Rev. J. A. Cahill was in Bristol on Monday He reorganized the I. O. G. T. Lodge at East Florenceville on Friday evening, with Col. A. D. Hartley as D. G. C. T.

One Monday evening, a double sled load of young people, there were eighteen in the party, drove up to Mr. Richard Currey's, Beechwood, and spent a most enjoyable evening.

There is now good crossing on the ice here, the open water having been frozen over during the cold spell last week.

Centreville.

A Lodge of I. O. G. T. was organized here by Rev. Joe. Cahill on the evening of last Wednesday with a good number of charter members with Mr. Steeves Prin. of the school, as chief Templar and a staff of Officers that will be very helpful to him in carrying on the work of the lodge.

There are large quantities of farm produce now being hauled to the station.

The Centreville Concert Company played to a full house at Lakeville on Friday evening last and it is the intention of the company to also play at Florenceville and Bridge Water Centre at each of which places they will receive a hearty welcome.

There was also an entertainment in the Opera House on Saturday evening consisting of songs, solos and a panoramas of moving pictures and the whole entertainment was well received.

Rev. Joe. Cahill occupied the Baptist pulpit here Sunday and was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. Freeman who has not fully recovered from his recent illness.

B. F. Smith, M. P. P. and J. H. Jameson spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Smiths lumber camp on the Tobique.

Bath.

The recent fall of snow has made excellent travelling and the farmers and others are taking the benefit of it. Owing to the river having been in such a state no crossing by teams has taken place for several weeks, and the hubby condition of the roads has had a tendency to make business dull, at this season of the year large quantities of farm produce is shipped from the Railway Station by rail, and prices are exceptionally good for all farm produce.

Mr. Alex Hall a very respected citizen of Johnville was brought here on Saturday, from the lumber woods of Tobique River, he was suffering from an abscess in his side. He underwent a surgical operation at the Exchange Hotel which was performed by Dr. Cummins the local physician here and Dr. Brown of Centreville.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick, B. A. the pastor of the United Baptist Church here was suddenly called to his old home in Kings County by the death of his father last week.

Skating was heartily enjoyed by the young people last week.

The village stores are beginning to put on the usual Xmas holiday appearance and as such bids fair to exceed anything exhibited in former years.

Reed's Chance in Arkansas.

The following story is told of Thomas B. Reed: When a young man, just completing the study of law, he wrote to the postmaster of a small Arkansas town, asking what opportunities it offered for an honest lawyer, and stating he was a Republican.

This answer came back: "If you are a Republican, the game laws would protect you, and if you are an honest lawyer, there won't be no competition!"—[Boston Herald.

Anticipating Trouble.

Young Wife (on the honeymoon)—Dearest, I wish you wouldn't be so extravagant with your money. Husband—Why, loved one? Young Wife—Because you'll have no money left for alimony if you don't look out!—Yonkers Statesman.

The Cemetery of the Sea.

The sea is the largest of all cemeteries, and its slumberers sleep without monuments. All other graveyards in all other lands show some symbol of distinction between the great and small, the rich and poor, but in that ocean cemetery the same waves roll over all.

The Eskimos sing almost constantly when they are indoors, between the intervals of sleeping and eating.
