MR. "JAKE" CAHILL and wife of Boston are in town. Mr. Cahill was formerly in the employ of Jewett & Co. of this town and with that firm served his apprenticeship in the jewelry business. After learning his trade he went to Boston where he has since resided. Mr. Cahill thinks of opening a jewelry store in Ashland.—Houlton Pioneer. [Jake is a son of the Rev. J. A. Cahill and is well known in Woodstock.]

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED THE NECESSITY AND ADVISABILITY OF SAVING?—The nucleus of many a fortune has been a savings bank account. Moreover, in event of sickness or misfortune, what is more desirable than a comfortable balance in the bank? An account to which interest will be added semi-annually may be opened at the Royal Bank of Canada with a deposit of one dollar or more. The fascination of watching such an account grow is marvellous.

A DISPATCH from Newport, R. I., announces the engagement of Miss Margaret Stewart of Woodstock to Edward H. Bulkeley of New York, a well known society man. The wedding is to take place soon in Newport at the summer residence of Mrs. Prescott Lawrence, Mr. Bulkeley's sister. The telegram says Miss Stewart is a trained nurse, a graduate of Newport Hospital and nursed Mr. Bulkeley through a severe illness from which he has only a few days since recovered sufficiently to drive out. [Miss Stewart is a daughter of the late John Stewart, Superintendent of the C. P. R. She is one of Woodstock's brightest and most popular young ladies.]

ONE of the members of the Synod which met at Fredericton last week writing from his home in St. John to a friend in Woodstock says, in speaking of the election of a Coadjutor Bishop:—"The dead-lock still continued and we were just on the point of adjourning when the Archdeacon pleaded with his supporters that enough would change to allow of an election. He was so earnest in the matter and so unquestionably sincere that after two more ballots Canon Richardson was given the requisite majority." The Archdeacon's conduct has been considered noble and he stands higher than ever in the affections of the Synod."
