Appeal Dismissed.

A cable received at the attorney general's office this morning states that the appeal to the judicial committee in the case of Emmerston vs. Maddison had been dismissed. The question involved was as to the validity of a crown grant of land which had been held adversely to the crown for upwards of twenty years. The Supreme Court of New Brunswick, following several previous decisions of Supreme Court of New Brunswick and Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, extending over a period of fifty years, held the grant void. The case went on appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada, a majority of whom, Davis J., dissenting, held that the decisions in the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia courts were wrong, and followed the judgements of the Ontario courts, which were to the opposite effect. In order to have the question finally and definitely settled, as many titles to land in the province were likely to be affected, the government decided to submit the question to the judicial committee and agreed to pay the expense of the argument on both sides, as authorized by the legislature at the last session. Solicitor General Jones and Mr. Rowlett of the English bar argued the case for the government and Mr. Powell, K. C., contra.

Sent up for Trial.

Robert Shannon, of the Parish of Wicklow, was before Magistrate Dibblee Thursday afternoon charged with an assault upon a neighbor, Mrs. Clara Tapley, on the eighteenth day of the present month. From the evidence of the complainant it appears that on the day mentioned she was on the road near Shannon's place and met the defendant who was driving. There had been trouble between the families over some cattle. When the parties met loud talk began, and according to Mrs. Tapley Shannon tried to run her down with his horse and waggon. She claims she was struck by the shafts and badly injured. The magistrate sent Shannon up for trial at the Circuit Court in October.

Hospital Trustees.

An adjourned meeting of the directors of the Carleton County Hospital was held last week. Mr. J. T. Allan Dibblee presided. Among the other directors present were F. B. Carvell, M. P., Col. F. H. J. Dibblee, W. B. Belyea, Warden Bailey, J. M. Queen, Dr. P. T. Kierstead, Hon. H. A. Connell, Colonel D. McLeod Vince, Edgar W. Mair, Hubert Seely, Dr. W. D. Rankin, and J. Chipman Hartley.

The three new trustees elected for the ensuing year were Col. Dibblee, Hubert A. Seely and W. B. Belyea.

Since the establishment of the hospital there has been an interesting controversy as to whether or not there should be a physician on the board of trustees, and there always has been one or two till the present time. The directors have now apparently decided against the practice.

Drowned in the River.

While in bathing on Sunday afternoon with some companions about two miles above Meductic on this side of the river, Leo Riordan, aged 23 years, son of Bartholomew Riordan, was drowned. The body was discovered shortly after and taken to his father's home in Northampton. Coroner Hay was summoned but considered an inquest unnecessary.

Thompson & Dundy, of the New York Hippodrome, have written the management of the St. John Exhibition that the amusement attractions secured for the big Fair which opens at St. John, September 1st, are the best acts of the kind in existence. The headline act is the Barlow Performing Elephants, the famous "Shoot the Chute," Elephants which created such a furore in New York.

Burpee-Rubins.

A very pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday, July 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Burpee, Avondale, N. B., when then son, Arthur Lee Burpee, led to the altar Alice Louise Rubins of St. John, N. B.

The parlours of their home were decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. A double arch was formed between the two windows of maiden hair ferns and lilies of the valley; from each side hung white ribbon and maiden hair ferns. These were tastefully draped on each side of the altar that had been fixed for the occasion.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jos. Cahill the single ring service being used. At precisely 4.30 the groom entered the room and in a few minutes the bride came in on arm of her eldest sister, Miss Martha Rubins of St. John, who gave her away.

They were unattended. During the ceremony the flower song was softly played and after they were pronounced one the wedding march was played. The music was furnished by Mrs. J. Tilley-Brewer.

The wedding was very quiet owing to a recent death in the bride's family only the immediate relatives being present. The bride received many beautiful presents. Among them being a substantial cheque from the groom's parents and sister. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful brooch in the form of a wish-bone, set with pearls. After congratulations were over the party sat down to a sumptuous supper, later on they left for their future home in Woodstock. For the present they have taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Tilley, Broadway. Mrs. Burpee will receive on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Wallace-Price.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the wedding that took place Tuesday at St. Patrick's church, when John W. Wallace one of Butte's popular young men led to the altar Miss Queenie Price, one of Butte's most charming school teachers and daughter of the late John Price of Woodstock, N. B. Rev. Father Follet performed the ceremony. Miss Elizabeth Price was bridesmaid and Miss Frances Kelly maid of honor. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue imported chiffon over taffeta and a beautiful lace hat with plumes to match the dress. Her going away dress was gray and green checked voile tailored. The happy couple left for Los Angeles and other points of interest on the Western coast. They will be gone a month, after which they will be at home to their friends in the Clark Block.—Anaconda, Montana, Standard.

Miss Queenie Price is well known in Woodstock where she has many friends.

Milne-Porter.

A pretty house wedding took place at Bairdsville, N. B., Wednesday last, when William P. Milne, of Rumford Falls, Me., was united in marriage to Miss Edith Porter, daughter of Robert Porter. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents at 5.30 o'clock by Rev. Charles W. Squires, of Andover.

The bride was prettily gowned in white silk princess style and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Porter, sister of the bride, and Lewis Milne supported the groom. Between 50 and 60 people were present most of whom were relatives of the bride. Dinner was served to the guests at about 6.30 p. m., after which a musical programme was rendered. The wedding gifts were many and useful.

Long Trip Awheel.

Three months on an Indian motor cycle, during which time the entire route from Iowa City, Iowa, to Fredericton has been travelled, is the record held by F. H. Jones, who left Iowa City on April 28th, and arrived here on Saturday evening after making the run from Woodstock to this city, about seventy miles, in a few minutes better than three hours, during which time he stopped for tea. Soon after arriving, Jones left again for Moncton, but four miles below the city his tire got punctured and, owing to some other difficulties, he had to return.—Fredericton cor. St. John Globe.

The Circus.

Large crowds came to Woodstock on Saturday to attend Baraum & Bailey's circus. The audience in the afternoon numbered about 8,000. Everyone was perfectly satisfied with the show which is generally believed to be the best on the road. The management is in the hands of eminently decent men who will not tolerate any rowdiness or dishonesty on the part of their employees. The crowd in town was very orderly. It was not necessary to make a single arrest during the day.

Sad Drowning Accident.

A sad accident occurred on Monday afternoon when William Craigs, aged 18 years, an employee in the livery stable of W. F. Glidden, was drowned in the river. In company with Mr. Glidden he took three horses to the river to wash them, and had returned to the stable when the boy went down alone with another horse to wash it. No one knows what happened, but in a few minutes the riderless horse was seen coming up the bank. The alarm was given, and in a few moments a large crowd had gathered on the shore.

Lester Hull saw where the body was, in a deep hole, and he dived out of a canoe and brought it to the surface. After a heroic struggle that seemed interminable he got it to the shore where Dr. Sprague, soon assisted by Drs. Kierstead and Rankin, worked long and faithfully in an attempt to restore respiration. It was a hopeless case. Nothing that could be done had any effect to restore the boy. The remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of J. Van Wart.

The deceased was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craigs, who moved to Sussex last year. He went with them at the time, but returned about three months ago.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Craigs arrived here from Sussex to be present at the funeral which will be held today from the Stephenson House, where the deceased has resided since coming to Woodstock. The interment will be made in the Methodist burying ground.

Garfield Perry B. A.

A very sad death of a New Brunswick boy took place Monday in Richmond, Me., when Garfield Perry, youngest son of Rev. Samuel Perry, of White Head, Grand Manan, passed to his long rest. Mr. Perry had been attending Bates College in Lewiston, Me., for the past two years, and graduated there a few weeks ago. Previous to that he attended the U. N. B. at Fredericton for two years in the class of 1906. While in the U. N. B. Mr. Perry was one of the most popular young men of that institution. He was a thorough college man, taking an active part in all the various functions connected with college life. He was early known as a very close student, and before he was long in college had proved himself an able debater. Notwithstanding his close application to his books Mr. Perry always found time to devote to the weekly Bible study of the students, and was seldom absent from the Sunday Y. M. C. A. meeting. On the football field and in the college gymnasium he was likewise a prominent figure.

During his last year at Bates' College, where he graduated with honors, Mr. Perry was supplying in a Baptist pulpit at Richmond, a short distance from Lewiston, and by this means was paying his way through college. He was to be ordained within the next few weeks and was to assume full charge of the church. About three weeks ago Mr. Perry was stricken down with hemorrhage. His father and mother were at once sent for and remained with him until his death, which occurred on Monday.

The body of the deceased will be brought to St. John and buried at Cedar Hill. Besides his father and mother Mr. Perry leaves a sister, Mrs. J. A. Vanwart, of North End, and three brothers. Rev. Samuel Perry, father of the deceased was formerly of Carleton Co. and is quite well known throughout the province as a prominent clergyman of the former Free Baptist denomination.—St. John Sun.

Kneading With the Knees.

'Italian bakers are all knock-kneed,' said a globe trotter.

'Why? Because they knead their bread with their knees. This enlarges the knees and deforms them, causing them to interfere in walking.'

'I have often watched Italian bakers at work. They kneel on the dough, and holding on to a high support with their hands, they prod and twist and thump the white mixture with great vigor.'

'As they invariably bathe before beginning to knead, I don't see anything untidier in knee-kneaded than hand-kneaded bread, do you? And lots of wine is still trodden out with the bare feet in the remotest districts of Italy and France, so that, if you can drink this wine without a shudder, I don't see why you should suffer any qualms in the eating of the knee-kneaded bread.'
