THE Carleton Woodworking Co. have just installed a one hundred horse power engine. To their customers they would announce that their telephone number is 504 and their post-office box 333.

At a recent business meeting of the Hartland Reformed Baptist church the Rev. H. C. Archer was asked to remain as pastor another year and he has decided to remain. He will probably take Waterville into his circuit this year.

CLARENCE W. HAY, of Richmond Corner, Carleton County, who has been attending Dalhousie University, was in the City Friday on his way to Charlotte County, where he will do mission work during the summer. —Telegraph.

A GOOD block of brick or cement buildings will be erected this season on Main Street between the post office and the Carlisle hotel. The George W. Gibson Co. began excavating yesterday. Some of the buildings will be three stories high.

THE Restigouche Woodworking Company's factory at Dalhousie was destroyed by fire last Friday night and burned to the ground in about three hours. The loss is about $80,000 and the insurance about $49,000. About 150 men are thrown out of employment.

MANY people inherit wealth. Some secure it by a stroke of luck. But the only certain method of acquiring a competency is by saving. The manager of the Royal Bank of Canada will be pleased to serve those who believe in saving money and placing it where it will earn interest.

NORMAN LENTINE was arrested some weeks ago near Hartland as a public nuisance and is now in jail. He will probably be sent to the hospital for nervous diseases, but the parish of Richmond vigorously objects to his being charged to its account, as it is claimed he never had a residence there.

THE articles left over from the auction sale at Almon Hanson's, Richmond, will be sold at private sale. The goods can be inspected at any time, consisting of farm machinery and waggons at Almon Hanson's, Richmond. Terms cash or indorsed notes. All the above articles are in fine condition.

MISS VEGA CREED, only daughter of Dr. H. C. Creed of the provincial normal school, died at her home in Fredericton last Wednesday morning of tuberculosis at the age of 25 years. She had recently returned from the Sanatorium at Kentville, N. S., where she had been under treatment. Beside her parents she leaves three brothers.

Back in 1886 Campbell's Varnish Stains were originated and offered to housekeepers for restaining and refinishing furniture and interior woodwork. The makers claim, and rightly too, that twenty years' experience making varnish stains enables them to make a better article than can be made by those new at the business. Ask for Campbell's Varnish Stains. Mr. C. A. Phillips, Bristol, N. B. sells it.

ANY one wanting Black Dress Goods should inspect the new line of high class dress fabrics in the well known Priestley makes, including fine Panama, Savoy Cloth, Wool Voile, Wool Taffeta, Ombra Cloth, Satin Cloth and Hugenot Cloth, at the new store of Jas. S. McManus. He has also a new lot of Silk Petticoats in black, green, grey, brown, beseda and cardinal.

HENRY LAWSON, who left his home near Bristol in the latter part of January, has not been heard of since. It has been said that he attempted to go to Gordonville by way of a old unused wood road and was overcome by the cold. It is thought by some that his disappearance was by no means an accident and Sheriff Foster has been authorized by the Attorney General to look into the matter. Mr. Lawson was a man of about 50 years of age, of dark complexion, and weighed about 150 lbs. Any information concerning him will be gladly received by Sheriff Foster.

MRS. MARY RALSTON, wife of the late William Ralston, died at the residence of her son, William, in Grafton, on Monday, April 8th, aged 85 years. Mrs. Ralston was born in Ireland, but has been a resident of Grafton for half a century, where she had endeared herself to the people; her friends throughout the county were numerous. Deceased is survived by six sons and four daughters—James, in Seattle; Oliver, William, Robert, Thomas and Joseph in Northampton; Mrs. L. Sewell, of Pembroke; Mrs. A. E. Jones, of Melrose, Mass.; Mrs. Thomas Estey in Georgia, and Miss Janie Ralston in Boston. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, sons of deceased acting as pallbearers. Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the religious services at the house and the burial was made in the Kirk cemetery in Northampton.

GEORGE WISE who was so badly injured last week while crossing the track near Connell's foundry with a load of wood, was operated on in the hospital on Monday for the removal of one of his legs. His condition was in such a weak state from the result of the accident that he was not able to stand the operation and died on Tuesday morning.

DR. H. B. JERVIS discovered a case of glanders in a horse that died at Emerson's stable Sunday. The stable was at once quarantined and every effort will be put forth to prevent a spread of the disease. The horse had been a new purchase and had not been long in the stable. It is sincerely hoped the disease will not get a start among the other horses. —Houlton Pioneer.

LAST week a delegation from the parishes of Kent and Wicklow composed of Dr. Commins, P. Corbett, Charles Gallagher, Matthew Bohan, E. R. Squires, J. D. Fulton, George Green and others went to Fredericton and urged on the government their claims for a bridge across the river at the town of Bath. They were well received and have every reason to believe the bridge will be built.

THE Sportsman's Journal Vol. I No. 4, published in Philadelphia, comes to hand. It is devoted to hunting, fishing, yachting, caters to the dog fancier and in fact seems to go in for every sort of sport or everything that clean sport can be made of. It seems to be well worth the price which is $1.00 a year. T. Gordon Ferris a gentleman well known in Woodstock is advertising manager.

"Our Jim."

A very large audience greeted the second appearance of the McAn' Otis Company in "Our Jim" at the opera house on Monday evening last. There were a good many persons in the cast (which we give below) and for this reason we have not the space to go into detail as to the merits each performer, suffice it to say that all the parts, even the minor ones, showed careful study, and the stage settings were perfect. Much time and care must have been taken in the costumes and make ups of the different characters which added greatly to the production of the play. Should the company again decide to put on another play, they are assured of the same recognition as was accorded them on Monday evening last.

The music of Prof. Ansell's orchestra which played between the acts, was very much appreciated.

Following is the cast of characters:

John Mathews, called by his friends "Uncle John".... R. P. Hartley
James Mathews, his son.... R. MacG. Watt
Bob, his nephew..... G. Newnam
Major Timothy Mudge..... E. F. Wolverton
Deacon Hezekiah Tidd..... W. M. McCunn
Bill Tidd } sons..... B. N. Britton
John Henry Tidd } ..... B. M. Hay
Aunt Deborah Mathews Miss E. M. Newcombe
Caroline Antwerp..... Mrs. Geo. Phillips
Bessie, the major's daughter Miss I. H. Foster
Grace Antwerp..... Miss Helen S. Wolverton
Kate Smith..... Miss J. G. McLardy

The net receipts will amount to something over $200.00, which is for the benefit of St. Paul's church building fund.

Coming Attraction.

Harry H. Lee, of this town, is one of the managers of the "Funny Mr. Dooley Co." which will appear in the opera house, Woodstock, on Monday, April 29th. This company has just completed a 42 weeks season on the road and is now reorganizing here. Among the special attractions are the celebrated "Four LaReanes," musicians, singers and dancers. The company carries a full brass band and is up-to-date in all its features.
