

DELIBERATE CASE OF GRAVE-ROBBING.

Remarkable Experience Of Well-known Forest Citizen Vouched For By Baptist Minister And Local Druggist.

(From Forest Free Press.)

Forest, May 2nd, 1907.—The following facts, vouched for by Rev. C. E. Burrell, Baptist Minister, and Ralph E. Scott, the well-known local druggist, is incontrovertible evidence that even when physicians have abandoned hope, there is still a way whereby the grave may be cheated of its prey.

John A. Galbraith is a well-to-do farmer, living in Plympton Township, about five miles from forest. He is 5 feet 9 inches in height, and about 46 years of age. He enjoyed good health until early in 1906, when he had a severe attack of pleuropneumonia, which apparently broke up his whole system. In speaking of the case to the Forest Free Press, he said:—

"I did not seem able to gain any strength after the attack of pneumonia. One doctor said that tuberculosis had developed, that I could not recover, and advised me to settle all my affairs as quickly as possible. This was the condition I was in when my pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrell, of the Baptist Church, advised me to try Psychine, and procured for me a trial bottle. This was in May, 1906, and at that time I was reduced in weight to 120 pounds. The psychine seemed to do good from the start, and I continued until I had used about $15 worth from Scott's Drug Store, Forest. I gained in weight at the rate of half a pound until I went up to 150 pounds, steadily regaining my strength and feeling better. I actually had to have my clothes enlarged, not through any corpulency but owing to a putting on of good solid flesh all over. I have resumed my work and have gone through this severe and sickly winter with nothing worse than an attack of grip, which my system was able to throw off without any serious results. "I give this statement for the purpose of showing how Psychine has probably saved my life, and in the hope that others may be likewise benefited by its use.

"J. A. GALBRAITH."

"Mr. J. A. Galbraith is a prominent member of my church, trusted by his neighbors and highly respected throughout the entire community. His case has attracted very considerable attention. His was a pitiable case, indeed; in the prime of life and with the brightest of prospects to be suddenly stricken down in the midst of it all. Visiting him after his physicians had pronounced his case hopeless (and, indeed, set the date at about which he would likely pass away), and observing pretty closely his condition it occurred to me that Psychine, which I had used in my own family with wonderful results, might benefit him. I strongly recommended it to him, and he began its use. The result was truly wonderful. Almost immediately he began to improve and soon was able to be out again. He apparently regained his old health and was able to take up once again his old duties on his large farm and to perform them with comparative ease and comfort. The improvement was permanent, and he is to-day apparently just as well as ever. He gives all the credit for his recovery, under God, to Psychine.

"C. E. BURRELL,
"Baptist Pastor."

"I have read the statements made by Mr. J. A. Galbraith and Rev. C. E. Burrell regarding the results of the use of Psychine. I know both gentlemen personally and can heartily endorse all that they have said. Mr. Galbraith obtained his supply of Psychine at my drug store, saying from time to time that it had done him good. I took an interest in his case, and noted a steady improvement. Altogether I sold him about $15.00 worth. Psychine is having a big run here, and so far as I know is always used with beneficial results.

Give the Poor Plumber His Rights.

Bobbygeon Independent:—The plumbers of Toronto are out on strike. They are only getting between nine and eleven hundred dollars a year. It is ridiculous to think of a plumber working for such a miserable pittance as a thousand a year. And it has been proven that the employers have a combination that can hold up the public for whatever they care to name. It is little wonder that the plumbers want a new division of the plunder.

The philanthropic Fifth avenue lady was visiting a lower East End school. To test the aptness of a particularly indigent cluster of pupils she took the class in hand to question them.

"Children, which is the greatest of all virtues?"

No one answered.

"Think a little. What is it I am doing when I gave up time and pleasure to come down among you for your moral good?"

A grimy fist went up.

"Well, what am I doing, little boy?"

"Buttin' in."—Life.

Sir Charles Dilke, whose knowledge of European politics gives his views weight, says the world is going to enjoy peace for many years to come. "He has no patience with the German scare. Neither does he believe the Kaiser wishes to make war on England. He does not deny the excellence of the German navy, but he contends that it could not measure itself against that of England, and points out that in view of the enormous burden of her army she cannot increase her fleet to the efficiency of the English navy.

A RETROSPECT.

Let me today do something that shall take
A little sadness from the world's vast store,
And may I be so favored as to make
Of joy's too scanty sum a little more.

Let me not hurt by any selfish deed
Or thoughtless word the heart of foe or friend.
Nor would I pass unseeing worthy need,
Or sin by silence when I should defend.

However meagre be my worldly wealth,
Let me give something that shall aid my kind—
A word of courage or a thought of health,
Dropped as I pass for troubled hearts to find.

Let me tonight look back across the span,
Twixt dawn and dark, and to my conscience say—
Because of some good act to boast or man,
"The world is better that I lived today."

Plan of an Outlet from the Vatican to the Seacoast.

The Hon. Richard C. Kerens, of St. Louis who arrived from Europe on May first, is reported as telling of a very interesting movement on foot in Italy.

Its object is to purchase a narrow strip of land, sixty-five miles long running from the Vatican Gardens to the Mediterranean Coast at Civita Vecchia, and to enclose and beautify it and present it to the Pope as an addition to his present very limited temporal domain.

The mere purchase of this land would not give it the status of the Vatican Gardens. It would still remain under the jurisdiction of the Italian Government as private ownership does not give altum dominium.

If the purpose be to procure an outlet and an inlet to the Vatican without going through Italian territory it would be necessary for the Italian Government to cede the land to the Pope. Is their any likelihood of that government doing this? If there were the two hundred and fifty million Catholics would soon supply the purchase money, which is said to be $1,000,000. But why to Civita Vecchia instead of along the north bank of the Tiber to Ostia, which is only sixteen miles from Rome? True, the former is a better and more used port of entry, but it is three times the distance from Rome.—Freeman's Journal.

How to Make a Lawn.

A good lawn may be made either by laying sod or sowing seed. If turf is used, the lawn is sometimes ready for use in less time than when seed is used, but practically the difference is very slight. Fewer lawns are made from turf every year. The turf or soil is nearly always obtained from a near-by field; it abounds in coarse grasses and pernicious weeds. The former may be got rid of after considerable trouble, but the latter rarely ever. Sodlaid lawns are nearly always uneven, seamy and varied in color and texture. Their cost, too, is much in excess of seeding the lawn down.

A lawn produced from a mixture of good, new, re-cleaned seeds of the finer grasses and clovers is superior in quality and texture to the best sod obtainable. To obtain the best results from sowing, the ground should be carefully dug over—not too deep, six to eight inches will be enough—and nicely leveled off; then sow on broadcast a good fertilizer, 600 pounds to the acre, or about ten pounds to every 15x15 feet; rake this in and roll it or flatten it with the back of a spade; then sow seventy pounds of some good lawn seed to the acre, or one pound to every 15x15 feet. Sow half this quantity walking one way, and half walking at right angles to it, so as to get even distribution. Do not sow in windy weather, and be sure to rake the seed in, and after sowing roll it well or beat it flat with the spade.

Those seeds that are deeply buried will not germinate, and those that are exposed will be scorched by the sun, blown or washed away, or taken by the birds. Whenever necessary to sow in summer, it is better to mix with rye or oats to protect the tender shoots from the hot sun.—[Suburban Life.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the RESULT of your ailment, and not THE CAUSE. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitable have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Because Miss Lillian Amath, a teacher in the Voorhees, Iowa public school, whipped William M. Albright, a farmer who sought the righting of an alleged wrong, she was given a raise in salary from $30 to $40 a month and a diamond ring valued at $100 by citizens of the town. Albright, it is said, did not like the treatment accorded his son, and came to the school with the lad to see about it. At the threshold he was stopped by the teacher, who asked him his business, and when he attempted to brush by her side seized a poker and began using it over his head and shoulders. Albright beat a hasty retreat. When the School Board heard the story it promptly raised the young lady's salary.

PALE AS A CORPSE.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS BROUGHT BACK THE RUDDY GLOW OF HEALTH.

Thousands of young growing girls have pale, pasty complexions; distressing headaches, backaches and sideaches. Sometimes they are unable to sleep; their nerves are unstrung; they are languid; breathless and the heart palpitates violently at the least exertion—that's anaemia—and it may develop into consumption unless promptly attended to. Anaemia means bloodlessness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make pure, red blood—that's the secret of their success. Miss Winnie Allen, Montreal, Que., says:—"I was so weak and run down that my friends thought I was going into consumption. I was as pale as a corpse, had no appetite and did not sleep well. The least exertion tired me out and if I walked a few blocks I was almost breathless. My sister advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after using them for a few weeks I am again enjoying good health and have a good colour. I think every weak, sickly girl should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich blood and in this way strike right at the root of such troubles as anaemia, indigestion, rheumatism, St. Vitus dance, the secret ills of girlhood and womanhood and a host of other every day troubles and cure them. But you must get the genuine with the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People on the wrapper around every box—imitations never cure any one and sometimes they do much harm. If your dealer does not keep the genuine Pills they will be sent at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE BEDTIME TROOP.

A scurry of feet on the bedroom stair,
A titter along the hall—
And this is the charge of the night brigade
To capture me heart and all.
And there is the Captain, Sleepy Eyes,
And there is Lieutenant Dream,
While only the arms of love are theirs
As into my heart they stream.
A low, little laugh as they form in line,
Robed in their slumber gowns—
No armour rude with its harsh intrude,
No helmets that clank and frown;
They come for the hug and good-night kiss,
And unto my heart they bring
The song of the bedtime troops of love,
With its old, ineffable ring.
