NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., JAN. 9, 1907

Listerville.

We thought you might like to hear again from Listerville.

Listerville is a newly settled farming country, situated about two and a half miles back of River de Chure, near the boundary line. It is between twenty and twenty-five years since the first settlers came. Among the first that came here were Isaac Straight and Alan Lister. At that time it was solid forest, not a clearing in sight; now we have quite large clearings. Our post office was formerly called Mars Hill, but on account of Mars Hill, Me. being so near, we had it changed this summer to Listerville. It is kept by Alan Lister. One inconvenience the farmers here have is the bad roads. There have never been any good roads made until last summer there was a small piece made. In the wet seasons the roads are almost impassable, but we are in hopes soon to have a good road put clear through to River de Chute.

The weather is somewhat cooler and all are glad to see it. There has been such a warm spell, that it was feared at one time that the ice might run out.

Miss Edith Barker, stenographer in St. John, spent Christmas week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barker.

Miss Laura Lister is spending her vacation with her uncle in Bath.

D. E. Barker and family spent Christmas in Bath with Mrs. Barker's parents.

Dr. Perkins from Centerville made a call in this place one night last week.

John Wiggins and George Marshall spent Christmas at Muriac with B. Wiggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Straight are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl in their home.

Wilbur Grey of Bath is spending a week with Edward Barker.

We expect our school to re-open Tuesday the 8th, Miss Seeley taking charge again.

Mrs. Cox and little Irene spent a few days last week at Muriac with Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wiggins.

Florenceville.

The Florenceville Amateur Dramatic Club will put on a most entertaining comedy drama entitled "Mystery of Fate," in Kearney's Hall, Florenceville, on Saturday evening, January 19th. Following is the cast of characters:

Miss Rebecca Luke, maiden lady, Miss Maddox
Katherine Rogers, Miss Rebecca's niece, Miss Pierce
Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend
Mrs. H. Thompson
Patty, Miss Rebecca's maid,
Miss K. E. McGaffigan
Philip Payson, Miss Rebecca's nephew,
Fred Squires
Robert Brown, clerk of Benson & Benson,
Arthur Jewett
Jenkins, Miss Rebecca's butler, A. D. McCain
Charlie, charitable charge, T. A. McCain

Songs and character sketches will fill in between the acts. Admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents, children 15 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock sharp; performance will begin at 7.30. The proceeds will go toward paying the debt on the Roman Catholic church at Florenceville. Watch for posters and dodgers.

On Saturday, December 29th, there was a special meeting of the ratepayers of Florenceville Consolidated School District, called at the request of the Board of Education. The meeting was held in the principal's room in the new school building. There were about 75 ratepayers present. The Rev. J. H. A. Anderson acted as chairman of the meeting. John N. Perry, of Connell, secretary of the board of Trustees, read the financial report of the board which extended over a period of nearly two years or since the temporary board of trustees took charge of the work of construction. The contract price for the stone basement was $974, for the brick superstructure $7,440, being a total of $8,414 for the building. Desks and seats cost $560, other equipment $150, or a total of $710 for the equipment. The vans cost $450, and the contract prices for driving the vans this year were $400 for Connell, a five mile route, with about thirty-five children, and $346 for East Florenceville, a five mile route, with more than thirty children. The three retiring trustees, J. W. Smalley, John N. Perry and Dr. Ross, were re-elected without opposition. It was estimated that the school could be run this year on $1200 which involves a rate of 65 cents on $100. The Rev. J. H. A. Anderson was elected auditor.

Andover.

A very pretty wedding took place on New Year's morning at eleven o'clock in the Baptist church, when Miss Nellie Sadler was united to Dr. James King of Cranbrook, B. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. W. Demmings in the presence of a host of friends. Fred Hoyt presided at the organ, and played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Frank Sadler. She was beautifully gowned in princess costume of white liberty satin, cut en train, trimmed with hand embroidery, and veil fastened with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses, lilies and maiden hair. Miss Lena Baird acted as bridesmaid and was becomingly attired in light blue chiffon combined with blue cloth and picture hat of blue chiffon and plumes. Millicent Carter, the little flower girl, was prettily dressed in white point d'esprit over white silk and carried a basket of pink carnations. George Sadler, brother of the bride supported the groom. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Senator Baird and at 12.30 p. m. a delicious luncheon was served to the guests by six young friends of the bride, Misses Helen Tibbits, Etta Peppett, Ethel Armstrong, Pearl Waite, Laura Hopkins and Mae Waite, ably assisted by the ushers, Messrs Herbert and Fred Baird, Roy Murphy and Frank Rideout. Beside the immediate relatives of the bride, among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. Crandall, Chipman; Mrs. Case, St. John; Mrs. Ralph Horton, Calais; Miss Roberta Murchie St. Stephen; Miss Peppett, North Sidney, C. B.; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Waite, Mrs. Bertha Waite, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carter, Mrs. G. W. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacPhail, Fred Hoyt and Rev. Arthur Ross, McAdam. The bride and groom left for their western home by the afternoon train, amid showers of confetti and good wishes of their friends.

Mrs. Case, Mrs. Horton and Miss Murchie returned to their respective homes on Wednesday.
