

Organizing Against The New Sunday Law.

A league has just been formed in Toronto, to protest against the recently enacted Sunday law. It is called the Canadian Rational Sunday League, and they are sending out the following circular explanatory of their aims and objects:

The formation of this league has been forced upon us by the tyrannical Sunday laws recently enacted at Ottawa. This legislation was secured by professional agitators in the name of religion, and under sanction of this iniquitous law a religious persecution has commenced. Those who do not agree with the Lord's Day Alliance are to be converted to their views by fines and imprisonment. Like St. Paul before his conversion, who said . . . "and being exceeding mad against them I persecuted them even unto strange cities." How accurately this represents the attitude of the well paid agitators of the Lord's Day Alliance, who travel from one city to another, instituting legal proceedings, taking up collections and stirring up strife!

True religion is honest and never aggressive and leaves everyone free to live his own life as his conscience dictates.

The religion which requires police, fines and imprisonment to support it, that causes strife, hatred and malice, is not the Christian religion.

We are unworthy the names of free men if we submit to these tyrannical laws.

The objects of this league are to secure:

The right to buy and sell refreshments on Sunday, intoxicating liquors excepted.

The right to have popular lectures or similar recreations on Sunday where an admission free may be charged.

The right to have music in the parks, to open museums, picture galleries and reading rooms on Sunday.

That selling a postage stamp, cigar, tobacco, newspapers or magazines on Sunday shall not be considered a crime, making the vendor liable to a fine or imprisonment.

Note—This clause is not intended to authorize the opening of news or cigar stores, but simply to prevent druggists, hotels, etc., which are always open to incidentally oblige the public if they wish without incurring penalties.

We shall continue the agitation until these objects are obtained, and invite the co-operation of all men and women who love freedom and hate injustice and oppression.

(MAJOR) W. H. ORCHARD,
Chairman of the committee.
J. ENOCH THOMPSON, Secretary.

A Military Road.

(From The Canadian Courier.)

An important work is being carried out by the Dominion Government in North West Canada, concerning which people in general know but little. This is the building of a trail, or more properly a military road from Edmonton to the Yukon Territory. For two years the construction has been under way in charge of the Royal North West Mounted Police. From Edmonton the road stretches seven hundred miles away to Fort St. John on the Peace River, and then takes an almost direct course over the Rocky Mountains for two hundred miles to Fort Graham in British Columbia, and thence in a north westerly direction for seven hundred miles more to Atlin. This long trail of sixteen hundred miles lies through a region, as a rule but little civilized, and where Nature at times opposes her sternest barriers. It is not a wide road, only eight feet, and at regular intervals of twenty miles small rude log-houses are erected as halting places. The principal work so far has been from the eastern side of the mountains, and last fall the construction party, under the command of Captain Camies, reached Fort Graham, where they have wintered. This summer another party of workmen in charge of Inspector McDonnell, of Whitehorse, will push the work from Atlin until the two forces meet, which they hope to do before winter.

Life.

Between the budding and the falling leaf
Stretch happy skies;
With colors and sweet cries
Of mating birds in uplands and in glades
The world is rife.
Then on a sudden all the music dies,
The color fades,
How fugitive and brief
Is mortal life

Between the budding and the falling leaf!

O short-breathed music, dying on the tongue
Ere half the mystic canticle be sung!
Who, if 'twere his to choose, would know again

The bitter sweetness of the lost refrain,
Its rapture and its pain?

Though I be shut in darkness and become
Insentient dust blown idly here and there,
I hold oblivion a scant price to pay
For having once had held against my lip
Life's brimming cup of hydromel and rue
For having once drawn woman's holy love
And a child's kiss, and for a little space
Been boon companion to the Day and Night,
Fed on the odors of the Summer dawn,
And folded in the beauty of the stars.

Dear Lord, though I be changed to senseless clay,
And serve the potter as he turns his wheel,
I thank thee for the gracious gift of tears!

—Thomas Bailey Aldrich.

The June Designer.

We note with interest the appearance in the June Designer of stories by Anne O'Hagen and Isabel Gordon Curtis, while the continued sketch, "Economy Farm," by Miles Bradford, the author of "Carlotta and I," still amuses and instructs the young farmer and interests all who know either more or less than he about farming.

But The Designer never forgets its purpose of being a magazine of practical use about the house both for the women and men of the family. It makes no strain after either facts or fiction aimed to startle its readers, but with conservative enterprise, constantly offers articles of everyday use in running the house and the family, and in improving the present condition of both.

Many of the summer frocks pictured and described are graceful and pretty beyond the average. The "Graduation Gowns" are seasonable and have the unusual quality of being simple as well as pretty.

Mary Kilsyth, a regular contributor to The Designer, has a timely article on the "Verandas of the Day." It helps in a very good work—that of making people who have country houses realize how much comfort and room they are doing without when they have no adequate verandas to step out upon.

The Designer for June has endless suggestions that one might begin by using today.

5000 Facts About Canada.

"Worth its weight in Yukon gold or Cobalt silver" is the claim made for a booklet with the above title, just off the press. In the briefest form a mass of the most interesting data regarding everything Canadian has been collected and arranged by Mr. Frank Yeigh of Toronto, who is specially qualified for the task because of his knowledge and study of things Canadian. Under alphabetical heads, such as Area, Agriculture, Banking, Forestry, Manufacturers, etc., down to the West and the Yukon, the material is readily gotten at, the contents as a whole coming as a surprise even to a well versed Canadian as to the resources and products of the Dominion. The booklet is sold for 25c. and is published by the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 667 Spadina Avenue, Toronto.

Short Cut to Millenium.

(From the Providence Tribune.)

In a message to the legislature, Gov. Broward of Florida has recommended a resolution memorializing the congress of the United States to acquire territory, either domestic or foreign, and having purchased the property of the negroes at reasonable prices, to transport them to this territory, organize a government for them and protect them from foreign invasion.

Long ago this idea began to show signs of wear and tear, but despite its age and the many controversies that have been waged over it, there is reason to believe that it has never been carried far enough; even theoretically, its possibilities have by no means been fully developed.

A Song for To-Day.

Bring my fur-lined coat and mittens
When you wake me on that day,
For I'm to be Queen of the May, mother,
I'm to be Queen of the May.
Have a bowl of something hot, dear,
And a mustard bath, I pray,
It's the coldest job I know, mother,
Being the Queen of the May.

Quickly Supplied.

There have been many strange things in English history. One of the most curious was recently mentioned by a little schoolgirl. "The hydra," said this much informed young person, "was married to Henry the Eighth. When he cut her head off, another one sprang right up."

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A Revised Edition.

(Lippincott's Magazine.)

A small citizen of Springfield, Mass., made out a list of the things he hoped to receive for his approaching birthday, and this is what his fond mamma found recorded as the first item of all:

"A new testament, reversed virgin!"

The builders of the transcontinental railway at Kenora are complaining that whiskey and dynamite do not go well together in railway work, and are going to ask the government to prohibit the whiskey. Naturally the saloon keepers are more anxious over the prospects of losing the market for their whiskey than the stopping of the long list of damage, injury and death inevitable where the combination exists.

TORTURING RHEUMATISM.

Suffered for Five Years—Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Agonizing pains, sometimes in one part of the body, sometimes in another, more often in the back or joints—that's rheumatism. Do not delay in finding a cure. Each day makes the disease worse—increases the torture. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured thousands. They cured Mr. Horace Plante, of Sorel, Que., of a most aggravated case of rheumatism. What they did for Mr. Plante they can do for you. He says: "I was seized with rheumatism. I walked as if my boots were filled with pebbles. The pains, starting in my feet, spread to all parts of the body; my back and joints became affected. For upwards of five years I suffered the greatest agony. Often I was confined to bed, hardly able to move. Nothing seemed to help me. I despaired of ever being well again. By good chance Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to my attention and I decided to try them. I got six boxes—before they were gone I felt a great improvement. I continued the treatment and my health gradually came back till now I do not feel the least pain—I am totally cured. It was a surprise to my friends to see me on the street again well and strong after five years of torture. They wanted to know what brought on the change. I told them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I took no other medicine once I began their use. Rheumatic sufferers give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, they will surely do for you what they did for me."

It is in the blood—poor blood—that such troubles as rheumatism, indigestion, dizziness, heart palpitation, anaemia, weakness and a host of other diseases find their root. It is the blood that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act on. They make it pure, rich, red and health-giving. That is why they cure all the common ailments of everyday life. Sold by druggists or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
