Band Concert.

The musical and literary concert under the auspices of the band on Monday evening last was a decided success from every standpoint. Before seven o'clock every reserved seat in the house had been sold and a number of others had to be reserved for those who had purchased tickets but had not had a seat secured. No higher tribute could be paid to the ability of our local talent than the fact that they prove a better drawing card than a great many of the outside attractions that come to our town. This is worth keeping in view when concerts are held for the benefit of local organizations, as the entire receipts are thereby available for the object for which the concert is held rather than that the the larger half should go into the pockets of the professional concert company. The following program was rendered:

Selection-Band....."Maritana"

INTERMISSION

GOD SAVE THE KING.

The receipts will net nearly $100 00 and the band members feel highly pleased over the result.

An Unfortunate Error.

In the issue of November 15th of THE DIS-PATCH there appeared a paragraph stating that on Hallowe'en in a Bath cemetry a grave had been desecrated by "a public school teacher." The information on which the paragraph was written was entirely incorrect. The act of vandalism was performed, it now appears, by a young boy.

A very estimable young lady feels that the paragraph pointed the finger of suspicion at her, and THE DISPATCH desires to make full and public apology to her for any suspicion that may have been cast upon her, and to assure her and all her friends and the public that any such suspicion was utterly false and unjust to a young lady whose conduct has a'ways been above reproach.

EDITOR DISPATCH, - Reference has been made in your columns to a certain act committed at Bath upon Hallowe'en. In this instance the mole hill has been made to appear as a mountain. So far as the desecration of a certain grave is concerned it is sheer nonsense to make it appear as such. It was simply the thoughtless act of a half dozen young people and there are not a half dozen people in the community who take it seriously. But the people of Bath are taking seriously the effort of a few to injure the reputaion of a certain young lady, a teacher in the public schools, who had nothing to do with the grave yard act and if your correspondent were a little careful to ascertain the truth, would find the young lady in question, was in her home at the time. It is too bad that so much ill feeling should be stirred up over a matter that would have been forgotten in forty-eight hours. Thanking you Mr. Elitor for your on the afternoon and evening of Dec. 6th.

ONLOOKER

EDITOR DISPATCH, -In the issue of THE DISPATCH of the 15th inst., reference was made to the desecration of a grave at Bath on Hallowe'en.

As I am one of the teschers of Bath School I wish to inform the public that I am not the teacher that was referred to.

Brymer Loses Watch and Wad.

A pecial to the St. John Sun from Mont real on the 26th inst says:-Charles Marshall is under arrest here on the charge of having stolen a gold watch and several hundred dollars from Albert Brymer of Perth, N B. Brymer arrived in Montreal several days ago en route west, and struck up a chance acquaintanceship with Marshall, who he found had been west and could tell him a great deal about the country. Saturday morning Bry mer woke up to find his watch and money gone. So was his new friend. He made up his mind that there was some connection with the joint disappearance, and notified the detectives, who in a short time located Marshall in a disorderly house, flanked by several bottles of champagne. When arrested; the watch and six hundred dollars of the money were found on him. When Marshall appeared before the magistrate he pleaded that he and Brymer had been drinking together, and that he did not know that he had Brymer's watch and money, and could not tell how they had come into his possession. Brymer wants to drop the case, but the police will not allow this, and are holding on to the watch and money until Marshall's case has been disposed of.
