Market Inspection.

Writing on the question of the uncleanness of markets, and foods that have been kept too long, Mary Hinman Abel, in THE DELINEATOR for August, says:

"A board of health that is at all efficient gives its first attention to preventing the sale of decayed and otherwise unwholesome food. The general public has little idea of the amount of such food that is seized and destroyed every week in our large cities. The last annual report of the New York City Board of Health states that 4,000,000 pounds of fruit, 1,000,000 pounds of meat and 7,500,000 pounds of other food had been destroyed by inspectors during the year.

"Last thanksgiving, accompanied as it was by unseasonably mild weather that extended over the whole country, gave the market inspector ample employment. The number of turkeys and other fowls to be provided for that one day is enormous, and it goes without saying that some of them will be killed many days before and transported long distances. If the thermometer hangs around the freezing point, all goes well, but if the feast is ushered in by warm, damp weather, many a fowl that has seen better days will be exposed for sale. At such a season even while the sales are going on, the buyer may see many a barrel of turkeys condemned and carried away.

"In very few town and cities is the force of market inspectors large enough or intelligent enough to insure that unwholesome provisions are not sold and that the markets and provision stores are kept as clean as they should be."

THE ESKIMO.

He Has No Master and is Absolutely Independent.

There are no chieftains in the Eskimo community. They all regard themselves as freemen, with an equal right to hunt, fish, sleep and eat. Everybody shifts for himself. He is absolutely and unconditionally independent. His only ambition is to be a good hunter and to rear sons who will inherit his skill with lance and harpoon. He has helped himself against the elements for centuries, and the white man descending on his shores ostensibly to confer the blessings of civilization has never been able to improve his condition, but only to detract from the old time happiness and advantages of the aboriginal Eskimo community. The natural helpfulness of the Eskimo is the basis of the socialistic state in which he lives. He will risk his life to save that of another, even his enemy. He will share the spoils of the hunt with his neighbors. If his neighbor dies and his wife is left alone with children he will provide for her until she marries again. He does not slander or tell tales; he does not abuse any one, and he does not fight. He is a man of peace. He loves peace for its own sake, and his life is one long, laborious attempt at happiness for himself and his people. Chicago Chronicle.

Why There Are So Many Smiths.

At the time of the adoption of surnames every artisan whose work required the striking blows on metal was known as a smiter or smith, and the community therewith had its blacksmith, whitesmith, goldsmith, silversmith, arrowsmith and several others of the same character. The number of Smiths of the present day may therefore be readily accounted for when we remember that each of the different kinds of smiths was as much entitled to the use of his trade name for a cognomen as any other artisan. John the blacksmith and John the coppersmith were both known as John the smith, an appellation which naturally resolved itself into the family name of John Smith.

Farm Laborers Excursion.

To assist in harvesting the unprecedented wheat crop of Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest, latest advices show that at least Thirty Thousand Farm Laborers will be required, and to assist in supplying the demand The Canadian Pacific Railway has arranged to run the usual Farm Laborers Excursions from Eastern Canada, the first of which will be the excursions from the Maritime Provinces, Tuesday, August 7th. One way second class tickets to Winnipeg will be issued from all coupon ticket stations, the rate from stations in New Brunswick on the Canadian Pacific Railway will be $12.00 going, $18.00 returning, from stations on the I. C. R. in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, also from stations on the D. A. Ry. $13.00 going, $19.00 returning. From stations on the P. E. I. Ry. $13.50 going, $19.50 returning. Tickets will be issued to female as well as male laborers, but will not be issued at half rate to children. With each ticket purchaser will be given a Farm Laborers verification certificate, and an extension coupon. At Winnipeg the trains carrying farm laborers will be met by farmers, and by representatives of the government. Laborers will engage at Winnipeg, and on presentation of extension coupon signed by a farmer stating that the holder has been engaged to work for him as a farm laborer ticket agent will issue free ticket from Winnipeg to C. P. R. station nearest the point where laborer has engaged to work, and on arrival at such station laborer must deposit the Farm Laborers verification certificate with the C. P. R. agent. If anyone has made prior arrangement to work with friends, or with some farmer with whom they have worked previously, they will be issued free ticket as above, and may check their baggage through from starting point to C. P. R. station nearest the point of work, provided such point is not beyond Moosejaw, Yorkton, or Estovan, as free tickets will not be issued nor baggage checked to points beyond these stations. After laborer has worked for at least thirty days, and has certificate signed by the farmer with whom he has worked, such certificate surrendered to the ticket agent will be honored for a ticket to starting point on payment of the return rates shown above. One hundred and fifty pounds of baggage (wearing apparel only) will be allowed on each ticket, and each piece of baggage checked should bear the name of the owner, and show their permanent address. It will be readily understood that some difficulty will be experienced in handling some thousands of laborers to one station, and some delay may occur on the delivery of baggage. Therefore when possible, baggage should be carried in hand grips, and these the passengers should take in the cars. They should not be checked. It is expected that special passenger trains for the accommodation of laborers will be run on the main lines (particulars to be announced later). All further information will be supplied on application to Mr. W. B. Howard, Act. D. P. A., C. P. R., St. John N. B. and intending excursionists should communicate with him or notify nearest ticket agent at once.
