remedy. It soothes and cleanses.

Colic Cure gives immediate relief and should always be handy. It will save many a horse.

Carboline Antiseptic means clean stables.

FEED CLYDESDALE STOCK FOOD.

CLYDESDALE STOCK FOOD COMPANY, LIMITED, TORONTO, ONT.

Syracuse Reversible Sulky Plow,

For Hillside or Level Land.
Arranged for Two or Three Horses.
No Dead or Back Furrows.
Sizes 31 and 39, or 32 and 37.

CONNELL BROS. Limited,
WOODSTOCK, N. B.

DRIVING HORSE FOR SALE.
Handsome Bay Mare, 8 years old, weighs about 900 lbs. Kind and Sound, and extra good driver, quite speedy and well broken, enquire of E. B. JONES, Manchester House.

Wanted at Hayden's Mill.
Will pay cash for 5000 cords of lath wood, delivered at the undersigned mill Woodstock, will place in lots to suit operators. J. A. HAYDEN, Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 15th, 1905.