THE Rev. Dr. Fraser of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, preached at both services in St. Paul's church on Sunday. After the morning service the rite of baptism was administered to the Rev. G. D. Ireland's infant daughter and she received the name of Elizabeth Barbara Winslow. The sacrament of the Lords Supper was administered after the service.

EDWARD FAULKNER appeared before John McCormac, J. P., on Monday last, on a charge of shooting Alfred Geddes on the evening of the 18th September, at Grafton. After hearing the evidence the defendant was remanded to appear at the Circuit Court to be held on the 16th inst. Wm. M. Connell appeared for the crown and F. B. Carvell for the defence.

A HANDSOMELY matched team of brown bay horses, owned and driven by A. E. Hanson, attracted a good deal of attention about the streets yesterday. Mr. Hanson purchased the span from John Harper of Woodstock. They are remarkably well matched, are of good action and weigh about three thousand pounds. Mr. Hanson intends using them in the lumber woods.

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED THE NECESSITY AND ADVISABILITY OF SAVING?—The nucleus of many a fortune has been a savings bank account. Moreover, in event of sickness or misfortune, what is more desirable than a comfortable balance in the bank? An account to which interest will be added semi-annually may be opened at the Royal Bank of Canada with a deposit of one dollar or more. The fascination of watching such an account grow is marvellous.

THE Rev. G. A. Ross, of Hampton, formerly of Woodstock, prevented a case of bigamy last Saturday evening. A man came to him in the afternoon, accompanied by a young woman about 18 years of age, and wanted to be married. The time of the ceremony was fixed for 7.30 p. m. Mr. Ross's suspicions were aroused and he telegraphed the girl's father who lives in St. John and summoned the sheriff. When the couple came, at the appointed time, to have the ceremony performed, Mr. Ross told the would-be groom of his suspicion and asked him to wait till the girl's father arrived. The groom was forced to agree to this and left the house. The unhappy girl was handed over to her father. The would-be groom already has a wife in the United States.

CHARLES GLEW, of Woodstock, was badly injured in the Square Monday night by being run over by a team. In getting out of the way of one he was struck by the other, and was taken to the Arrostook hospital.—Houlton Times.

DR. COX set out from Chatham at five o'clock in the afternoon to get a moose. He had twenty-four hours to devote to the recreation and thought he ought to raise something in that time. At seven o'clock he drove into his yard with a very decent three year old bull moose. If any one can beat this record let him speak up.

ON Monday a freight train left the track at Deep Creek between Woodstock and Hartland and was badly smashed up. A brakeman, George McCluskey was pretty severely injured, his shoulder being put out of joint and some ribs broken. The track was so torn up that the passengers on the down express had to be transferred.

Popular C. P. R. Conductor Dead.

W. E. Berryman, a well-known C. P. R. conductor, died suddenly Friday morning at his home in St. Stephen. The deceased had been ill for some time, but his death was unexpected. Besides his wife and two small children, his mother, one brother and several sisters mourn their loss. He was a cousin of Dr. Berryman, and a nephew of Mrs. D. W. McCormick, of St. John. He was a member of Sussex Lodge F. & A. M. and of the United Order of Workmen.

MR. BERRYMAN ran a mixed train between St. Stephen and Woodstock. He was one of the most popular men on the road. A large number of people in Woodstock were shocked to hear of his death. A number of friends of Mr. Berryman went to St. Stephen by special train on Sunday to attend the funeral.
