SHEEP are so scarce in some parts of Aroostook county that there are children there ten years old who never saw one says a correspondent to the Presque Isle Star Herald. There is a very old saying that a man who marries a woman older than himself will have good luck raising sheep. Perhaps if the Aroostook farmers would observe this maxim they would be able to put more mutton on the market.

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED THE NECESSITY AND ADVISABILITY OF SAVING?—The nucleus of many a fortune has been a savings bank account. Moreover, in event of sickness or misfortune, what is more desirable than a comfortable balance in the bank? An account to which interest will be added semi-annually may be opened at the Royal Bank of Canada with a deposit of one dollar or more. The fascination of watching such an account grow is marvellous.

THE Presque Isle Independent has been suspended after an existence of about five years. The enterprise never has proved a success from a financial standpoint, and is the second or third failure, we understand, of two papers trying to make an existence at the same time in that town. Places the size of Presque Isle in Aroostook county are really too small to support two papers.—Caribou Republican.

THE Methodists of Woodstock are thinking of tearing down their church building and erecting a new one. The present edifice which is about forty years old, is no longer adapted to the needs of the congregation; and though money has been given generously in the past to keep it in repair, it is felt that the building has reached an age and condition when it would not be economical to spend any more money in repairing it. Some of the members are looking over the plans and specifications of a church in Houlton that pleases them, the cost of which was in the vicinity of $16,000.
