DON'T forget the Tamasha that the Christian Endeavor Society of the Main St. Baptist church intend holding tomorrow evening July 5th 7.00 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Sunder, Green St. The many curios brought from India by Dr. and Mrs. Sunder will be on exhibit. The ones who have had the privilege of seeing this collection are glad for another opportunity and those who have not had the privilege may now have it. A view of the Taj of Malabar, in miniature, the pride of all India, would be inducement enough, to give every one a desire to attend, but when a list like the following is added, the desire becomes intensified. Idols of various kinds and most hideous to behold among them are about twenty-five that have been worshipped and one came from the famous temple Jagannath at Puri. Brass dishes and ornaments, a native hut, sweepers carts, oxen, and many other things showing the life and habits of the people of India. Also many pieces of exquisite needle-work, draperies from cashmere and—but there the half cannot be told just come and see for yourselves. Admission twenty cents. Ice cream and cake for sale served by young ladies dressed in India costumes. On Friday afternoon July 6th school children Mission Band children and all kind of children will be admitted to see the exhibit for ten cents from 3.00 to 4.00 o'clock p. m. Proceeds for mission work.
