How to Play Bridge in Quiet.

(Chicago Chronicle.)
Herbert Tate Willis, the well known authority on bridge, plays badly if there are too many about.

"As some people dislike anyone to look over their shoulder while they are writing letters," he said recently, "so I dislike to have anyone look over my shoulder while I am playing bridge."

"Two gentlemen were playing one night at a club to which I belong. While they played two other gentlemen entered the room. These latter two took their positions each behind a player's chair, and blowing cigars smoke into the players' ears and breathing on the backs of their necks, they nodded sagely or frowned or whispered advice as they deemed best. The pleasant game, in short, was quite spoiled."

"Finally one of the players rose. 'Would you mind playing this hand a minute or two for me?' he said, turning to the man behind him."

"Why, no, not at all," the man replied, and he took the cards and the first player left the room."

"Some little time went by, and then the second player turned to the man behind him."

"Play these cards for me a moment, there's a good fellow," he said, rising hastily.

"Sure old man," was the reply, and the second player left the room."

"The substitutes played out their hands and had a new deal. They played out their hands again and had another deal. They could not imagine what had become of the two men for whom they were substituting."

"A waiter entered the room, and one of the substitutes said:

"Waiter, where are Mr. A. and Mr. B., do you know?"

"Yes, sir," the waiter answered. "They're playing in the next room."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

His Chief Recommendation.

(New York Tribune.)
The Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters, in an attract on the marriage customs of the twentieth century, related an anecdote:

"A beautiful young girl and her mother," he said, "were discussing the eternal marriage question."

"Well, there's Charles Adams," murmured the mother, thoughtfully, after a long pause.

"Charles Adams!" sneered the girl.

"He is old, he is ugly, he is mean, he is a coward. Charles Adams! Why, he has nothing, nothing in the world to recommend him except his wealth."

"You forget his heart disease," said the mother, softly."

Sunset Glories.

"Well, you know, I never did care much for these plain yellow sunsets," observed a prosaically minded woman to her friend one golden autumnal evening, as the sun sank slowly in the cloudless sky and dipped, a glowing ball, below the rim of the world.

There was no hint of apology in her tone. Her taste in sunsets was as definite as her taste in millinery. She preferred them streaked and mottled, with elaborately decorative cloud effects. Plain yellow was too ordinary for enthusiasm.

It was a woman of much the same temperament who owned that she did not care for sunsets at all, and gave her reasons.

"The prettier they are the more exasperating they are," she explained. "You never can match them. The number of times I've noted sunset combinations and carried them in my eye when I went shopping—but it's no use. There's one shade in particular, a deep gray-purple or purplish gray, that color the heavy clouds take on in contrast to gold, that I've hunted for for years. It would be ideal in velvet, simply ideal, and so becoming to by complexion!"

Church—"I see they are crying for more missionaries over in Africa." Gotham—"Why, those cannibals must be regular gluttons!"—Yonkers Statesman.

"If I am asked, 'What is the remedy for the deeper sorrows of the human heart?' I must point to something which in the well-known hymn is called 'the old, old story, told of an old, old Book, and taught with the old, old teaching which is the greatest and best guide ever given to mankind.'"—Gladstone.

A Word For The Farm.

There does not seem to be quite as great a craze among the young men of our farming community to leave the farm and go into the towns and cities as there was a few years ago, but there is still to much of it. The freedom and independence of a life on the farm is being appreciated more than it used to be, and it is too often a great mistake when a young man leaves the farm for the city, expecting that he can get rich quickly and without hard work. Our cities are full of people who live from 'hand to mouth,' and whose total wealth is represented by the clothing they have on. Years go by and these persons never have a home. They lose that independence that the proud owner of a farm has with the labor-saving machinery now in use, the rural telephone system, the fine, comfortable homes, etc. The boy who gives up a good farm for life in a city makes the mistake of his life in nine cases out of ten. Stick to the farm boys, if you have a good one.—Aylmer (Ont.) 'Express.'

The Summer Girl's Dress.

The 1906 Summer girls will be frocked in frills and furbelows delightfully feminine, writes Helen Berkely-Loyd in THE DELINEATOR for July. From parasol to boot tip, curves, dainty touches, the artistic color effects will distinguish everything they wear. Their elders, too, make a generous use of color. They are permitting it to appear in their tweed trotteurs, and motor coats, and their afternoon and dinner gowns of light, silken fabrics, are as often of the new mauve-blue and the warm American Beauty shades as of white or the always charming pastel tints.

The semi-tailored gowns, made though they are, emphasize feminine curves in a marked degree, and show the most graceful effects. The bolero is seen on a great many of these gowns, the shorter ones having a ceinture attached that is entirely new.

The sleeves, as a rule, are puff to the elbow, or half-way to the wrist. They are finished with a velvet-inlaid cuff that flares considerably.

Among the little accessories that the Summer girl is wearing, are bracelets of black velvet held with jewelled buckles, and wisps of tulle twisted about the upper arm and the wrist, tied in fluffy bows. Arm or glove garters of satin ribbon, shirred over elastic and edged with frills of lace and ribbon are quite new, and as practical as they are ornamental.

"Cognitional" Architecture.

One of the young architects who delivers a lecture on modern architecture in the series of free public school lectures in New York, says a writer in the Sun, had just shown his audience the beauties of the Cologne Cathedral the other night, when he thought of an experience he once had on a similar occasion.

"I was at the conclusion of my lecture," he told his audience, "that a woman came to me, explained that she, too, was a student of architecture, and thanked me for enlightening her on one point that she had never been able to understand before. 'I have always wondered,' she said to me, 'where the colonial style of architecture came from. Now, of course, I see that it comes from Cologne.'"

Young Man—In the bright lexicon of youth there is no such word as fail.

Old Man—I suppose not, but as your education advances you get a different sort of lexicon.

The Red Rose Flavor and Strength

No Ceylon tea nor Indian tea alone can have the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea, because neither variety in itself possesses all the qualities of strength, richness, delicacy, and fragrance. Each has its own peculiar qualities, but each has its weaknesses.

By combining the two in the Red Rose proportions, I produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" and strength of Red Rose Tea, a flavor and strength found in no brand of Ceylon alone.
