

Local Topics.

NEXT Sunday is Easter Sunday.

MILES E. Flanders of Maple View, Vic. Co., spent last week in Woodstock.

RUNNERS are all done in Woodstock and everyone is glad to see the wheels again.

HARRY G. NOBLE has carnations for sale every Friday. He has found a ready sale for them.

MRS. JOSEPH FEWER who was operated on for appendicitis on Saturday at her home is doing well.

THE Bachelors of Centreville will give a ball and supper in the Centreville opera house, Easter Monday, April 16th.

H. R. MCGILL, a student of the University of New Brunswick, is acting principal of the Grammar School during the illness of Mr. Richards.

GEORGE R. BURTT, Thomas R. Blaine and Marion L. Hayward, of Hartland, have been incorporated as the Hartland Drug Co., Ltd., with a capital stock of $2,000.

MADAWASKA County Court opened at Edmundston yesterday, Judge Carleton presiding. The Hon. W. P. Jones and Mr. T. C. L. Ketchum are in attendance.

ALBERT BREWER who has had a crew of 20 men at work since Christmas replacing a span in the Florenceville highway bridge finished the work Saturday at six o'clock.

SYDNEY ROSS has resigned his position as train dispatcher in the C. P. R. offices here and will leave soon for Saskatoon where he will go into the real estate business.

HARRY KILLEYKELLY arrived in town last week, and is staying with his aunt, Mrs. John Graham. Mr. Killeykelly is in poor health and will shortly go to a sanitarium.

GEORGE W. GIBSON, John S. Eagles, A. C. Calder, W. B. Drysdale, Jennie V. Gibson and Edith U. Eagles have been incorporated as the George W. Gibson Co., Ltd., with a capital stock of $24,000.

EVERY cent which a man puts into an insurance policy with—The Manufacturers Life—is laid by towards the formation of an estate—an estate which often would not be otherwise accumulated.

MISS ISABEL CHISHOLM, graduate nurse of St. Joseph's Hospital, Glace Bay, last year, and who has since been attached to the nursing staff of the Moncton hospital, has left for Woodstock, where she will assume a position in the hospital.—Sydney Post.

J. EVERETT COLWELL offers for sale his valuable mill property and three farms at Taylors Mill. If he can dispose of this property at once he will sell at a great bargain as he is going west. The mill is on the line of railway, is the only one in the vicinity and has a very large patronage.

POWERS & BREWER, contractors, have the contract for putting in five concrete piers for the C. P. Ry at Andover this summer. Todd C. Brewer, one of the firm, was in Andover last week taking soundings and driving a few anchor piles. They will begin to sink their coffer-dams about the first of May.

R. A. CHRISTIE for thirteen years with Messrs T. B. Barker & Sons has taken a position with The Baird Co. This Company has increased the number of its travelling representatives from two to three this year and some of them have four men out. They are increasing the number of employees at headquarters by four this week.

CAPTAIN JOSEPH W. WILLIAMS, of Long Settlement, desires to thank all those kind friends who turned out and saved his dwelling house and barn from being consumed by the fire which destroyed his smoke house and well house; for with the wind blowing on his shed nothing but the steady and hard labor of those friends could have saved the rest of his buildings.

THE armoury is now heated with hot water. The installation of the plant was finished last Wednesday and heat was at once turned on. Fewer Bros. did the work. They had used 10,000 feet of pipe and when it was filled there was not a poor joint in the whole system. The outside of the building is assuming more its final appearance every day. A crew of carpenters will go to work at once to finish the interior.

THE DISPATCH has been increasing and improving its printing plant. In January we discarded our old newspaper press and replaced it with a better one and for a water motor we substituted a two h. p. gasoline engine. Last week we installed a 13x19 Gordon press. We have now three first class presses all of which we can run at once by power. THE DISPATCH has been in existence nearly twelve years and every year we have added something to the plant. This year we have placed it among the best equipped country offices in the Maritime Provinces.

A GRAND banquet will be tendered Messrs. B. Frank Smith and J. K.
