

OVERCOATS OF QUALITY.

Our Overcoats are the result of genius. First the genius of the men who designed the patterns of the cloth; next the genius of the men who cut the garments; next the genius of the tailors who build and mould them into the finest garments produced in Canada.

For moderate prices and satisfactory overcoats this is the store.

Getting Rid of the Old Equipment.
Major William C. Good was busy last week shipping to headquarters the old equipment of the Woodstock Field Battery, some of which has been in the stores here since 1874 when the corps was changed from a garrison to a field battery.

He sent away six 9 lb. muzzle loading guns and ammunition waggons, with harness and saddlery to equip sixty-six horses. The whole thing weighed over 22,000 lbs and required four cars.

The Woodstock Field Battery was organized in 1865 with Capt. James Murray Edgar as commanding officer. On his death in 1873 Capt. William Donald became commanding officer and in 1874 the corps was changed from garrison to a field battery.

Col. Dibblee came into the command in 1875 and on his retirement in 1899 Major W. C. Good was promoted to the position of commanding officer.

Though having an establishment of only 100 officers and men this corps sent to the late Boer war 43 officers and men. This is the best showing made by any corps of its kind in Canada. Some of the men went in the regular contingents some served in the constabulary and some of the men went out twice. Of the 43 men all are alive except Stanley Bull who died in Woodstock and not from any illness contracted in South Africa.

Since his retirement from the command Col. Dibblee has been given command of the Fourth Brigade of Field Artillery which includes 10th the of Woodstock, the 12th of Newcastle and the 19th of St. John.

This Battery is now equipped with 4 of the latest and most improved 12 lb. breech loading, pole draft guns with rapid release harness. The guns are equipped with telescope sights of the latest design costing $96 each.

The battery has a long and honourable history and is improving every year in its equipment and in the education of its officers and men.

To Choose Candidates For The General Election.

It is understood that a convention of liberals and supporters of the provincial government will be called some time in January to nominate candidates for the coming provincial elections. Two delegates will be elected and sent from each parish and from those parishes that have two polling places three delegates may be sent. These accredited delegates will be the nominating committee and it will be their duty at the convention to secure candidates.

Among the names mentioned as possible candidates are the Hon. W. P. Jones, Major W. C. Good, Frank R. Shaw, J. T. Allen Dibblee, J. J. Hale, George Upham, J. Albert Hayden, Harry Carvell, Deputy Sheriff Foster, William N. Raymond, Dr. Curtis, Andrew D. McCain, Charles F. Gallagher.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. London, Bellville, desire to express their thanks to those friends and neighbors who extended their sympathy and assistance in their bereavement. They wish also to thank the Bloomfield choir.

The Members of the Executive Inspect the International Railway.

The Hon. W. P. Jones left Woodstock last Wednesday morning to join the other members of the government in a tour of inspection of the International Railway. At Moncton a special pullman sleeper was engaged for them and they woke up on Thursday morning at Upsalquitch river, 20 miles from Campbellton, at the main camp of the contractors. Here they had breakfast in a log cabin in the heart of the primeval forest. They then proceeded another ten miles to the end of the part of the road that is completed. The total length of the road from Campbellton to St. Leonards will be 110 miles of which 30 miles on the Campbellton end is ready for use. That the road is a difficult one to build may be inferred from the fact that in one mile of the completed portion there are five permanent steel bridges with cement piers and abutments. The dominion government engineer estimates that the construction is costing the contractors $27,000 a mile.

The International Railway will open up large tracts of land in the centre of the province that have not been available for lumbering operations heretofore on account of the smallness of the streams. From the St. John river back for a distance of about 30 miles this land is the property of the New Brunswick Lumber Company but the other 80 miles or so belong to the government.

There is one block of land, alone, under lease to Richards, containing about 200,000, 000 feet of lumber that has never been cut over.

Mr. Malcom, the contractor, is building a first class road.

On their return to St. John on Friday the members of the executive attended a meeting of the Provincial Hospital Commission. Mr. Jones came home on Friday night.

Prices are Going Up Here.

Prices have increased in at least half a dozen items of farm produce since last week and in all they have stiffened. Hay, oats and potatoes will go higher. Loose hay in Houlton brings $14.00 and as the duty is $4.00 it is reasonable to suppose the Richmond farmers will not take less than $10.00 for their stock.

- Potatoes per bbl, $1.05.
- Hay per ton, $8.00.
- Oats, new, per bushel, 40c.
- Pork, dressed, per cwt., $7.50 to $8.00.
- Beef, dressed, per cwt., $4.00 to $5.00.
- Butter, lb prints, 22c. to 23c.
- Cheese, per lb., 14c.
- Egg, per doz. 23c. to 25c.
- Honey in comb per lb., 13c. to 14c.
- Chickens, 10c. per lb.
- Squash, per lb., .02c.
- Alexander Apples, per bbl., $1.00 to $1.25
- Fameuse Apples, per bbl., $2.00 to $2.25.
- Turrips, per bbl. 50c.
- Carrots, per bbl. $1.00.
- Geese, per lb., 10c.
- Turkeys, per lb., 16c.
- Cabbages each, .06c.
- Dry hardwood, 2 ft. or 18 in., f. o. b. Woodstock, $4 25.

The Salvation Army's Work of Immigration.

The Salvation Army has just closed a very successful year of immigration work, having brought out over 13,000 settlers to Canada, but seeing that this amount was very far short of meeting the great demand for farm help and labourers of various kinds, have decided to bring out this year at least twenty-five thousand, principally for agricultural purposes.

Ten steamers have been chartered, the first will arrive in Halifax about the last of February and will be followed by one each week at St. John or Halifax up to the last of April.

Adjutant Jennings, who represents the work for the Maritime Provinces, is anxious that all who need help should be supplied, while the immigrants are landing at St. John and Halifax, as it is very difficult to get them to come down this way after the boats begin to land at Quebec.

Last year a number of applications were not filed owing to the fact that some farmers delayed the matter until late in the season; those who will need laborers this winter or in the coming spring should apply now stating the date men will be required. This would prevent them having to wait a long time or being disappointed altogether. Application forms can be secured at any time by applying to Adjutant Jennings, Box 477, Halifax, N. S.

At the organ recital given by D. Arnold Fox, of St. John, in St. Luke's church, on Wednesday evening last, a large audience was present. The programme was made up of the best selections of the old masters, and was a rare treat for the people of Woodstock. Mrs. Hare and Mrs. Adney sang solos during the evening.

Lewis Scott

In the death of Mr. Lewis Scott, which took place on Friday, Presque Isle lost a noted citizen. His father's name was Andrew, and his mother's was Mehitable Dickerson, of Woodstock. Lewis Scott was a man of powerful physique and for many years was a conspicuous factor among lumbermen. He was a man of good judgment in all matters pertaining to lumbering; an intelligent citizen; cool headed, in places of danger; careful of his savings and investments, leaving a snug competence for his widow and near relatives. He was the last of the earlier pioneers of the Aroostook valley with perhaps one or two exceptions. Lewis Scott was full of valuable information to the historian. He had a retentive memory, accompanied by an attractive manner of imparting what he knew.—Exchange.

Jabesh C. Squires.

The death occurred at his home at the corner of Queen and Westmorland streets, Fredericton, Sunday morning of Jabesh C. Squires, aged 68 years. About fifteen years ago Mr. Squires was in a railway accident in Montana and had since suffered from spinal injuries then received. He moved to Fredericton from Sydney, C. B., some time ago. Deceased is survived by a widow and an adopted daughter. Three brothers, Nathan, of Fredericton, Robert, of Bath, and William, of Upper Kent, Carleton County, survive. The funeral services were conducted at the house Sunday night by Rev. Mr. Trafton, and Monday morning the remains were taken to Bath for interment.

Matthew Mulherrin.

Matthew Mulherrin, a most respected resident of Carleton County, died at his home in Plymouth Sunday morning at the age of 82 years. He came to this country from Ireland when he was about 21 years of age, and has been an industrious, successful and respected member of the community. He leaves a widow, one son and three daughters one of whom is a teacher on the staff of the Broadway school.

William Craig.

William Craig died at his home in Northampton on Tuesday of last week at the age of 88 years. He was a native of Scotland and came to this country a good many years ago. He leaves a widow and four sons, John of Northampton, Robert and David of Minnesota, and William of Cabano. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Turner.

News From Ottawa.

The Hon. Charles Hyman minister of Public Works has resigned his seat in the house of commons and asked to be relieved of his portfolio, on account of the revelations in connection with his election. Sir Wilfrid Laurier quite agrees that Mr. Hyman should resign his seat, but demurs at his throwing up his portfolio.

The convention between the postal authorities of Canada and the United States for the exchange of second class mail matter, has been abrogated. It was agreed years ago that each country should carry free of charge newspapers and other second class mail matter originating in the other country. This was naturally of great disadvantage to Canada. The number of newspapers from the United States compared with Canada was not only very much larger but the United States flooded Canada with second class mail matter carried at one cent or half a cent a pound. The Americans also threw its second class open to matter, which in Canada was classed as advertising matter and charged eight cents a pound. This gave the people of the United States a privilege in Canada from which Canadians were excluded. Not only was this the case, but it diverted a considerable quantity of trade from Canada to the United States. The United States postal authorities would not change its second class in this regard and therefore Canada cancelled the convention after May 1st next. This will permit of a more equitable arrangement being made between now and then.

If this cannot be done then American publications will pay postage of eight cents a pound in Canada and Canadian publications will pay the same thing upon entering the United States.
