JOHN MILLER has sold his farm at Canterbury Station to Mr. Shannon and has moved to Woodstock.

W. P. KIMBALL shipped last week from Woodstock to H. H. McCarty, St. Stephen, a car load of fine heavy cattle.

In giving an account of the insurance loss last week, Mr. Wilson's loss should have read loss $900. 00 and insurance $500. 00 instead of loss $400. 00 and insurance $500. 00.

By means of Life insurance in the Manufacturers Life, a man may buy in instalments a fortune deliverable to his family at death, or to himself at the end of ten, fifteen or twenty years.

A. W. HALL and Charles A. Lyons have bought the Arrostook Pioneer of Houlton. Since the death of George H. Gilman, the former editor, the publication of the paper has been suspended, but it reappeared last week under the management of its new owners.

LAST Tuesday a vicious dog of the collie breed belonging to George Wise attacked a child about seven years old named Hudlin, and bit him several times on the legs and arms. Owen Kelly, town marshal, shot the dog. On Wednesday two dogs were having a fight on Main street when one of them ran into a well known citizen and gave him a serious fall.

JACK M. FLEWELLING of Edmundston met with a serious loss on Wednesday morning, having been relieved of his pocketbook, it is thought, by some rivers drivers. The pocketbook contained money and notes to the value of $195 besides other private papers that he usually find their way into a letter book. It is generally supposed that the pocketbook was emptied and thrown into the river.

THE DEVOTIONS of the Forty Hours in Johnville began in St. John the Evangelist Church on Tuesday morning, June 5th., with a High Mass celebration by the pastor, Rev. R. J. Coughlan. The altar, which was adorned with flowers and lights, looked beautiful. The visiting clergymen who assisted at the exercises were Rev. J. J. Ryan, Rev. F. Bradley, Florenceville, and Rev. D. J. LeBlanc, Central Kingsclear. Father Ryan preached a most interesting and instructive sermon on the Blessed Sacrament at the closing exercises.

WHILE it is not definitely settled, there is little doubt that Miss Kate Townley Phillips of Hartland, N. B., will succeed Miss Sharp as District Nurse. Miss Phillips is not unknown in Houlton, having been here on professional duty on different occasions, and since her graduation from St. John General Hospital in 1904, has won an enviable reputation among the physicians of Arrostook Co., under whom she has done most of her professional work. Miss Phillips, is a daughter of Rev. C. T. Phillips, who for many years was pastor of the Free Baptist church at Woodstock.—Houlton Pioneer.

THE fancy bred bull dog owned by Don A. H. Powers, was put to death Wednesday morning, because of his fighting proclivities and desire to chew up humanity. Early Wednesday morning he tackled a dog owned by Chas. Carroll. Mr. Carroll attempted to stop the dog fight when the bull turned upon him and buried his teeth twice in Mr. Carroll's left arm. The services of a physician were required to care for the wounds. Had there not been someone near to assist Mr. Carroll more serious results might have happened. When Mr. Powers learned of the accident he ordered the bull dog to be shot.—Houlton Pioneer.
