HIS HONOR JUDGE CARLETON will shortly move his chambers to the record building.

SUNDAY was a peach of a hot-day till about four o'clock when a most refreshing shower blew into our electrical district.

NEXT TUESDAY will be held the annual large picnic of St. Gertrude's. Make up your mind to attend, for a jolly good time is assured.

REV. W. B. WIGGINS and wife are at Riverside Camp Ground where they will remain until after the Camp Meeting Aug. 17th-27th.

THE postponement of Riverside Camp Meeting until the 17th inst. will have a tendency to increase the attendance, as haying will be over by that date.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER CRAIGS wish to express their thanks to their many kind friends in Woodstock for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their late bereavement.

FRANK E. SHEA and family will move to Saskatoon, Sask. where Mr. Shea has a position with a new wholesale drug company. Mr. Shea has had a long experience with the Baird Co., here.

SUCH a good time was enjoyed at Riverside Camp Meeting last year, that the whole Upper Country on both sides of the river are looking forward to it. Don't miss the date Aug. 17th-27th.

EVERY cent which a man puts into an insurance policy with—The Manufacturers Life—is laid by towards the formation of an estate—an estate which often would not be otherwise accumulated.

THERE will be a meeting of the Directors of the Carleton County Agricultural Society in the Record office Saturday afternoon. A full attendance requested as matters of importance are to be considered.

"UNDER Southern Skies" is one of the most complete productions that travels. Every scene and property used in the presentation is carried, as is also an electric outfit for the proper lighting of the scenes.

JAMES COX, of Mars Hill, Me., who had been in the hospital getting treatment for heart trouble, died suddenly in that institution last week. He leaves a widow and a large family. The remains were removed to his home Saturday.

THE Ladies' Golf Association of the Maritime Provinces will hold their second annual meeting in St. John Sept. 3rd to 7th. Mrs. W. B. Belyea, Miss B. K. Dibblee and Miss Jessie Denison will be the representatives from the Woodstock club.

THE services at the Gibson Methodist church Sunday evening were very much brightened by the special music rendered on that occasion, especially by a duet sung sweetly by Mrs. W. C. Good, daughter of the pastor, Rev. J. C. Berrie, and Mrs. Brown, the former a clear ringing soprano, and the latter with a rich contralto voice. The boys' male quartette composed of Messrs Bailey, Mabee, Clayton and Brewer was also much appreciated.

ALTHOUGH the University of New Brunswick, being a state aided institution, is debarred from sharing in Carnegie's Pension Fund, it is understood that the trustees have decided to make an exception in the case of Chancellor Harrison and Prof. Bailey, and admit them to the pension list. Prof. Bailey has been a teacher for forty-five years, and Chancellor has seen thirty-eight years' service. The early retirement of these gentlemen from the university staff may be looked for.

THE Carleton County Nurses' Directory inaugurated at E. W. Mair's drug store, will fill a long felt want, as previous to this any one wanting the services of a trained nurse was very often put to a lot of inconvenience and trouble. The directory is in touch with all the physicians from Fredericton to Edmundston, thus offering a large field for our nurses. The purpose of the directory will be to provide a central and convenient place where a list of nurses not on cases will be kept, and where they can be reached with the least possible delay.

Sick Enough to Have a Doctor

When people are sick enough to call a physician they are certainly sick enough to need the purest drugs possible to procure. Sickness should not be trifled with. The point is to get the patient well in the quickest possible time.

We carry reliable drugs and medicines—the assayed kind. They have been tested and found pure and of standard strength. They are the kind that physicians desire used in their prescriptions but do not always get. No other kind is dispensed here.
