New Brunswicker is Nominated in Vancouver.

A despatch received last night announces that J. Wallace deB. Farris, formerly of Queens County, New Brunswick, has been nominated Liberal candidate for the city of Vancouver, in the British Columbia provincial elections. Mr. Farris is the second Queens County man to be put in nomination, the other being J. H. King, son of Senator King, who will contest Cranbrook in the Liberal interest.

Mr. Farris, who is a son of Hon. L. P. Farris, is a member of the law firm of Killam & Farris, and has been about three years in Vancouver. He graduated from Acadia in 1899 and was one of the debaters against Dalhousie. On leaving he went to the University of Pennsylvania, where in 1902 he secured his LL. B., and the same year led the debate for his university against Michigan, the Pennsylvania team winning for the first time in several years. Mr. Farris, in the same year, secured the $75 Fraser prize as leading debater. It is somewhat noteworthy that the young New Brunswicker who now for the first time enters the campaign of politics in the far west, is the third generation in succession to seek the attraction of the hustings. His grandfather, the late Hon. John Farris, was in politics for twenty-five years, and his father, the present provincial commissioner of agriculture, has been before the electorate for fifteen years. The only political defeat was known in the family during the forty years was on the occasion of the first election contested by Hon. John Farris, when he was beaten by his opponent by nine votes.—St. John Telegraph.

Mr. Farris is the grandson of Mr. Hugh Hay of Woodstock and he has many friends here who will be glad to hear that his character and ability are appreciated in British Columbia.

Greetings From the Globe's Carriers.

The St. John Globe is a most gratifying paper. It does all things well. THE DISPATCH has just received the annual GREETING of its carriers. It is well designed and tastefully printed in three colors on a good quality of paper. It contains the following good wishes: "When the sun shines—when the flowers bloom—when the wind blows—and when the snow flies—then, I hope you will always be seated by the fireside of prosperity. May the best of all the good things be with you, especially the St. John Globe, the delivery of which gives the largest lump of happiness and gratitude to me."

No Roller Rink.

A stranger in town some time ago wished to buy the wrapper factory building and convert it into a roller rink, but the Salvation Army protested against having a place of amusement so near their hall, and the stranger, seeing the law was against him, withdrew. No doubt the Salvation Army is afraid of the truth of those old lines of

When ever God erects a house of prayer, The Devil always builds a chapel there; The Devil is found upon examination, And 'twill be the largest congregation."

Week of Prayer.

The Week of Prayer church, when the evening in the Advancement of the Church. Rev. G. D. Ireland spoke in the Main Street Baptist church when the Rev. Mr. Fulton spoke on the Gospel of the Reformed Baptist church, The Church Ministry, the Rev. A. H. Kearney. The day, Presbyterian church, Missions, the Rev. S. A. Baker. Friday, Methodist church, Christian Institutions, the Rev. Dr. Kierstead.

Christmas Tree in Greenfield.

A most enjoyable concert and Christmas tree was held in the Presbyterian church Greenfield on New Year's Eve. The Sabbath school and congregation were out en masse and the house was filled. The tree loaded with gifts particularly for the young, presented an attractive appearance. Santa Claus from his home in Wonderland had not forgotten a single boy or girl present and there were gifts to be taken to those at home—the babies, too, were remembered. The following programme was rendered during the evening: Hymn—Coronation, Gordon Chapman Recitation—Carol of Redemption, Choir Motion Song, Six Girls Recitation, Roland Fiske Anthem—The Prince of Peace, Choir Mother Song—Christmas, Nine girls and boys Solo—A Little bit of Love, Rev. T. H. Anderson Mixed quartette—The Song of the Heart, Messrs McCain and Anderson, Messrs McCain and Anderson Chorus—The Glory Song, Choir

The Last Meeting.

The last meeting of the present town council will have been held Monday night. The Mayor was in the chair and there were present Couns. Henderson, McManis, Leighton and Fields. Couns. Dunbar and Fisher were absent.

Mayor Munro said there were enough funds in the bank to pay all checks and leave a small balance. The $5000 of bonds had sold at par and a part of the amount had been placed to current account to cover the amount of the current assessment that had been used for capital account. At noon on Monday the credit balance in the bank was $2,206.98. Since that hour Mr. Kelly had collected $279. Since the last meeting Mr. Kelly had collected $2,730. He thought that while some departments had been over-expended on the whole the council would be able to make a very good showing.

After the meeting His Worship entertained the members of the council, the members of the press and town officials at Terry's.

Carr-Gilligan.

Sabine L. Carr, youngest son of James Carr of Woodstock, was united in marriage at Bellingham, Wash., on Wednesday January 2nd to Miss Gaire Gilligan of that city. The ceremony took place in the episcopal church in the presence of a large audience.

Mr. Carr learned the drug business with Mr. Sheasgreen and later studied at the Ontario College of Pharmacy of which he is a graduate. He was always a very popular young man in social circles in Woodstock.

About a year ago he went to Bellingham where he became senior partner in one of the most prosperous drug establishments in the city. His many friends in Woodstock will congratulate him heartily.

Vanwart-Vanwart

Miss Dracilla A. VanWart left Woodstock last Thursday evening on the express and on Monday the 7th at Medicine Hat she was united in marriage to John G. VanWart, of Calgary, who went there to meet her. Miss VanWart who is a daughter of the late Charles VanWart has been very prominent in the work of the Free Baptist church and will be very much missed there. John G. VanWart was for many years a resident and prominent merchant of Woodstock and was one of the early settlers of Calgary and first mayor of that city.

Hazlett-Roberts.

At the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Nevers Dow, Houlton, Maine, on December 24th, Barton Hazlett, of Benton, N. B., and Mrs. Augusta Roberts, of Meductic, York County, N. B., were united in marriage by the Rev. J. A. Ford. Only the near relatives were present.

Provincial Dairy School.

The commissioner of Agriculture has just issued the announcement of the 14th session of the Provincial Dairy School at Sussex. The Creamery course will open Tuesday February 26th and close March 8th. The Cheese course will open March 11th and close March 22nd. The teaching will be free to all students from the Maritime Provinces. The number of pupils for either course is limited to fifty. Applications should be sent in as possible to the superintendent of the Dairy School, Sussex.

THE CARE OF A BABY.

A baby that does not eat well and sleep well, that is nervous and playful needs attention, for the result may be serious. Stomach and bowels are the most important organs of a baby's body. Baby's Own Tablets soon correct the trouble. The child sleeps soundly and naturally. Mrs. Harley, bright and smiling, says: "My baby has had no medicine but Baby's Own Tablets since she was two months old. They kept her the picture of good health. You can get Baby's Own Tablets from any drug list or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Adult Bible Class.

Rev. S. A. Baker is organizing an adult Bible Class, which will meet in the main auditorium of the Reformed Baptist church Sunday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:30. All who wish to become members are cordially invited. This invitation is to the converted and unconverted who would enjoy meeting for the study of the International Sunday school lessons.

Carleton County Court.

The criminal case, the King against John Robert and Jonathan Shannon, three brothers who live in Greenfield, for assaulting Joseph Holmes, was opened in the armory on Friday. The assault was committed in a row on the ownership of a piece of land. His Honor Solicitor General Jones appeared for the crown and A. B. Connell, K. C. for the prisoners. The prisoners pleaded guilty on the second count, that of assaulting Holmes by throwing stones at him. Mr. Connell made a strong plea for the prisoners, pointing out that there was bad blood between the parties and Holmes provoked the prisoners in the assault.

Mr. Jones briefly addressed the court.

His honor addressing the prisoners said: "In the community you men have the reputation of being desperadoes. Your neighbors would not believe you under oath. I would be justified in sending you to Dorchester for three years, but I do not believe in dealing harshly with any prisoner if there is a chance for him becoming a good citizen. You men should be good citizens. The three of you are well to do, having good farms and a valuable stake in the county. You must remember that you cannot do as you like; the law has arms long enough to catch you. Your counsel said everything in your favour that he could have said. He even asked that a fine be imposed. A fine would be no good in your case for you would pay it and continue your bad conduct."

"I will give you one more chance. Do not wait to have your farms neglected at this time of year. I will impose a sentence upon you and when you do wrong the solicitor general will see that the commitments will be issued. I will sentence each of you to the common jail for six months but now let you go after you jointly and severally enter into recognizance for $2,000 to keep the peace for two years."

The court then adjourned to meet at the court house on Monday. The judge said he would not go there but for the fact that the larger room was required for convening the juries.

In the King against Fred Ivey and Susie Cullins charged with stealing a horse pumg and robes from various people from the poor farm to Bloomfield Corner, the grand jury found a true bill and the prisoners were tried on Monday and Tuesday. His Hon. the Solicitor General appeared for the crown and T. C. L. Ketchum for the prisoners. The jury brought in a verdict of "guilty" and Judge Carleton sentenced Ivey to three years in the penitentiary with hard labour and the girl to two years.

The Service of Plate.

Complaint is made by a naval correspondent of the London G. B. Chronicle that the facts relating to the damage which H. M. S. Dominion received in Canadian waters a few months ago are being hushed up. The Dominion crossed the Atlantic in order to receive a silver shield and service of plate contributed by Canadian citizens to the officers' mess of the ship. The vessel touched a rock but no information has reached the public as to the extent of the injury.

"We are now in a position," writes our naval correspondent, "to say that the Dominion was very badly damaged—so badly that it is a question whether she will ever really be fit for service again. When the Dominion arrived at Bermuda she had over 2,000 tons of water in her hold and so grave were the defects revealed when she was docked that the resources of the Bermuda establishment were unable to cope with them."

"All that is being done at Bermuda is temporary repairs, and although some months have been consumed in an attempt to patch her up, it is not expected that she will be fit to cross the Atlantic before the end of February. On the arrival of the vessel in home waters she will be sent to Chatham to be put right, and judging from the extent of the injuries sustained to her hull, it is unlikely she will take her place in the fighting line for a long time to come."

"The trip across the Atlantic has been an expensive matter for the public, and the failure of the establishment of Bermuda to accomplish more than temporary repairs is much complained upon by naval men."

A Philadelphia woman who had no faith in banks refused a cheque for $6,000 from a railway company, in compensation for the death of her husband, for the money in notes, sewed them in a sack, tucked it under her skirt, and—when she was asked for the money while she was in the hospital—she said she had no money. The woman's faith in banks, however, is now known. It is not known whether the sack or observation, but upon the subject.
