

Local Topics.

MR. RICHARDS, principal of the grammar school, is ill of typhoid fever at the hospital.

THE Carleton Sentinel has installed a new job press for light work. It was already well equipped for heavy work.

L. O. SEELY of Waterville who was so dangerously ill of heart trouble about three weeks ago is able to be out again.

J. M. AITKEN of the Royal Bank of Canada at Antigonish, N. S. has been transferred to the agency at Chatham, which is Mr. Aitken's old home.

LADIES, don't forget Mrs. Wm. Loane's Easter millinery opening on Thursday and Friday, April 12th, and 13th. Her stock is new and up-to-date.

JOHN S. LEIGHTON jr., business manager of the St. John Sun came up on Saturday and returned to St. John on Tuesday. On Monday evening he occupied his seat at the Town Council.

BY MEANS of Life insurance in the Manufacturers Life, a man may buy in instalments a fortune deliverable to his family at death, or to himself at the end of ten, fifteen or twenty years.

It is rumored that the Lord's Day Alliance have petitioned parliament to pass a law preventing All Fool's Day from falling on Sunday as it did this year. They don't consider it respectful.

DR. G. B. MANZER returned last week from Boston very much improved in health and is again busy in his office. He has two assistants, whom he requires to enable him to take care of an increasing practice.

Sis and Bub, or Diamonds and Hearts a three act comedy drama will be played in Forester's Hall, Bristol under the auspices of the Carleton Cadet Band, next Wednesday evening, April 11th. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

THE R. V. F. S. Todd who lost his residence on St. John street by fire last week has bought the G. A. Keith residence on Orange Street now occupied by Mr. Manzer. Mr. Manzer has bought the W. D. Steeves residence on Broadway.

JESSE GREEN of Fredericton, J. William Smalley of Upper Peel, D. W. Ross of Florenceville, Charles J. Smalley of Stickney, and Weldon W. Melville of Florenceville are seeking incorporation as the Peel Lumber Company, with a capital stock of $13,000.

B. FRANK SMITH's saw mill at Florenceville was closed down most of last week on account of a break in the engine. W. W. Melville who is operating the mill came to Woodstock Wednesday to get repairs for it, which were made by Connell Bros.

"ME AN OTIS" which is to be put on in the opera house in aid of St. Paul's Church organ soon after Easter, has been played to crowded houses and most appreciative audiences in St. John and St. Stephen and repeated in each place by special request. Do not miss it.

BARTER BROS wish to thank the people of Avondale for the prompt and generous assistance rendered during the destruction of their property by fire on March 24th. They were able to save the dry house and part of the lumber shed but the woodworking factory and contents are practically a total loss. It is doubtful if they rebuild.

THE private post card idea has obtained such a strong hold on the public that one can never tell what sort of thing he will receive through the mail. Last Saturday THE DISPATCH received a new crisp one dollar note, plainly addressed to the Editor, and bearing a one cent stamp. It made the journey safely and arrived in first class condition.

MISS ELIZABETH S. DAY died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Marsten on Friday evening after a stroke of paralysis at the age of 79 years. The funeral service was held on Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church, the Rev. G. A. Ross officiating. Miss Day was the only surviving daughter of the late Daniel P. J., one of the first settlers at Woodstock. Mrs. A. J. Marsten, Mrs. Cupples, Mrs. Elbridge Estey and Mrs. Geo. Smith are cousins of the deceased.

Order Drugs by Mail or Telephone

It's the better way this weather. It saves time, trouble and effort. Keep cool at home and let us do the work. Try us and see

N. B. Telephone 73-3 Union 163.

E. W. MAIR,

The Prescription Druggist.

REV. J. H. A. ANDERSON, of Florenceville, preached in St. Paul's church on Sunday last, at both services.

THE HON. W. P. JONES has sold his office building on Queen Street to Howard McDonald and will move his office to his residence.

THE new pipe organ for St. Paul's Presbyterian Church has arrived and is being placed in position. It will be played in the services next Sunday.

MRS A. J. MURRAY who has just returned from the St. John millinery openings will cordially receive her old customers and new ones, April 12 and 13. Next door to post office, Bristol, N. B. She has a full line of new, up to date millinery.

WHEN in St. John last week Senator King, speaking of the Grand Trunk Pacific, said it never was and is not now the intention of the government to abandon the Quebec-New Brunswick section. He had it on good authority that the survey would be continued about May 1st.

THE Misses Gallagher will display at their Easter Millinery Opening Monday and Tuesday April 9 and 10th a beautiful line of millinery trimmings, flowers, straw braids, ornaments, trimmed and untrimmed hats. An extensive variety from the most up-to-date millinery centres.

W. F. GLIDDEN bought from Wilmot Watson his bay mare by Pure Wilks and sold her to Dr. Rankin. This is a very handsome mare with quite a turn of speed and a first class roadster. Mr. Glidden has sold 24 horses since January 1st; 4 to Donald Fraser & Co. of Temiscouata, 3 to Woster Cronkhite, Lower Southampton, 1 to Wm. McAtee, Union Corner, 2 to the Maritime Implement Co. Moncton, 1 to John Hay, Woodstock, 1 to Stephen Whitehead, Fredericton, 1 to Walter Kennedy, Millville, 1 to J. A. Edwards, Fredericton, 2 to Hugh Savage, Lower Southampton, 4 to the Scott Lumber Co., Fredericton, 2 to J. J. Hale, Grafton, and 1 to H. H. McCartin, St. Stephen.

WE copy the following from the "Daily Eastern Argus", Portland, March 19th. F. B. Greene was formerly Manager of the Maritime Pure Food Co. Ltd., of this town and will be remembered by many. The Monmouth Canning Co., of which Mr. Greene is General Manager is financially strong and does a large and increasing business.—"H. True Hooper has sold his house (lately badly damaged by fire) to F. B. Greene, general manager of the Monmouth Canning Co. C. A. Hanson, contractor, has a force of men at work rebuilding the house on the same ground lines as before and will fit it up in a proper manner to compare with its location. The residences in this immediate vicinity, corner Longfellow, Highland and Brighton avenue, are among the best in the Deering part of the city and command extensive views of the city proper one way and White Mountains the other."

PERSONAL.

Mrs. T. H. Noble, of Bristol, is visiting her son Mr. Harry G. Noble.

Mr. Dow Bishop of Chipman is the guest of his uncle G. Flewelling.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Connell left for a trip to New York on Monday.

Mr. Richard L. Cronkhite, of Middle Southampton, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. L. P. Fisher, who has been visiting in Nova Scotia, returned on Thursday.

D. McGaffigan and Miss Kate McGaffigan of Florenceville were in town last week.

Miss Mary Murray of Houlton spent a few days with her friend, Josephine Ryan, last week.

George Flewelling left on Monday for Hartland to take up his summer's work in F. E. Sayre's saw mill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer of Tracy Mills were in town last week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Noble.

Miss Ruel, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Dibble, returned to her home in Chicago last week.

Mrs. G. R. Anderson, Halifax, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garden, left for the home on Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Mills and Miss Lottie Mills of Maysville, Me., were in town last week, guests of Miss Kate Stephenson.

Miss Alice Vera Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Connell, has been appointed Superintendent of the hospital at Hackensack, N. J.

Mrs. J. T. Garden arrived home from Boston on Thursday last. Mr. Garden, whose health is improving, will spend a few weeks in Boston before returning.

Mr. John A. Lindsay leaves today for Chicago where he will spend a month with his son, Hollis J. Lindsay, who is a student in the American Conservatory of Music.

MISS BOLTON, of York County, has been engaged as matron of the Carleton County Hospital, to take the place of Miss Gamble who has resigned.

GUY JACQUES, an attendant at the Carleton County Hospital, was operated on last week for appendicitis. He underwent a second operation on Monday.

H. S. BURTT, proprietor of the Turner House has placed in his kitchen a large new range of the latest pattern, made by the McClary Manufacturing Company.

THE Grand Orange Lodge of New Brunswick opened in the opera house last evening Grand Master Harry F. McLeod presiding. There are about 100 delegates in attendance.

JAMES PETERS, of Florenceville, who had a severe attack of typhoid fever last autumn, from the effects of which he has not yet recovered, was taken ill with appendicitis last week, but fortunately an operation was not considered necessary.

The Brush You Want

is undoubtedly in our stock.

When it comes to bristle goods we can say a whole lot for we carry as fine an assortment as you could wish to see.

Brushes of all kinds and qualities, selected from the stocks of the best foreign and American manufacturers. Buying as we do in large quantities we are able to give our customers better values for their money than would be possible otherwise.

That brush you want, whether a hair brush, hat brush, tooth brush, cloth brush, hand brush, bath brush, or nail brush, is here. Come and pick it out.

GARDEN BROS.

DRUGGISTS,

Main Street, Opposite Queen,

Woodstock, N. B.

The Best Quality For Your Money

When we say we have the BEST values in Woollens and make the Finest Tailor-Made Garments we do so without fear of contradiction. We can back up this claim with the strongest argument possible, namely, THE GOODS THEMSELVES. If you are in need of a Spring Overcoat, Suit, Trousers, or Vest, you will do yourself a favor by looking over our immense line of Woollens.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

After May 1st all our friends will find us located on the East Side of Main Street, between Carlisle Hotel and Post Office, when we will be pleased to meet all our old customers and all the new that will come.

GEO. W. GIBSON,

Merchant Tailor, Queen St.

We Have Just Opened The Finest Line of Men's, Boys' and Children's SUITS,

It has ever been our pleasure to exhibit and the prices will surprise you. Also,

DENT'S DRESS KIDS,

in Tans and Browns.

Also, WHITE KIDS, WHITE DRESS SHIRTS.

R. B. JONES, MANCHESTER HOUSE

Main Street.

ONE PRICE TO ALL.

Henceforth our Motto, "No More Discounts."

The Discount System has not proved satisfactory to ourselves or customers. All large Business Houses and the great Department stores have adopted one price. We have decided to do the same. Everything will be marked in plain figures the very lowest and best we can do.

NET CASH

PLEASE DO NOT ASK FOR DISCOUNTS

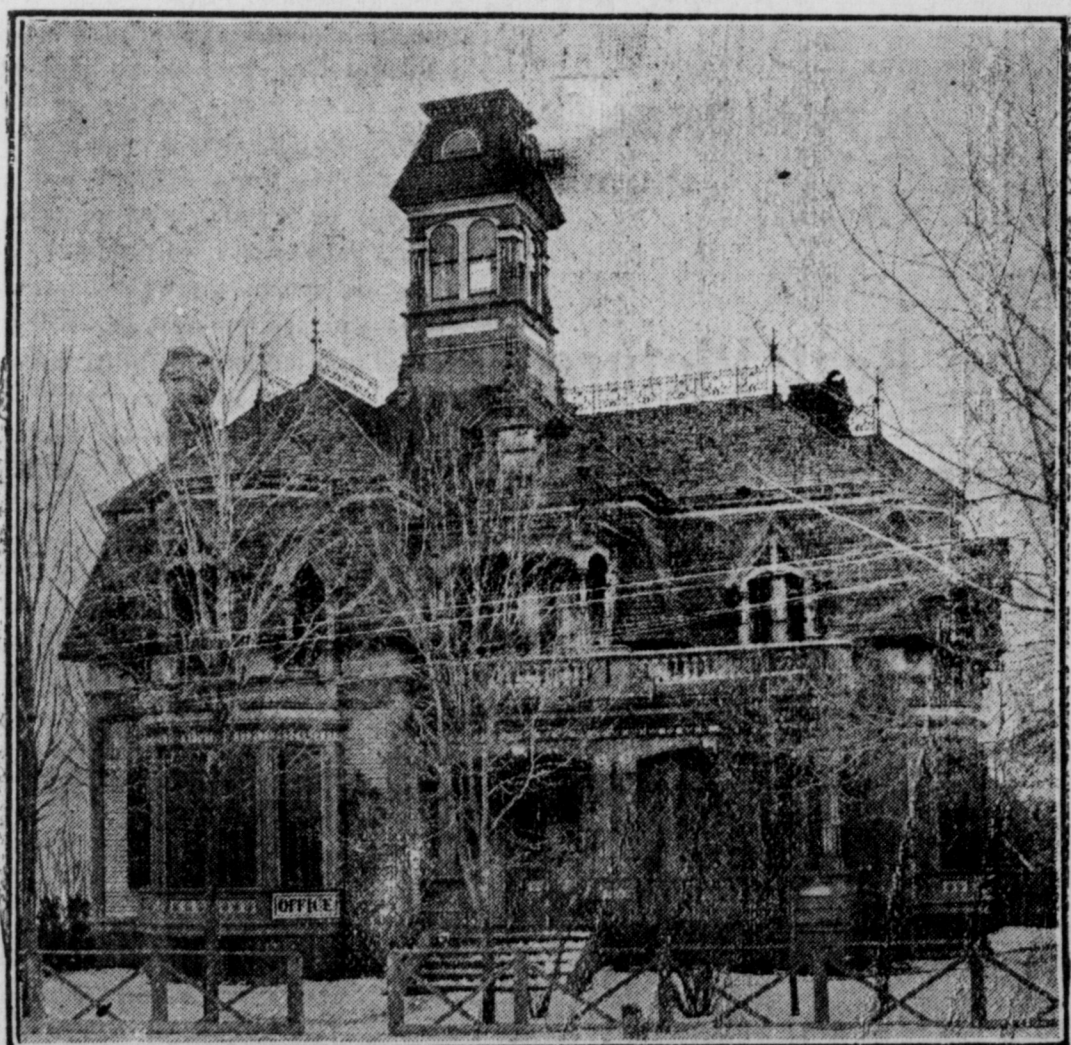

We cannot do it and it is very uncomfortable and embarrassing for clerk or customer to refuse. Consider quality, freight, etc., and compare our prices with others.

Best Qualities, Lowest Prices,
Small Profits, Increased Sales,
Prompt Collections, No Bad Debt,

Thus only can we hope to make this radical change a success.

A. Henderson Furniture Company, L'td,

Queen Street.

Our New Dental Office is now open in the Dr. Smith house, Main St., second residence on right side of street above Post Office.

E. S. KIRKPATRICK, D. D. S.

Assistants—Dr. A. R. Currie and G. Fred. Clarke.

Marriage Licenses & Wedding Rings for sale by CARR & GIBSON, Jewellers Woodstock