THE board of School Trustees met last Wednesday evening in the office of the Secretary, Mr. E. K. Connell. There were present W. B. Belyea, acting chairman and Messrs George E. Balmain, Williamson Fisher, P. Bradley and W. W. Hay, who are trustees, and Messrs J. T. Allen Dibblee and J. S. Eagles who appeared as a delegation from Wellington ward, to ask that the residents of that ward be given better accommodation for their children in the Broadway school. The result of the meeting was that plans and specifications for an annex to the Broadway school building will be prepared at once and the time for accepting tenders is extended. The delegation from Wellington ward are to be congratulated on the success of their mission for without it there would in all probability have been no annex to the Broadway school and the Sloyd school would have been calmly murdered. Mr. Hay announced that he had resigned from the board.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

On July 2nd All Iron and Brass Beds Will Advance in Price.

Prices were raised by all Canadian manufacturers at a meeting held about May 10, and new price list is now in force.

Fortunately we had our stock well sorted up and have decided not to advance prices until July 2. Mutual Benefit Plan, see: Our customers have a month to decide and select at the old price, and we can thus reduce our large stock before holidays.

Prices are low now. There will be a rush while they last. Call early.
