James McBride.
James McBride of Lindsay, one of the best known residents in the county, died at his home on Friday at the age of 85 years. He was one of the early settlers in that part of Richmond, having moved there more than 60 years ago. He married a Miss Lindsay who has been dead a number of years. He leaves six sons, William, Ernest and Hanford of British Columbia, and Fred, John and Albert of this county, and three daughters, Mrs. Caldwell of Fort Fairfield, Mrs. James Watson of Grand Falls and Miss Margaret McBride, a trained nurse of Boston.

The funeral was held on Sunday, interment being made at the Woodstock Parish church.

The Sewage Problem.

The Lieutenant-Governor in council handed out its decision Saturday upholding the provincial board of health in their refusal to allow the City of Fredericton to dump crude sewage into the St. John river.

As a result of this decision Fredericton is confronted with one of the most serious problems in its history. It has already spent about $75,000 on a sewerage system and according to Engineer Barbour's estimate it will cost at least an additional $125,000 to provide a purification plant.

George Y. Dibblee, president of the board of trade of Fredericton in discussing the matter, says that if Fredericton is stopped from discharging sewage into the river, the same rule should apply to Woodstock and other towns.

We would call Mr. Dibblee's attention to the fact that this action was brought about at the request of the people of Sunbury County, who live much nearer to Fredericton than Fredericton is to Woodstock and who would naturally be more deeply affected by the pollution of the water at Fredericton than the citizens of Fredericton would by the pollution at Woodstock. Beside, the City of Fredericton is over twice the size of Woodstock. The people of Fredericton subject the river water to a sort of filtration before they use it and the people of Sunbury do not, and have no public means of doing so.

The people of Fredericton have for years been content that the people of Woodstock should put their sewage into the river, and it would look like something hardly less than spite for them to attempt now to visit some of their displeasure on Woodstock.

If a very interesting story, which comes from Melrose, Mass; is true, then New Brunswick has contributed another millionaire to the United States and the man's daughter, who has been working in Melrose, is the chief heiress to a large fortune. The man who became a millionaire is a Mr. Kinney, formerly of Woodstock, N. B., and the story, which appeared under a Melrose date in a Boston paper, is as follows:

"Thinking herself an orphan for 23 years, Miss Annie Kinney, who lives at 108 Highland avenue, Melrose Highland, learns she is an heiress, and her father, who she thought was dead, is a millionaire land owner in Oregon. Miss Kinney who is a working girl, can hardly realize that her father is living.

"In the letter received by Miss Kinney her father asks her to bring her sister and live with him the rest of their lives.

"It seems like a romance to Miss Kinney, after struggling for 23 years, to find herself the heir to a fortune.

"Mr. Kinney, who lived in Woodstock, N. B., with his wife, a son and two daughters, was working for a small salary when his health failed and he lost his position. So one day, 23 years ago, he bade his family good by and said he was going west and seek a fortune for them all.

"After waiting several years and receiving word from her husband, Mrs. Kinney started for the west in search of him, pined away and died.

"Soon after the mother left the little boy was taken sick and died, and the little girls sought relatives, Miss Annie coming to her cousin, William J. Mitchell of Melrose Highlands, and going to work as a clerk in his bakery.

"After 23 years her father she thought dead has been heard from. The glad tidings had first been received by his sister in Woodstock, N. B., who wrote Miss Kinney that her father was alive and a millionaire, because of land sales since the California earthquake sent so many persons hunting land in the north. He asked his sister to locate his children and to have them come and live with him.

"The sister is now Mrs. J. W. Edwards of Woodstock.

CAPT. William of the Salvation Army, leaves to-day with his family for St. John, where he will act as financial secretary for Brigadier Turner. He will be succeeded by CAP. Woolver from Bermuda.

Mrs. Tappan Adney's Recital.

The Hon. Charles S. Hyman Recovering.

The resignation of the Hon. Charles S. Hyman for the constituency of London was presented to the House of Commons by the speaker last Friday. Mr. Hyman still retains his portfolio of public works. He has written to the Premier that his health is improving rapidly and he expects to be able to resume the work of his department in a few weeks.

Death of Mrs. Mary Malcolm.

Mrs. Mary Malcolm, widow of the lately deceased William Malcolm, died at her home in Grand Falls on Monday, 4th inst, after a brief illness of one week. Mrs. James Brown of Woodstock is a sister-in-law of deceased. No children survive.

Probate Court.

In the Carleton County Probate Court last week a citation issued for the passing of the first accounts in the estate of L. P. Fisher.

The will of G. Harris Estey late of the parish of Wakefield was proved and letters testamentary granted to George McLeod and William H. Siprell. Michael Keefe and Ernest Keefe were the witnesses. The estate was valued at $4,500, all personalty.

"The Finger of Scorn, and the Proof of His Love."

A very large audience greeted the performance of "The Finger of Scorn, and the Proof of His Love," put on by The Valley Farm Amateur Dramatic Company on Monday evening last under the auspices of the 67th Band. Following is the cast of characters:—

- Rev. Phillip Dunchester, (Rector of St. Mark's).....H. A. Carvell
- Norman Weir, (His college friend, a detective).....A. R. Currie
- Richard Heritage, M. D., (commonly called Mr. Dick).....H. Dunbar
- John Gordon, (a fugitive).....J. C. Berry
- Sheriff Blake,.....O. A. Townsend
- Peters, (chore boy, who thinks life a joke).....A. H. Cole
- Irene Arnold, (with a heart history).....Ada Boyer
- Bess, (the minister's sister, "a bit of a butterfly").....H. Tilley
- Miss Pickins, (a busy dressmaker).....Estella Dalling
- Bina, (servant girl at rectory).....Hattie Gabel
- Village and Officers.

Miss Ada Boyer (who is not a stranger in amateur theatricals) as Irene Arnold, with a heart history, had the most important role in the cast, and certainly did it full justice, showing careful study and good judgment. The part of Miss Pickins, a busy dressmaker, was perhaps the next character of importance in the cast. In this part Estella Dalling in her numerous old-fashioned costumes and sayings received much applause from the audience. Peters, the chore boy who thinks life a joke, was well put on by A. H. Cole and provided unlimited amusement and laughter. Dr. A. R. Currie and Mrs. Tilley Brewer showed careful study of their parts and added to the interest of the performance. Hattie Gabel, as Bina, the servant girl at the rectory, acted her part nicely. H. A. Carvell who took the part of the Rev. Phillip Dunchester had a good stage presence for the part, but seemed a little nervous, this being his first appearance before an audience. The other parts were of a minor nature, but were well put on. Taken altogether the play was a decided success and much enjoyed.

A pleasing feature of the evening was the solo sung by Miss Dorothy Brewer, who has a soprano voice of unusual sweetness.

The 67th Band was in attendance and furnished music for dancing, which was kept up until one o'clock.

Prof. Ansell, the new bandmaster, was in charge.

BABY'S BEST FRIEND

Baby's Own Tablets have saved many a precious little life. There is no other medicine to equal them for stomach and bowel troubles, colds, simple fevers or teething troubles. They are good for children of all ages—from the new born babe to the well grown child. And the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they do not contain opiates or harmful drops. Mrs. John C. Gilcart, Prosser Brook, N. B. says: "I have proved that Baby's Own Tablets are a great help to mothers, and are baby's best friend. They act almost like magic and I will always keep them in the house." The tablets are sold by druggists or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Andover.

John Webster, Fairbanks, Alaska, was renewing acquaintances in town last week. He was a guest at the home of S. P. Waite.

Miss Eva Cameron is home from Caribou, Maine for a few weeks' holiday.

Mrs. John McLauchlan, St. John, was visiting her mother Mrs. Newcomb, at Pelly's hotel last week.

Miss Sarah Tibbits has returned from her professional duties at Caribou and is now caring for Miss Mary Watson who is slowly improving.

Raymond Gabel, Woodstock, made a flying trip up this way last week.

Rev. Arthur Ross, McAdam Junction, was visiting at Wm. Curry's for a few days last week.

A large number have been enjoying the open air rink on the river. Much credit is due Mr. McAdam and a number of his scholars who have kept the ice in condition.

A pleasing entertainment was given in Beveridge's hall on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Guild connected with Trinity church. The sum of over $40 was realized.

Rev. Gordon Pringle, Kincardine, preached to a large congregation in the Kirk on Sunday evening. Rev. James McCaskill, Fort Kent, will conduct service next Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. George Baird returned home on Saturday after a month's visit in Montreal and Ottawa.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Favorite.
