Hope For Us Yet.

If the decision of Judge Barker in the Equity Court goes in favor of the Cumberland Telephone Company, it is not at all likely that the merger of the New Brunswick and Central Telephone Companies will go through. If the court should decide that the contract would have to be good all over the proposed large company's lines, Senator Thompson says he will oppose the merger and do his best to stop it. The Chatham Commercial says:

"While the Central Telephone Co. was in existence the people in many parts of the province gave it a loyal support, as it furnished a good telephone service and in giving a low rate to patrons also kept the N. B. Telephone rates moderate; at least, in those places where an unjust rate might mean an entry by its Sussex rival.

When the Central Telephone Co. had made its position a strong one, by reason of the popular support given it, and had made its competition feared, it abandoned its high sounding principles and sold out to the older company, forcing the N. B. concern to take it at its own valuation, and that a high one. Its promoters achieved the end for which it was apparently organized and developed, and when that was within reach the people could go hang.

Today the deluded people who hailed the Central Company as a savior, and enthusiastically pushed it to a position where it could command a high market price, see themselves once more the shorn lambs."

There is hope for us yet. The amalgamation of the Central with the New Brunswick Co. has not yet actually taken place and there is at least a possibility that it may not occur. In spite of the machinations of the New Brunswick Co. and the faithlessness of the Central, we may yet have competition in this part of the province, and it is only by competition we can get a decent service.

A Fine of Two Hundred Dollars.

In a Moncton Scott Act case before the Supreme Court last week the judgment of the court was that under the Canada Temperance Act the magistrate had power to impose a penalty of fifty dollars or more for a violation of the act, therefore Magistrate Kay was within his right in imposing a fine of $200 upon Cormier. The chief justice remarked that the object of the act was to stop the sale of intoxicating liquor, and in this case the court did not consider the fine to be excessive. He added that a fine of $1,000 in a Scott Act case might shock the judicial mind, and if such a case came up the court might put its hand upon it. In the present case, however, there was no reason to interfere.

It is not unlikely that the steamer Aberdeen will change hands shortly. The Aberdeen is the property of Robert Scott and other Fredericton gentlemen. Report has it that Capt. George Perry and W. S. Cody may soon become her owners. The steamer, which ran during the summer between Fredericton and Woodstock, went down to St. John last week, and Monday went into winter quarters in Marble Cove. If secured by Capt. Perry and his associates, the Aberdeen will probably be kept on the Fredericton Woodstock route next summer. Possibly, however, she will be placed on one of the routes on the lower part of the river.

MISS HENDERSON gave a linen shower party on Monday evening for Miss Agnes Mowatt who is to participate in a pleasant event in St. Andrews about Christmas time. Among those present were Mrs. W. W. Hay, Mrs. W. B. Belyea, Mrs. Wm. Hayward, Mrs. John McLauchlan, Mrs. Gillin, Mrs. Duncan, Miss Hume, Miss Stokes, Miss McLauchlan, Miss Gillin, Miss Kirk, Miss Helen Appleby, Miss McAfee, Miss Britain. Miss Mowatt was the recipient of many useful and beautiful pieces of linen.

HON. GEORGE H. MURPHY, Consul General at large of Washington, D. C. spent Monday and Tuesday in town inspecting Consul Denison's office. General Murphy's district comprises the whole of North America. While here he looked up a relative in the person of Mrs. J. T. A. Dibblee whom he had never met before.

THE REV. MR. KIERSTED, who has accepted a call to the Baptist churches of Woodstock, is ill at his present home in Illinois, but is expected here as soon as his health will permit him to travel. His furniture has arrived and is stored in the G. W. Vanwart house which it is expected he will occupy during the winter.

HARRY K. THAW will be tried in New York on December 3rd for the murder of Stanford White.

SULLIVAN'S cheap opening sale still continues.

The Attorney General's Address at Rothesay.

Last Wednesday evening at Rothesay, Kings County, there was a grand rally of the supporters of the provincial government in that county and the Hon. William Pugsley, Attorney General, delivered an address that was listened to with a great deal of attention. Among other things he said:

There was no likelihood of an election this fall, but it would likely take place next summer or early fall. If necessary there could be two sessions yet of the present legislature but that was not probable.

He defended the Highway act, the abolition of statute labour, the bringing of the byways and great roads under one control, and honest expenditure, but he thought sometimes the road districts were too large. He thought the government was to be congratulated on the increase of $130,000 a year in annual subsidy, which would enable them to deal more generously with education, roads, bridges and hospitals. At the right time they would press for their share of the fishery award, which, with interest, amounts to $1,500,000. This claim they intended to have referred to the supreme court or else effect a settlement by getting $50,000 or $60,000 yearly.

After the completion of the Intercolonial Railway which was expected next summer no more railway subsidies would likely be paid by the provincial government.

Senator Platt and Wife will Separate.

Senator Thomas C. Platt and his wife, formerly Mrs. Holland Snow, of Woodstock, have agreed to separate. The deed was signed by both, but not in the presence of each other and is as follows:—

"Owing to unhappy differences between them the undersigned have this day executed a deed of separation. While making such announcement, we wish to assert with all possible emphasis the falsity of the scandalous articles which have lately appeared in the public prints. While there have been a series of differences and disputes which seem to make a separation advisable, there has been no conduct upon the part of either which could possibly be the foundation of a divorce action. No question of the infidelity of either to the other has ever been raised. Statements which have charged violent and disgraceful scenes between us are absolutely false. (Signed)

"T. C. PLATT,
"LILLIAN T. PLATT.
"Dated New York, Nov. 12, 1906."
Testimony is all to the effect that Senator Platt is an immoral old gentleman.

Ross--Archibald.

A telegram from Saskatoon, Sask., dated Nov. 12th says:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Archibald, Spadina Crescent, was the scene of a pretty wedding this afternoon at 3.30, when Edwin B. Ross and Miss Edith Archibald, both formerly of Halifax, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. M. Bennett, of Third Avenue Methodist church. Miss Archibald is the only daughter of J. L. Archibald, formerly of Halifax, and sister of B. A. Archibald, general broker, this city. She is a graduate of Mount Allison and Halifax conservatories of music, and also took a post graduate course at the Weil School of Music.

Mr. Ross was a popular and brilliant student at Dalhousie College, Halifax, from which institution he took his B. A. in '94, his M. A. in '95, and completed his very successful law course in the spring of '96. During Mr. Ross' business career in this city he has proved himself a gentleman whose character is beyond reproach. He intends practicing law in this city, in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross leave today for the Pacific coast and elsewhere, and following them are the hearty good wishes of many friends."

Mr. Ross is a native of the Parish of Peel in the County of Carleton, and is a brother of Dr. Ross of Florenceville.

THE following is the program for the concert in the Parish Hall on Thursday night:—

Carleton County Probate Court.

In the Probate Court Woodstock Tuesday the 13th the will of Elijah Cosman late of the Parish of Wicklow was admitted to probate on the petition of Henry T. Scholey and Lewis Wilmet Kennedy executors. Maurice A. Burt and Austin M. Adams were witnesses to the will. The estate was sworn at $4000. J. N. W. Winslow was proctor.

On Monday the 19th the will of Frederick G. Burt late of Centreville was proved on the petition of Howard E. Burt and Haddon S. Burt executors. Henry T. Scholey and Alfred J. Lee were witnesses to the will. The estate was valued at $4,900. D. McLeod Vince proctor.

Agricultural Society.

The Carleton County Agricultural Society met in the Record office on Tuesday of last week, President C. L. S. Raymond in the chair. Among those present were C. L. Smith, secretary; Messrs J. N. Harper, W. C. Bull, Thomas Troy, C. F. Rogers, R. E. Holyoke, N. Phillips, J. P. Malaney, H. B. Smith, G. W. Shaw, C. P. Bull, James Good, Alex Brown, J. T. A. Dibblee, Alex Henderson, George Sharp, H. E. Gallagher, N. F. Thorne, C. H. L. Perkins and N. S. Dow.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:—F. Byron Bull, president; R. E. Holyoke, first vice pres.; H. E. Gallagher, second vice pres.; C. L. Smith, sec. treas.

The finances of the society are in a satisfactory condition. It was unanimously decided to hold an exhibition in town next year. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for a social evening for the society, F. Byron Bull, R. E. Holyoke, H. E. Gallagher and C. L. Smith.

The suggestion that the society run a blacksmith shop in town was dropped. It seems that the prices charged by the blacksmiths are not larger than ten years ago while the prices charged by the farmers are a good deal higher.

Organ Recital.

A Hungry Editor.

The vigorous young editor of the Carleton Sentinel complains of the lack of public banquets this year in Woodstock. Other years it was different he says. The Agricultural Society, the officers of the several regiments, or this, that or the other thing, put on some most delightful spreads. "Wouldn't it be nice to have a grand supper to celebrate something," suggests the evidently hungry editor. And yet the Sentinel man should not be so craving. In this week's issue of the Sentinel he figuratively at least, chops up his physically substantial brother of the Press, and devours him bones and all, and he has made mince meat of the town council and opposition politicians generally for future use. Yet he cries out for more banquets.

In former years when a Woodstock man dissipated the provender provided at home, he generally tackled Bob Seaborn's restaurant, till his hunger was appeased. Are there no lunch counters, or soup kitchens now in the pretty and picturesque town by the seething Meduxoskeag stream, no church feeds, no penny buns, that the editor of the Sentinel must demand banquets where the editorial hunger may be appeased?—Fredericton Herald.
