

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., JUNE 6, 1906.

Kirkland.

Elliot Murchie is not very well at present. There has not been any school for a week in Mounment Settlement owing to the illness and death of the teacher's sister.

The funeral services of the late Eva Graham were very largely attended. Revs. McKay and Polly were present. The house was filled every seat being occupied. About forty seven teams followed the remains from the house to the cemetery beside those that were at the church. The pall bearers were cousins of the deceased. Friends placed wreaths of handsome flowers on the white casket.

The barns of Walter Tupper and John Pickard, of Beechwood, were completely destroyed by fire on Friday. The origin of the fire is supposed to be from burning refuse on the premises of Walter Tupper. The fire quickly spread to the two barns of Mr. Tupper and very soon they were all in flames. A high wind was blowing at the time and immediately the sparks were carried to the two barns of John Pritchard, situated a few rods across the line fence, and to the windward. The losses are very heavy.

The water is rapidly falling in the river at this point. B. F. Smith has a considerable quantity of timber yet to raft in the Monquart stream, but it is expected that the work will be completed before the water falls too low.
