The Carnival.

The masquerade carnival held in the Roller Rink was a great success. Every possible portion of the seating space was occupied, and excellent order was maintained throughout. The floor of this rink is one of the best in the province and the skates are a big improvement on those formerly used. The orchestra furnished splendid music. There were nearly 40 costumers and the judges were three commercial travellers who were sojourning in town.

The prize winners were Mrs. W. W. Ross, an ink stand for most original. Her well gotten costume was a representation of Night. Miss Louise Reid, dressed as Flower Girl, took the prize a fruit dish for fancy dress. Glenn Caldwell, as a two-faced woman, won a biscuit jar for his originality; and Roy Cameron as a Spanish Count received a silver urn.

The other costumers were Mrs. E. Wilkinson, tambourine girl; Mrs. Gordon McAdam, nurse; Mrs. H. B. Boyer, night; Mrs. Geo. McGoldric, bride; Helen Alexander, Queen of Hearts; Nellie McAdam, fancy; Sadie Currie, hearts; Laura Curtis, Miss Canada; Mable Giffis, fancy; Lida Reid, Turkish girl; Millie Nevers, old woman; Bertie Paulkner, huntress; Myrtle Boyer, Canada; H. B. Boyer, Sunny Jim; John Fong, Chinaman; Garnet Birmingham, Harry Gillin, George Boyer, Hugh Smith, clowns; Lee Thistle, auntie; Bird McMullin, night and day; Frank McCollum, colored gent; T. R. Blain, Mephistopheles; Bertram Rideout, Coney Island sport; Claude Thistle, uniform; Wm. Nevers, old gen; Lorne McNally, "Harry Tracey"; Don Foster, Hunter; Arnold Blissard, darky girl.

Many attended from Woodstock, Centreville, and other places nearer by.

It is the intention of the management to give another carnival in a few weeks.

Hartland Bridge To Be Free.

The announcement that the Hartland toll bridge is soon to be made free to the public has been received with genuine enthusiasm by all the people for miles around. While the people have agitated the matter from the very day the bridge was opened, the most encouraging answer the government has heretofore been able to give is that it would be taken over and made free sometime in the future "when the finances of the province should permit." To a great many this seemed a hopeless outlook, while others were more sanguine. But it must be admitted that the Solicitor-General's announcement in the Legislature last week was a genuine surprise party after all. The exact date when the bridge shall be opened to the public is not given out, but "at the close of the present term" is sufficiently definite to cause a wave of real satisfaction to go over this part of the country.

Solicitor-General Jones, it is said, has made this matter his hobby since his election and more particularly so since he has been a member of the government. The people's confidence in him, in this respect at least, has not been misplaced. Mr. Jones is receiving congratulations over his success in this matter, not only by those directly interested, but by his fellow-members from all parts of the province.

There are many local people who have shown much zeal in endeavoring to bring about the abolition of the tolls, but it is doubtful if much credit is due to any single individual, other than the Solicitor-General, for the achievement attained. Others who have interested themselves have done little more than reflect the status of the popular feeling in the matter.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Curtis has been quite seriously ill.

E. I. Morgan visited Fredericton last week.

Mrs. DeLong of Bristol was in the village the other day.

Miss Kate Phillips returned last week from Limestone.

L. G. McFarland is able to be out but is still unfit for work.

Rev. T. S. VanWart of Waterville was in Hartland on Friday.

D. H. Keswick had his hand badly injured in the Cross Creek mill.

Miss Blanch Kelley has gone to Montreal to take an advanced course in music.

Miss Somerville who has been stopping at J. F. McElhiney's visited Caribou recently.

Alex and Miss Henderson, Woodstock, were guests of Mrs. S. S. Miller last week.

Mrs. George A. Ross of Woodstock was visiting her sister Mrs. E. Alexander last week.

A party of 25 came from Centreville to attend the carnival. They registered at the Exchange.

Gideon Shaw, Somerville, continues in a feeble condition. Mrs. Shaw has been seriously ill also.

Charles McMullin of East Florenceville has been visiting in Hartland for the past two or three weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Bohan, Mrs. M. Bohan, Miss McGaffigan and Miss Bohan of Bath were at the Exchange on Friday, on a driving trip to Woodstock.

Miss Ada Dickinson of Victoria Corner, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. D. H. Boyd at Fort Fairfield for about two weeks, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Squire J. C. Everett has retired from the journalistic field in so far as the Sentinel is concerned. He has written regularly for that paper for about 40 years.

Roy Taylor who has been at Griswold, Aroostook, County arrived home Saturday. This week he goes to work on the dam of the Maine & N. B. Electric Co., at Aroostook Falls.

Tom Thistle has disposed of his business at Perth and has returned to Hartland. He has opened a shop in one of the Gillin apartments and will carry on a business in custom tailoring and jewelry repairing.

J. T. A. Dibblee is closing out his Hardware store at Hartland and is offering his stock of Hardware, paints, big stoves granite and tinware and tools of all kinds at cost. Now is the opportunity to get bargains.

Frank Nixon returned home last week from the Restigouche where he has been bookkeeping for his father, D. H. Nixon, the well known lumber operator. He is very ill of pleurisy, but under the care of Dr. MacIntosh is recovering.

Frank McDougall of Truro; F. W. Munro, M. Atkinson, W. J. Grovesnor, J. W. Anderson, E. H. Cheque, F. A. Creighton St. John, J. H. Pope, Montreal, C. L. Syphers, Woodstock, G. D. Anderson, Quebec, G. F. Burden, Pokiook, were at the Exchange during the past week.

Kiss Edith Kennedy continues very seriously ill. Last week a consultation of two physicians was held but the case is apparently a puzzling one. Mrs. Hovey who is suffering from paralysis is a member of the same family and her condition is considered hopeless. Miss Kate Phillips is the nurse in charge.

Although not yielding so large a percentage of fine days, February has been relatively as mild and pleasant a month as January was. Of the 28 days 18 have been fair. A few mornings were decidedly cold but the most have been delightfully mild. To date there has not been a day this winter that has been really disagreeable; and neither the railway nor the highways have been blocked to any extent whatever.

On Sunday six freight trains, four of them "doubleheaders," passed through Hartland. There was probably more produce shipped from this county that day than would be shipped in a whole season 35 years ago. During the week 272 cars of outward bound freight passed through here. Supposing it was possible to move all this by teams, more than 10,000 horses would be required, and almost as many men. This is a pretty lively country after all.

John Burnett, jr., who has been taking the law course at Dalhousie's University, arrived home on Saturday. On Monday he left for L'oyminster, Sask., where the Barr Colony is located, and will there take charge of the graded school. He has for a time suspended his college course under the advice of Dean Weldon, on the idea that his experience of real life in the west will aid him in the practice of law in the end.

Education in Maine and in New Brunswick.

The Editor of the Fort Fairfield Review thinks the pupils of the Maine schools lack a really good knowledge of "readin' an' writin'" and speaks thus complementarily of New Brunswick's educational system.—"Maine pupils do not compare in reading and writing with New Brunswick pupils of equal grade. Our experience and observation cause this statement, which we make most regretfully. We are not convinced the New Brunswick methods in teaching reading and writing are any better than those in vogue in Maine, but we do think more time and good drill are devoted to these necessities by our brethren across the border than by Maine instructors. A great trouble here is that when a boy gets so he can read half respectably in the third reader he practically drops his study of real old-fashioned English and takes on a mass of showy ologies and ostophies."

Resolution of Condolence.

To Mrs. William Smith and family. We, the officers and members of Flewelling L. O. L. No. 77 have adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS we are daily reminded of the uncertainty of life, and are made aware that none can tell when the scythe of time will cut us down and launch us into that unknown world beyond from which no traveller returns, and whereas we have learned with deep sorrow of the sudden death of Brother William Smith.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that we beg to tender you and your children our warm and heartfelt sympathy in the affliction through which you have recently passed in the removal by death of your affectionate husband and father who had been a true and worthy member in our lodge for some years.

You have indeed lost a kind husband and the children a kind and loving father, and our lodge a worthy and respected member, and while it has pleased our Divine Master to call him home, doubtless causing many a heartache to those who loved him dearly, yet we must humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, believing that He who has promised to be a Father to the fatherless and the widows. God will still comfort you in this year hour of trial. And

FURTHER RESOLVED that we drape our warrant for a period of three months in token of respect for our departed Brother. And

FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions duly signed by our Worshipful Master and Recording Secretary with the seal of the lodge attached be sent to the widow and a copy sent to the DISPATCH and "Sentinel" and a copy placed on the records of the Lodge.

ROSY-CHEEKED BABIES.

Nothing in the world is such a comfort and joy as a healthy, hearty, rosy-cheeked, happy baby. But the price of baby's health and happiness is constant vigilance on the mother's part. The little ills of babyhood come suddenly, and the wise mother will always be in a position to treat them at once. In promptly relieving and curing the ills of babyhood and childhood no other medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets, and they are guaranteed absolutely free from opiates and harmful drugs. Mrs. Wm. Sinclair, Hebron, N. B., says:—"Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for curing the ills of young children. I always keep the Tablets in the house, and do not know how I could get along without them." Sold at all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

When The Bridge Will Be Free.

According to the reports of the speech of the Hon. W. P. Jones he said the Hartland bridge would be free at the end of the present term and some curiosity has been expressed to know just when he meant. What the Solicitor General actually did say was that the bridge would be free at the end of the present quarter of the business year of the bridge management which ends April 30 h.
