

YOU CAN SAVE $13.15

$11.85

TO-DAY

A SUIT

We will present every Reader of this paper who places an order for our celebrated $11.85 Suit with the two most serviceable Premiums ever offered to the public of Canada.

Our Great Free Premium Offers

One Pair of $6.00 Trousers (made to measure) and a really elegant patent Suit-Case given entirely FREE with every order.

YOU ARE UNDER NO OBLIGATION TO BUY, and we will REFUND your money if you find either the Special Suits or the FREE GIFTS are NOT EXACTLY as advertised in this paper.

Agents Wanted.

We will send you, FREE OF ANY CHARGE whatever, a handsome range of patterns, including our wonderful value Blue and Black Serges and Cheviot Tweeds, together with our latest New York Fashion Plates. THEN JUDGE FOR YOURSELF. Our home measurement system is so SIMPLE that we require only 5 measurements (which anyone can take) to enable us to give a PERFECT FITTING tailor-made garment. All goods are shipped 5 days from receipt of order.

THE MAIL-FIT CLOTHING CO. Pattern Dept. 274 Mount Royal Ave., Montreal, Can.

Don't fail to mention name of this newspaper.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., OCTOBER 17, 1906.

Meductic.

Mrs. Albert Bull of Bull's Creek, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Turner.

George L. Porter, who is working with the N. B. Telephone Co., was in the village last week.

Miss Beatrice Tompkins has returned from Boston where she was visiting with Mrs. Hatfield of Temple.

P. Z. Caverhill, the popular teacher of our school, attended the Institute at Fredericton last week.

P. B. Maxon of Fredericton, was in the village on Wednesday.

Miss Cora Brothers spent Sunday in Houlton.

Rev. S. A. Baker and wife visited friends here last week.

Rev. D. Raud Pierce and wife held service here on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gerow spent Sunday at The Barony.

Centreville.

John Toms' wife died suddenly last Wednesday leaving an infant child, a daughter about 8 or 9 years old, and a sorrowing husband to mourn their loss. Mrs. Toms was the daughter of James Savage of Williams town and was highly esteemed by all who know her.

Francis Page, daughter of the late James Page died last Saturday evening. A little more than a week ago Miss Page was in her usual health but was stricken with appendicitis and the operation which was performed in a late stage of the disease could not save her life. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Turner conducted the services, Mr. Ayer being called to his home on account of the illness of his father.

A number of the ladies of this place are going to Boston on the excursion on Tuesday.

The heavy rain of last Wednesday caused such a sudden rise of water in the stream that some difficulty was experienced in saving the Sherwood Dam. A large break was made in the dam on the south side of the stream and but for the fortunate circumstance that a ledge of rock was quite near the surface where the break was the dam would have gone out.

Surveyor Hoyt from Andover is here running lines for the farmers, some of whom are much interested in having their lands correctly surveyed.

The Baptist parsonage at Florenceville is nearing completion and is a credit to the place and people.

An architect from St. John will be in Centreville about the 20th of this month to look over the school ground and prepare plans for the new school building.

Nothing detrimental to Forrester interests has yet been made to appear in the evidence before the insurance commission.

The apple crop in many places is not up to the ordinary and the price is a little above that of other years.

The farmers in this section see the need of shipping facilities more than ever and the hope is expressed every where that the G. T. P., R. R. will be built here.

East Florenceville.

The following prizes were given for the shoot last Monday: Gold filling by R. B. Hagerman, pair gloves by Hunter Bros, pipe and case by D. McGaffigan, wash boiler by Semple & Haughan, fancy vest by H. P. Thompson, pair braces by John Kearney, suit of underwear by B. F. Smith, box of cigars, D. H. Sample.

Fifty four dollars was raised at the social in Burnham's Hall Saturday night. Proceeds for Carleton County Hospital. The band played out of doors and a few pieces inside.

Don't forget the big concert in Kearney's Hall, Thursday night (Thanksgiving.) A good program is arranged. During intermission ice cream and home made candies will be passed in the hall. The band will be in attendance. Come and see the flag drill which has in it twenty beautiful young ladies. John Oliver has moved into the house just at the corner of the bridge.

Remember the last shoot on the range will be on Thanksgiving, commencing at 9.30.

Andover.

Henry Watson returns to his home in Seattle on Thursday, 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuyper entertained their friends at whist on the 9th. A very delightful evening was spent and a delicious lunch served during the evening. Those present were Mrs. T. Allan, Mrs. J. Porter, Mrs. W. Hoyt, Mrs. W. B. Murphy, Mrs. Perley, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. McLeary, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Bertha Waite, Mrs. S. P. Waite, Mrs. D. R. Bedell, Miss S. Watson. Messrs D. B. Bedell, Guy Porter, B. Beveridge, J. Scott, H. McLeary, C. H. Elliott, Alex Stratton, W. B. Murphy, Henry Watson, S. P. Waite.

Mrs. J. A. Perley entertained a few of her friends at tea on Tuesday.

Burt Trafton was in town on Friday.

Mrs. Sadler entertained a few of her friends at tea on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Murphy leave for their home in Appleton, Wis. on the 18th. Their many friends will be sorry to say goodbye to them.

TO THE PUBLIC

It is right as well as our duty to acquaint you with some special advantages we have to offer in the line of SHOES!

To look at and examine our stock will be conclusive proof that our store is the place to buy.

GIBSON & ROSS,

Corner Main and Queen Streets, Woodstock, N. B.

Dr. Welling and T. J. Carter have returned home from their hunting trip, each bringing home a moose.

The revival meetings have been going on the past week, Mr. Rideout and Mr. Demings taking part. Nine persons were baptized and joined the church on Sunday.

Sheriff Tibbitts and Mrs. Tibbitts arrived home last week from St. Stephen and Campbellton.

Mrs. D. R. Bedell entertained the young folk at dancing on Friday night.

Pioneer.

The weather has been very favorable for potato digging with the exception of the last few days.

The well-diggers have been in the vicinity and E. A. Savage and John McAuley have been successful in getting a good supply of water.

The community regret to hear of the death of Miss Frances Page, who died suddenly of appendicitis Saturday the 13th.

A party of young folk from this place drove to the home of Miss Mary Page, Tracy Mills, the evening of Oct. 9th and spent a very enjoyable evening.

The telephone men are at work completing the new line between Centreville and Lakeville.

McAuley Bros. intend starting a hay press this week at Goods Corner for B. F. Smith. John Savage and Leigh Anderson have returned from the Aroostock potato fields with smiling faces and bulging pockets.

Rev. Father Bradley is visiting at the home of James Bradley.

Walter W. Prior intends going up to the Tobique woods on a hunting trip soon.

Perry Prior, of Providence, R. I., is home on a visit.

Florenceville.

A large number of people from this place attended the Exhibition at Centreville. There was a large crowd and Mr. Jones, Solicitor General, favored us with a speech. It was in a condensed form but he got a lot of good sound sense and truth in his remarks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Upton spent Saturday and Sunday at Waterville, where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McLean.

Potato digging is over in this place, and you would think you were living over in Uncle Sam's domain to hear the barrels rattle on the waggon coming from the station. We have only raised a few this year, but wait till another fall and we will show the yankees that we can raise as many potatoes as they can.

Ed McKay took dinner Sunday at C. A. Uptons.

Wilmot McKay spent Sunday at home.

George Holmes is busy digging potatoes for all the farmers around.

Some days over 100 teams loaded with potatoes come in the Centreville Road on their way to the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Handford Green, from Greenville, spent Sunday at C. E. Stephenson's.

Miss Glenna Birmingham and Miss Bell Nicholson, visited last week at Wakefield and Woodstock.

James Peters now handles the tapes over a fine span of horses on the school van. Small horses don't do on that kind of a vehicle.

Coy Birmingham is away at Fort Fairfield handling the big tubers.

Cars are very hard to get, but wait until we get our new railroad, the C. P. R. will have cars to burn then.

Mrs. T. J. Boyer, of Woodstock, visited friends in this place last week.

George Holmes and Lorenzo Ebbett, of Connell, are having telephones installed in their houses.

Kirkland.

The harvest supper was held on Oct. 11th, there were quite a number present. The rain prevented a greater number of people from attending.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Denning Oct. 12th, it weighs 14 lbs.

John Bustard of Monument Settlement went out in the fields one morning about seven o'clock and in an hour's time he shot a moose.

Mrs. Dora Slater and daughter Helen have moved to Cary to live with her sister.

Mr. Bryden, from the States, is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Graham.

Matilda Graham made a very pleasant visit to relatives at the Corner.

Several of the boys have returned home from picking potatoes.

Laura Kennedy purposes going to Boston for the winter.

Mrs. Peter D. Morrison has returned home from Eel River Lake.

Central Southampton,

F. R. Brooks met with a bad accident last week. While driving from Woodstock his horse backed over a steep bank throwing him out and breaking three of his ribs, besides inflicting other injuries upon him. Mrs. Brooks who was with him escaped unhurt.

Peter Craig, adopted son of Fred Brooks, was kicked by a horse; his collar bone was broken and his face badly bruised.

We are glad to see Mrs. G. A. Grant is able to be out driving.

Mrs. Young of Nashwaak, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Stewart, has returned home.

Ansley Draper has purchased a new gasoline engine and is doing a good business threshing.

Miss May Morrison and John Morrison, of Woodstock, spent Sunday in this place guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tabor.

Inspector Brown spent Sunday at his home here.

Rev. A. Rutledge will have service in the United Baptist church Sunday evening.

Chipman Grant has returned from a very pleasant trip to the Northwest.

Mr. B. S. Cronkhite who went to Manitoba has returned.

GEORGE TILLEY, B. A., of Jacksonville, leaves for England via Montreal on Wednesday for an extended trip. Mr. Tilley will travel in the interests of Underwood & Underwood, working particularly around High Holburn.

Founders in Canada of Hand Tailored Garments, completely finished.

Fall Weight
Serge Suits.

You know what attractive summer suits Fit-Reform Serges are.

We had a special lot of very fine English Serge made up in fall weights.

Can't imagine what stunning Suits these are, until you see yourself in one.

Both black and blue—and, of course, the colors are guaranteed as well as style, fit and tailoring.

$18. and $20.

B. B. Manzer, - Woodstock.

Special Sale, Beginning Aug. 1st.

During the month of August I will sell at greatly reduced prices. All classes of goods must go. My stock must be reduced to make room for Fall Goods. I will just mention a few lines: Children's, Boys, Youths' and Men's Up-to-date Clothing. Also, Boots and Shoes, Underwear and Hosiery, Factory Yarn, Cloth (Hewson make). A full assortment of Dry Goods, and Fancy Goods. Millinery—a few Hats still left—no reasonable offer refused. Crockery, Glassware, Tinware, Woodenware and Hardware. All must go regardless of cost.

Hartland Farmers' Exchange,
C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR, Prop.

HELLO!

We are ready to meet our friends and customers once more so drop in and see us, even if you do not buy.

STOP!

eating canned meats and imported beef for when you do you are taking chances of being poisoned as any reliable newspaper in the country will tell you.

GOOD-BY

all old grocery goods and come to us for new stocks which have just been placed on shelf. Our prices are the lowest in town and the quality is the very best.

THE BRIDGE STORE.

SULLIVAN BROS.

The Up-to-Date Merchants.

THE REV. E. C. TURNER was called to Lakeville on Sunday morning to officiate at the funeral of Miss Frances Page, who died suddenly of acute appendicitis on Friday last.

ENSIGN MILLER and Captain Snow of the Salvation Army who have been in town for the past fifteen months, farewell on Sunday night they will leave next week for their new quarters.

COAT MAKERS WANTED.

Three coat makers wanted. Good wages and steady employment. R. B. JONES, Main Street, Woodstock, N. B. March 21st.

FARM FOR SALE.

A farm containing 140 acres on the Jackson-town road, six miles from Woodstock. About 100 acres clear. The buildings are in good repair, water in the house and at the barn. The farm will be sold with or without stock and farm implements. For further particulars and terms inquire of GEORGE C. WATSON, Jacksonville. Sept. 26-41 pd.

WANTED.

We need several boys to work as apprentices in the moulding shop. A liberal offer made to apprentices. Also want a boy to work in nickel plating department.

CONNEL BROS., Ltd.

FOR GOOD VALUES IN
Mats, Carpets,
Oilcloths, Linoleums,
Roller Blinds,
Curtain Poles,
Wall Paper, Etc., go to
CARR'S,
HARTLAND.

He has also a large stock of Ready-Made Clothing, for Men, Boys and Children.
Quality and prices right.
Produce taken in exchange.

J. T. G. CARR,
Hartland, N. B.