A Sad Death.

On Friday night at Woodstock, there occurred the death of one of Houlton's most popular young men, Ludlow Russell Cornelison, son of E. B. Cornelison.

Mr. Cornelison had been suffering for some time from diabetes but his condition was not considered serious and on Christmas day he went to Woodstock to spend the holidays with his aunt, Mrs. Winslow.

On Wednesday he became seriously ill and was unable to return home. Thursday his parents and brother and sister were summoned from here and were with him until his death.

The remains were brought to Houlton on Saturday morning and the funeral took place from the Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon. The Unitarian choir, of which Mr. Cornelison was a valued member, assisted the Episcopal choir in the choral parts of the service.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful testifying the high esteem in which Mr. Cornelison was held. Among the offerings were a glass pillow from the High School of 1903, a bouquet of carnations from the John Watson Co., roses from the Unitarian choir and Mrs. Gilpatrick and twenty-two white carnations from his parents. Many other friends sent beautiful flowers.

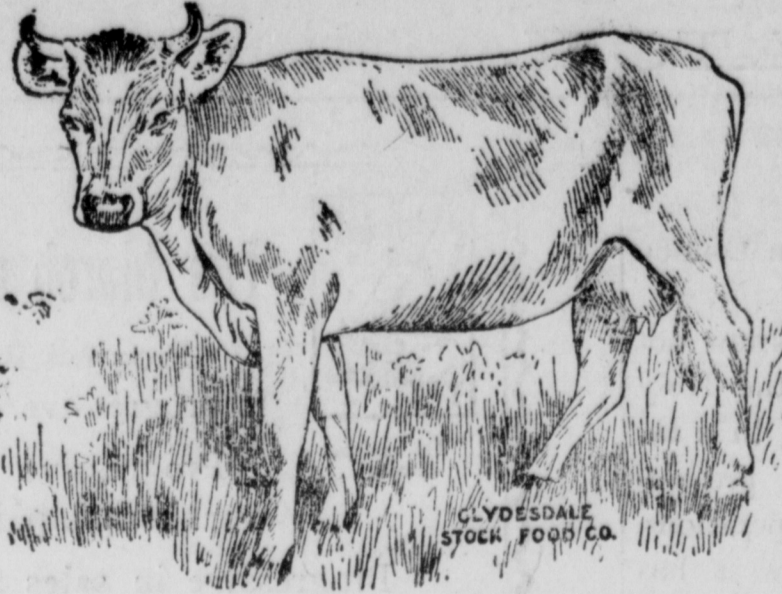

The deceased, who was only twenty-two years old was a graduate from Houlton High School and attended Bates College one year. Since then he has been clerking in Watson's Hardware store.

He was popular in athletic as well as musical circles, being captain of the freshman baseball team at Bates in 1903. While in the High School he was a prominent member of the football and baseball teams.—Houlton Times.

Miss Alice Neill, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Mildred Sewell, for the past week, has returned to her home at Woodstock. Miss Neill formerly lived in this community and therefore has hosts of friends.—Gibson cor. Fredericton Gleaner.

Mr. Macleod Goes West.

Bruce M. Macleod, for some years manager of the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia has been promoted by the Bank to a position in Western Canada.

During his residence in Woodstock Mr. Macleod has been a public spirited citizen. He has been a good banker, and that he has served well the best business interests of the community may be seen in the large increase in his bank's business during his management here.

He was for some years a member of the board of trustees of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, and its treasurer. He was one of the most generous contributors to the funds of the church, and took an active part in its welfare. During the most successful year of its Literary Society he was the president of that society. He was one of the most helpful charter members of the golf club, was for some years its treasurer, was always one of its best players and contributed largely to its victories on alien links.

He has been in demand at social and public entertainments as one of the best readers we ever had in Woodstock. In society he has been recognized as an interesting gentleman.

Before Mr. Macleod leaves town he is to be presented by the citizens with a loving cup, and he is to be otherwise notified of the regard in which he is held.

Social Events.

Mrs. Wm. Balsam entertained about fifty of the friends of her daughter, Mildred, at a delightful children's party on Thursday evening, 7.30 till 10. A new and very interesting feature of the entertainment was a musical contest which was much enjoyed by the young people. Dancing and games were the amusements of the evening. Supper was served about 9 o'clock.

On Friday evening Mrs. A. G. Bailey gave a charming children's party to entertain the friends of her sons, Gordon and Stewart. The guests numbered about fifty. The evening was delightfully spent with dancing and games. Supper was served at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. W. Fisher entertained the members of the "Twentieth Century Club" at high tea on Saturday.

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be held this evening. The affairs of the church are in a very gratifying condition. The year the Rev. Mr. Ireland came here it was an augmented charge and raised only $800. The contributions have gradually increased until now the church not only does not receive aid from the augmentation fund but contributes to it. Last year about $2000 was raised for all purposes. Extensive repairs were made on the church building and a pipe organ has been bought which will be installed in a few weeks.
