County Council.

UPPER WOODSTOCK, Jan. 9th.

Council met at 10 a. m. There were present the following members of the Board:—
 Aberdeen—David Lamont, Edward Wiley.
 Brighton—A. Bradley, C. J. Connolly.
 Kent—John Keenan, John Kinney.
 Northampton—Henry Phillips, Alex Brown.

Peel—Edward Melville, Wm Tompkins.
 Richmond—John Hay, Alex Bell.
 Simonds—W. A. Raymond, W. L. Moores.
 Wakefield—Frank Shaw, Albert Bell.
 Wilmot—Harry Carvell, J. F. Williams.
 Woodstock Parish—John Flemming, James Forrest.

Woodstock Town—Joseph Fewer, A. G. Bailey, William Balmain.

Wicklow—W. J. Owens, W. Jamieson.
 The secretary-treasurer, Mr. J. C. Hartley called the Council to order and stated that the first business was the election of a warden.

On motion of Coun. Carvell, Coun. A. G. Bailey was unanimously elected Warden.

Coun. Bailey took the chair and thanked the council for the honour conferred on him. It was an honour to be a member of the council, and to be the warden, its head, was a still higher honour. He did not know of any special business to come before the Board this year, and he hoped, as in the past, what was to be done, would be done in a business-like way. Since the last council, there had been changes by death, and by the decision of the electors. He was sure, in the latter case the electors had exercised their choice with full responsibility.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

The question of the reporting of the doings of the Council next came up.

Coun. Carvell moved seconded by Coun. Brown that T. C. L. Ketchum be appointed official reporter at a salary of $50 per year for the life of the council.

Coun. Connolly moved in amendment seconded by Coun. Keenan that the services of Mr. Ketchum be engaged at $50 for one year and that the papers be paid $25 each for publishing said report.

Coun. Raymond moved in amendment to the amendment that Mr. Ketchum be so engaged for one year, and that the papers be paid $12.50 each for publishing the report.

All the motions were severally put and lost.

It was then moved by Coun. Shaw and seconded that a committee be appointed to confer with the reporter and the editors of the papers as to an arrangement for reporting, and report after noon recess.

Coun. Williams moved as an amendment, seconded by Coun. Forrest, that Mr. Ketchum be appointed reporter for one year at a salary of $50 and that the three Woodstock papers be given $25 each for publishing the report, and that a committee be appointed to confer with other papers in the province as to a publication of the report for a future year. The motion was carried and Couns. Carvell, Raymond and Shaw were named the committee.

The Auditor, Col. D. McLeod Vince submitted his report as follows:—

MR. WARDEN:
 Your Auditor begs to report.

5. The undersigned is unable to make an audit of the accounts of the Municipality satisfactory to the Auditor owing to the lack of returns from the Collectors of Rates of Brighton, Kent, and one of Wicklow, and of the Jury Fees.

Respectfully submitted,

D. McLEOD VINCE, Auditor.

Coun. Williams—What is the indebtedness of the county at the present time?

Auditor—There is no current indebtedness, there is $1141.63 on hand.

Sec-treas.—$16,000 is the amount of the bonded indebtedness, $4000 is paid off, $1000 each year.

Coun. Williams—I would like you to report showing just how we stand if the amounts due the county were paid.

Mr. Vince—The bonded indebtedness of the County is $16,000. The parishes and town of Woodstock owe the County $6,500. There is $1000 on hand making assets of $7,500. Deduct $7,500 from $16,000 and you have $8,500 the net indebtedness.

Coun. Williams—That bears out the statement that I made that we only owe about $9000. A gentleman that spoke last election said that we were indebted 16 or 17 thousand dollars.

Coun. Melville—Still we are paying interest on that, and I think the proper statement is that we owe $16,000. The question is whether these assets are strictly good or not.

On motion J. C. Hartley was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer.

On motion D. McLeod Vince was unanimously elected Auditor.

The secretary-treasurer announced in answer to a question that his present bondsmen are William Fisher and B. Frank Smith and that they remained bound as long as he held the office.

The following petition was read:

To The Honourable Warden and Council of the Municipality of Carleton County:—

Whereas a road was laid out in the parish of Kent in the winters of 1903-04 between Thomas Pickard's and Henry Corcoran's places, and whereas we understand the damage of $80 has been paid John E. Kinney and some other amounts assessed for the same; we the undersigned ratepayers in view of the fact that the said road will be of great convenience to us as well as to the public, in general, do ask that the action of the jury be confirmed by your honourable body?

Signed by John Hallam, W. S. Broad, Thomas Pickard and 30 others.

Mr. Hartley explained that the county council had really nothing to do with this matter, since the change by which the local government took over the roads.

Petition received and placed on file.

Coun. Shaw moved that the question be left to a committee to report next June.

Coun. Williams moved an amendment seconded by Coun. Forrest that the petition be referred to a committee to report at one o'clock.

The Warden appointed Couns. Williams Forest and Fewer the Committee.

Council then adjourned for recess.

The Measure of His Brains.

One day as Attorney John Wye Mugridge and Judge Minot were walking along a street in Concord, N. H., together, Mr. Mugridge said, in his sepulchral voice: "Judge, let's go into partnership. You furnish the capital and I'll furnish the brains."

The judge pulled a two-cent piece from his pocket put it in the palm of his hand, and holding it out to Mugridge, said, in his squeaky way: "Cover that! Cover that!"—Boston Herald.

The Guileless Housemaid.

'It is no wonder to me,' said a member of the detective force the other day, 'that the fake telephone linemen and other sneak thieves find Washington an easy mark. I had a fine example of that a few days back. There had been a family robbed over in Georgetown on the fake telephone game, and I was sent over to look into the case. The maid met me at the front door, said her mistress was busy at the moment, but would see me in a little while. Then she walked off and left me sitting in the hall for twenty minutes. She did not know me from a basket of walnuts. I had on plain clothes and my badge was inside my coat. But she took my word for who I was, and left me alone long enough to have cleaned out the entire lower floor if I had been so minded. This, too, after the family had been robbed.'

'Well, when her mistress came downstairs I told her gently and diplomatically what I thought of her servant. Of course, she had to admit I was right, but it was the first time the case had occurred to her in that light. People ought never to allow strangers in their house a minute out of their sight. The fake telephone game has been worked off so often that the public ought to be familiar with it by this time, but it seems to me that no matter how often a confidence game or a scheme of robbery is exploited in the papers, the next victim happens never to have read it. Green goods, gold bricks and the Spanish inheritance game have been written about till I should think people were tired of reading about them. But they seem to catch suckers just as well now as though they were brand new inventions.—Washington 'Star.'

Slips of the Tongue.

Everybody is presumed to have heard of the man who said to a stranger whom he found in his seat at church one Sunday morning, "I beg your pardon, sir, but you are occupying my pie." A near relative—probably a descendant—of this man, who answers to the name of Jones, was dining with a friend. The soup had been brought on, and the wife of the host was apologizing for it.

"I am afraid you will find it seasoned too highly, Mr. Jones," she said. "I tell Susan every day of my life not to use so much salt and pepper in her cooking, but it doesn't do any good."

"The soup is all right, Mrs. Irons," the guest hastened to assure her. "It's exactly Susan to seat my taste."

The Henderson Furniture Co.,

Queen St., Woodstock,

To the Citizens of the Town of Woodstock:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—
 Having been solicited by a large number of citizens to offer for the Mayoralty and having given the matter due consideration, I have decided to accede to the request and beg to announce that I will be a candidate for Mayor of this town at the election to be held on the 15th day of January next and I would respectfully solicit your consideration and your votes. If honoured with your confidence to the extent of being elected I will certainly do all that I can to further the interests of the citizens of this town and I will devote my best energies toward a careful administration of the town affairs and an economical and judicious expenditure of its revenues.

Yours Respectfully,
 DONALD MUNRO.

Perfect Fitting

"Progress Brand"

A suit that does not fit, is like bread without salt. Fit depends more on what you don't see, than on what you do. It is the hand work—hand stitching and hand moulding—that shapes shoulders, collars and backs into grace and symmetry.

"Progress Brand" Clothes hold their faultless fit because the inside work—the careful, skilful handwork—is there.

New styles are uncommonly choice. See them.
