Gartley-Campbell.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gartley, Watson Settlement, Carleton County, was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday afternoon, September 5th, when their second daughter, Ethel May, was united in marriage to Garnet Wolsley Campbell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Teed in the presence of over sixty guests. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and flowers, and a beautiful floral arch in the centre of which was a large bell. Under this the bridal party stood while the ceremony was being performed. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream nun's veiling with trimmings of cream all over and lace, and carried a handsome bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The presents were numerous and costly, including several substantial cheques, showing the high esteem in which both parties are held. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold chain and locket, set with diamonds, which was worn during the ceremony and was much admired. After a tasteful luncheon was partaken of the happy couple left for their home followed by showers of rice and old slippers, and the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness.

W. F. DIBBLEE & SON are sole agents for the genuine Syracuse and Fluey Plows and they have lately received their full stock of plows, also, plow points, etc. Remember, you can only buy the genuine Syracuse and Fluey Plows and Plow Points, from the above firm at their stores, Woodstock and Centreville.

There will be no match on Monday, 17th. Instead a field day competition and picnic will be held on Tuesday, 18th, shooting to commence at 1 p. m. sharp. There will also be competition for the ladies, with smaller rifles. Prizes will be offered, and all who can avail themselves of this opportunity to spend an afternoon pleasantly should come and bring their baskets. Should Tuesday be rainy the competition and picnic will be held on the following day.

Truro's New Bishop.

English papers just to hand give prominence to the news of the appointment, approved by the King, of Very Rev. C. W. Stubbs, Dean of Ely, to be Bishop of Truro. Truro is one of the very important sees of England, and has been the stepping stone to the Primary. The late Archbishop Benson was Bishop of Truro before his promotion. There is a local interest in this bit of church news from the old land, since Dean Stubbs is a first cousin of Ven. Archdeacon Neales, and by rather a peculiar coincidence is within six days of being exactly the same age. The late Rev. James Neales and the new Bishop's mother were brother and sister.

A New Business Firm.

Wallace Gibson the well known shoe merchant has taken Loggie Ross into partnership with him and the business will hereafter be conducted under the name of Gibson & Ross. Both members of the firm have had long and valuable experience in the boot and shoe business and they can be relied on to supply the public with the best goods that can be had at the lowest prices at which they can be sold.

Woodstock Schools Stand High in Manual Training.

The competition at the St. John Exhibition among the manual training schools of the province was very keen. The silver medal was awarded to Woodstock. It is interesting to note that this school is in the hands of a lady teacher, Miss Louise Wetmore, of Clifton. T. B. Kidner, the provincial director, said that while male teachers were preferable from the point of view of organization and introducing, yet lady teachers had, in every case where they had continued their studies, proved a great success.

School Garden Exhibits at the St. John Fair.

There were only two exhibits for the best general display of the products of a school garden and as the conditions stipulated that at least five schools must compete to secure a division of the prize money which amounted to $50, the full award was not made. On the two exhibits sent in the judge, H. E. Gould, gave his decision as follows:

H. F. Perkins, Hartland (N. B.), 1st.
G. J. McAdam, Andover, 2nd.

Commenting on the lack of entries Mr Gould sent in the following note:—

It is much to be regretted that the class for school garden exhibits did not fill according to the rules laid down in class 64, only two exhibitors being entered instead of five as called for, Hartland and Andover only qualifying. Owing to the delay in transit much of the stock arrived in very bad condition and could not be staged. The vegetables and grain, however, were very creditable indeed, particularly those of the Hartland school, and in consideration of that fact I would recommend that a first prize of $5 be given to the Hartland school and one of $3 be awarded to Andover school. I would also recommend that in future all such exhibits be shipped express instead of freight.

Contributions to the Exhibition.

We, the undersigned, promise to give the amounts opposite our respective names to help the Carleton County Agricultural Society in providing special attractions during their exhibition from September 25th to 28th, inclusive.
