

THINK IT OVER.

The Christmas Present you were going to buy. Where will you get it? A moment's thought will convince you that if you come here it will not be necessary for you to look farther, no need to 'shop' all over town.

We Have Holiday Goods

Suited to all persons and all purses.

THE PUBLIC schools close today. The Carleton County Teachers' Institute will open in the opera house tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

THE REV. J. H. COY of the Reformed Baptist church holds regular preaching services at Green Bush, Meductic and Lower Southampton.

MRS. L. R. SEELEY has traded her driving horse Dandy Hal, 2 29 1-2, with C. J. Hanson, Presque Isle, for Eola, 2 29 1-4.—Fort Fairfield Review.

J. MAUNS AITKEN who has been accountant of the Royal Bank of Canada at Newcastle has been promoted to the managership at Bathurst. He moves to Bathurst this week.

A CHRISTMAS tree and concert will be held in the Presbyterian church at McKenzie Corner on Christmas evening at 7.30 o'clock. A silver collection will be taken. All are cordially invited.

IT IS SAID the Houlton Foundry and Machine Company has been sold to the Dodge Manufacturing Co. of Mishawaka, Indiana. George Shea, president of the present company will be retained by the purchasers as manager.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA.—Early habits mould future characters. The boy or girl who early acquires the saving habit is laying the foundation of future success. To open and operate a savings account is a very simple proceeding. Total deposits, $28,000,000.

MISS FRANCIS PRITCHARD, of this place, who is at present teaching manual training and domestic science in the school at Florenceville, N. B., will sever her connection with the latter institution at the Christmas holidays and will visit her mother here, Mrs. J. Pritchard, after which she leaves to accept a similar position at Owen Sound, Ontario.—Hampton cor. Kings Co. Record.

JOHN S. EAGLES has taken the sole agency for Canada of the Gilt Edge Tea Company of London England. The tea is handled by John Graham, W. S. Skillen, Stevens & Hayden, H. G. Noble, Sullivan Bros., Holyoke & Brown, Chas. B. Snow of Woodstock and George McElroy of Grafton. A gilt edge cup and saucer is given with each pound package of the tea.

THE ATTENTION of the farmers of Carleton County is called to the advertisement of the Carleton County Agricultural Society's Annual Seed Show, which will be held on February 5th, 1907, in Woodstock. There will be a sale of pure bred and other stock, and prizes will be given in the different classes for both live and dressed poultry and winter fruit. There should be a large attendance at the show.

THE Houlton Pioneer says: Townspeople who keep a horse are beginning to think it is a most expensive luxury. They are now obliged to pay $15 a ton for hay, and are inclined to believe the limit for this season has not yet been reached. The highest mark reached before on hay was $12 per ton. Some dealers would not be surprised to see hay reach the $20 mark before spring. Lucky is the farmer who has a big stock of hay in his barns for the local market.

GREER AND McCLEMENTS are offering for sale one-eighth of the Cobler-Sexton mine. The amount asked is $1,000.00 in one hundred shares at $10 per share. This step has been taken in order to develop the mine and sink the shaft deeper. Anyone wishing to buy shares can do so by making application to T. C. L. Ketchum. The last assay made of ore taken from this mine shows $37.60 copper to the ton. Another assay from Nelson, B. C., gives $7.24 per ton silver and $18.00 per ton copper. An assay from Lewis & Walker, Butte, Montana, gives silver 84c, gold 40c. and copper $14.80 to the ton, gross value.

SOME OF THE schools in town had to be closed yesterday on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever.

MR. JOHN McCORMAC who fell down stairs in his house two weeks ago was able to be down town for a few minutes on Monday.

FANCY boxes of chocolates in one pound and half pound boxes made by Ganong, White or Webb. These are the best goods; at H. G. Noble's.

THE CONCERT which was advertised to take place in the Foresters' hall, Bristol, on the 21st December has been postponed until Christmas Eve, the 24th instant.

THE express train which was due to arrive at 11 00 p. m. on Monday evening, was delayed by the breaking down of a freight train and did not arrive until six o'clock Tuesday morning.

HERBERT N. CONNELL of Auburn, Wash., who has just returned from a trip to London, Paris and other European cities, is visiting his old home in Northampton. He will be here about two weeks.

PICKEL & DAVIDSON the new firm of plumbers are meeting with deserved success. They have recently installed bath rooms for H. N. Boyer and Keith & Plummer of Hartland and for Mr. Carr of Canterbury Station.

THE attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of W. H. Scovil, who has just opened a meat market in the A. E. Jones store, King street. He will carry a full stock of Fresh Meats, Fish and Canned Goods. Mr. Scovil understands the meat business thoroughly and will no doubt get a good share of public patronage.

MISS MAY WAITE and Miss Lena Baird have given at homes in honor of Miss Nellie Sadler, who is to be married to Dr. King, son of Senator King, on New Year's Day in the Baptist church in this place. Dr. King has a large practice in Cranbrook, B. C. The wedding will doubtless be an interesting event to the many friends of Miss Sadler.—Andover cor. St. John Sun.

THE puzzling questions of what to give friends for Christmas gifts may be quickly settled by calling at the store of The John McLaughlan Co. Their window display is something out of the ordinary. The upper window contains an elegant display of all the latest colors and designs in Neckties and Mufflers, while the lower window looks like fairyland, and contains a beautiful collection of White Linen and Can. Embroidered Handkerchiefs, and also Silk Handkerchiefs in the latest patterns. In fact their whole stock of Christmas goods has been well selected and their prices are reasonable.
