It is important that persons placing FIRE INSURANCE

CALEDONIAN, the Oldest Scottish Fire Office.
NORWICH UNION, Established in 1797.
ATLAS, Founded in the reign of King George III and the QUEEN.

A. HENDERSON CO.

Scott Act Inspector's Report.

TO THE WARDEN AND COUNCILLORS OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF CARLETON:—
GENTLEMEN.—I have placed my account as Inspector under "The Canada Temperance Act" for the year A D 1905 in the hands of the County Auditor as required.

We have had a very successful year in the enforcement of the Act in this county.

As have been well known, for years past we have had a great deal of difficulty in preventing the sale of liquor on the boundary line between this county and the State of Maine, owing to the fact that the buildings in which the traffic was carried on were constructed partly on each side of the boundary line, but during the year past we have been able, by acting in conjunction with the officers from the American side, to drive nearly all the persons selling on the line out of business, and to place some of them behind the bars of the state's prison at Portland for a year's term.

This result was accomplished by driving the rum sellers with their liquor across the line, where they were promptly arrested as smugglers by the United States authorities. In the prosecutions which followed it was necessary for me and my officers to go to Bath, Maine, to give evidence against them.

In June last a quantity of liquor of various kinds—three double sloven wagon loads—said to be worth two thousand dollars was seized under a search warrant at the line store, so called, on the road between Woodstock and Houlton. This liquor was conveyed to my residence in Woodstock, where for five months and ten days I kept charge of it, during which time a conviction was made against the occupant of the line store before the Police Magistrate of Woodstock on a charge of illegally keeping intoxicating liquor for sale, and an order made for the destruction of the liquor seized.

This conviction was taken up before the Supreme Court Judges at Fredericton, and after argument, was sustained, and the action of the officers in seizing the liquor was justified. The destruction of the liquor then took place.

I appreciate very much the assistance we have received from the American officers in connection with the work on the line, and also the help received from our own officers in the prosecution of the Act.

There were 55 cases during the year, 35 convictions made, and 19 cases dismissed.

The financial result is, after allowing for the payment of all bills, a deficit for the year of two hundred and thirty nine dollars and sixty two cents.

Dated the 8th day of January, A. D. 1906
Respectfully submitted,
BANFRED COLPITTS,
Inspector.

Bath.

Rev. John Perry of Hartland occupied the pulpit of the Union Baptist church here on Sabbath evening last, taking the appointment of Rev. L. A. Fenwick, who preached his farewell sermon to the Union Baptist church at Perth, Mr Fenwick goes to take charge of the Bristol church along with the Bath and Wicklow churches. Quite a large number of people went from here to attend the opening services of the U B church at Centreville last Sunday.

The farmers are hauling their hay at present, but not such large quantities at this season owing to the low price.

Mr G. Ibert Giberson has shipped several carloads of lath from his mill recently erected and has a crew of men constantly sawing.

The many friends of Whitfield Giberson, who went to a Boston hospital recently and underwent an operation for an abscess in his side, will be glad to learn that he is slowly recovering.

Miss Clara Jones, of this place, has charge of the school at Armond this term, and Miss Emma Barker still continues her school at Arthurette, Victoria Co.

BABY'S HEALTH.

"When a child is well, give it no medicine," is a wholesome adage. But at the first sign of trouble the careful mother will give Baby's Own Tablets, which promptly cure indigestion, colic, constipation, diarrhoea, simple fevers and teething troubles. They contain not one particle of opiate or poisonous "soothing" stuff, yet they give refreshing sleep because they remove the cause of sleeplessness and the child awakens bright and well. Mrs. F. McIntosh, Wabigoon, Ont., says: "Baby's Own Tablets wrought a wonderful change in my little one. When he was two months old he began to fail and cried almost night and day. But after giving him the tablets he grew well and is now a bright, laughing baby, who scarcely ever gives and trouble. The Tablets are surely a blessing to both mother and child." All druggists sell these Tablets or you can get them by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

When Mark Twain was a young and struggling newspaper writer, in San Francisco, a lady of his acquaintance saw him one day with a cigar-box under his arm looking in a shop window.

"Mr. Clemens," she said, "I always see you with a cigar-box under your arm. I am afraid you are smoking too much."

"It isn't that," said Mark. "I'm moving again."

In the management of his affairs every man recognizes that the great point is not to spend as little as possible—which is simply niggardiness and not economy at all—but to get just as much as he can out of the amount spent.—Kate Field.

	Kings and Queens	Wellington

Stevens	72	126

There were no surprises in the election, except, perhaps, the size of Mr. Munro's majority.

Mr. Munro, the Mayor of Woodstock, is a stockholder and one of the directors of Connell Bros. Ltd, one of the largest firms in town, manufacturers of farm and mill machinery and stoves. He was superintendent of the water and sewerage systems from the time of their installation until two years ago, and no man has a better knowledge of the town's business and of the intricate details of the most difficult departments of its affairs than he.

Alexander Dunbar, the member of the new council who was elected at the head of poll, is the senior member and president of the Alex. Dunbar & Sons, Ltd, also one of the largest concerns in town. They are manufacturers of heavy machinery of all kinds, and the Dunbar Shingle Machine is known from the mills of Westmorland County to those of British Columbia.

Albert G. Fields is foreman of the machine shops of the Small & Fisher Co., again one of the largest firms in town. For years he was a member of the fire department.

Isaiah Fisher, who was chairman of the electric light committee in the last council, is also an employe of the Small & Fisher Co.

James McManus, who was chairman of the poor committee in the last council, is a member of the firm of McManus Bros., dealers in dry goods. Mr. McManus is Registrar of Probate for Carleton County.

John S. Leighton, jr., was chairman of the fire committee in the last council. He has been Deputy Registrar of Deeds for Carleton county, sessional clerk in the House of Commons, and is now overseer of the construction of the armory.

Alexander Henderson is president of the Alexander Henderson, Ltd, manufacturers of and dealers in furniture. In the last council he was chairman of the water works committee.

Mrs. Edith Jane Smith.

The funeral of Mrs. Eugene H. Smith of Bangor, formerly Miss Edith Jane Churchill of Fort Fairfield, who died at 7.30 o'clock Friday evening, January 5, at her Bangor home, occurred Tuesday forenoon, at the Fort Fairfield Free Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. E. M. Trafton, officiating. The church was crowded with mourning and sympathizing friends, the funeral being one of the largest ever known in this region. Mrs. Smith was born in Jacksonville, N. B. August 21, 1885, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Churchill. When about six years old her parents moved to Fort Fairfield, which henceforth was her home until her marriage.—Fort Fairfield Review.

President Harper Dead.

William Rainey Harper, LL. D., president of the University of Chicago since its inception in 1891, regarded by many as the foremost Hebrew scholar in America, and equally renowned as educator and business man, died last Wednesday of cancer of the intestines, at his home in the university campus. Although his death was known to be inevitable, within a comparatively short time, the end, owing to physical exhaustion, came suddenly. He was forty-nine years old. It has been said that President Peterson of McGill University may be his successor.

A Colossal Failure.

One of the most colossal failures in life America has produced died yesterday worth many millions of dollars. He was Charles T. Yerkes; he failed as a husband, and his wife left him; he failed as a citizen, and went to jail; he failed as a business man, and was black-balled by the leading clubs of the world; he failed as a Christian gentleman, and died despised by his fellows.—[Emporia Gazette.]

THE BAIRD COMPANY

Begins the New Year With an Entirely New List of Stock Holders and a New Management.

The business conducted by The Baird Co., of this town is one of the oldest and most respected in the province. It was established in 1839 by Col. William T. Baird a gentleman who beside being a skilful chemist was an enthusiastic military man and is well known as the author of "Seventy years of New Brunswick Life." Mr. Baird though he did only a retail business at first yet he acquired the formulae of a number of valuable remedies which he put on the market and which became familiar in the majority of the households of this part of the province. Though not conducting a wholesale business in a large sense, at any time, the demand for his products grew wider and he was constantly asked to supply them to other retailers whose customers wanted them.

In 1880 his son H. Paxton Baird succeeded to the business and finding that the demand for the proprietary remedies manufactured by his father was on the increase he enlarged his establishment, increased the output, and, extending the scope of the enterprise, embarked on the sea of wholesale commerce. With characteristic energy he became the proprietor of new and valuable prescriptions and compounds until at length the wholesale department of the business overtopped the retail and in 1902 he sold his retail establishment to E. W. Mair. Before this time Mr. Baird had organized his wholesale business into a joint stock company, "The Baird Company Limited," with a capital stock of $80,000 of which $40,000 was paid and of which he was the principal owner.

Last week the stock of The Baird Co., changed hands. Mr. Baird sold out entirely to the following men:—

Edgar W. Mair.
Walter S. Shaw.
Colin M. King.
Frank E. Shea.
Dr. Griffin.
H. F. Grosvenor.
John S. Eagles.
George Howard.
Fred Sanborn.
Fred Lister.
William Lister.
George E. Phillips.

The new stockholders met on Monday afternoon and elected the following men as directors:—Edgar W. Mair, Walter S. Shaw, Colin M. King, John S. Eagles and Frank E. Shea.

At the first meeting of the board of directors Mr. Mair was elected president, Walter S. Shaw, vice-president and Colin M. King secretary-treasurer.

The Baird Co. in taking a new lease of life starts out under the most favourable auspices. It occupies a new situation on King street where it has large and well lighted offices, a show room on two streets and the manufacturing departments are large and airy with windows on three sides. The brightness of the entire establishment cannot but impress a visitor, and in the manufacturing department especially one must get the idea of absolute cleanliness. While the management has fallen into entirely new hands, yet some of the stockholders are men who were employed by the old company. Thus while old customers may look for possibly a slight difference in the business management, yet they may look for a product no less good, for quite the same promptness in shipping orders, and for unvaried courtesy from the home office.

The Company have three travellers on the road, among whom are Walter S. Shaw and John S. Eagles, members of the board of directors, who are well known in the province. The whole territory covered by the company is New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island and part of Quebec. Though the company sends no traveller into the city of Montreal they annually receive large orders from wholesale houses there.

Among the well known remedies manufactured by the house are Kendrick's White Liniment, The Granger Remedies, and McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup, said to be the best thing of its kind in Canada. Beside their own preparations they carry a full line of the sort of stock required by druggists and very many lines kept by the general store-keeper. Their lines of English pipes and tobaccos is unusually large, and the reputation of their absolutely pure spices and flavouring extracts is unexcelled.

Mr. Eagles and Mr. Shaw are both on the road now with full lines of samples and in a few days a third man will go out.
