O. on eighteen companions who have filed a petition for a charter to establish a Council of Royal & Select Masters in Woodstock.

After the above ceremonies an hour or more was pleasantly spent at The Royal Cafe where after partaking of refreshments, a very entertaining though impromptu programme was called out.

Born at Last.

For the last six or eight months Queen Victoria of Spain has been thinking seriously of having a baby, and the newspapers have been crying aloud about it till the subject has become very tiresome.

We beg leave to announce that the affair happened last Friday accompanied with great ceremony. It is a boy. We sincerely trust he will grow up to be a healthy young man and a credit to his parents. It is to be hoped that the King and Queen of Spain will in the future keep these little matters more to themselves.

Chapman Concert.

Next Friday night at Graham's Opera House at eight o'clock Hans Kronold, the famous and favorite violin-cellist of New York will play his soulful instrument. No cellist in this country can excel Kronold in his marvellous technique and soulful expression. He ranks today with the great masters of the world, and it will indeed be a treat to hear him play. Miss Aline Glass has a contralto voice of exceptional beauty. She spent the winter in New York where she gained much praise of her beautiful singing. Mr. Thomas Henderson is well known in Maine and his delightful songs have charmed his audiences. He will sing ballads and popular favorites which will please the most highly cultured ear, as well as appeal to the listener who "does not know music," but likes a good thing. Mr. Chapman as everybody knows is a wizard in music whether at the piano or holding his stick over orchestra and chorus. As he will personally accompany these artists the musical excellence of the programme is assured. No one can afford to miss this musical evening brought to our town within our reach at popular prices. Let everybody buy at least one ticket, and all go and enjoy this great musical treat.—ad.

The Raft Went Aground

A military man from Woodstock was among the visitors to the city on Friday. He made the trip down the river on a raft of logs, which was navigated by two young men from Northampton. The navigators were a trifle new at the business and in trying to steer past Whitehead's Island, 25 miles above the city, they ran the raft aground. With darkness coming on the situation looked desperate for a time, but they finally succeeded in capturing a few river logs which, with the aid of some rope they were able to convert into a catamaran. The boarded this craft and set out for shore, but the current was so strong that it carried them down the stream at a four mile clip. A resident of Bear Island saw the predicament of the three voyagers, and went to their rescue in a boat. He provided them with food and shelter at his home, and on the following morning the military man boarded another raft and came on to Springhill and thence to Fredericton. At last accounts the stranded raft had not been floated.—Fredericton Herald.

Annie Loretta Sullivan.

Annie Loretta Sullivan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Sullivan, died on Saturday after a long and painful illness, at the age of 15 years. She was a very bright and capable child and had the qualities that make a most excellent woman. The funeral was held on Monday morning from St. Gertrude's church. The children of Miss Dunn's school, of which the deceased was a member attended. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Wedded at Woburn.

A mother and daughter were wedded within an hour of each other in Woburn Tuesday morning, April 30th. "Miss Bessie Belle Luce, daughter of Mrs. Ella C. Luce, was married at 9 this morning to Herbert S. Dennison. The groom is a prominent local merchant.

The ceremony was performed in presence of a large number of friends of the popular young people in Trinity Episcopal Church, Rev. Frederick W. Beekman, rector, officiating.

The bride was given away by her uncle, George S. Cutler of Keene, N. H. She wore white mousseline trimmed with lace and carried bride roses. Miss Gertrude B. Carter of Winchester, in a gown of tan veil and carrying pink roses, was maid of honor. Benjamin P. Crowell was best man. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Dennison will reside at 2 Spring St.

An hour earlier than that set for the daughter's wedding, the mother of the young bride, Mrs. Ella C. Luce, daughter of the late Charles W. Nute, became the wife of Henry F. Davis, the latter for several years identified with the manufacture of leather-making machinery.—Woburn, Mass., Globe.

Middlemore Children

Mr. Henry B. Rainsford, of Fredericton, writes to the Fredericton Herald as follows:—"On Tuesday last I received a letter from Mr. Jackson, manager of the Middlemore Home for children, Birmingham England, saying, 'We leave for Canada on 11th of May and hope to reach Fredericton with a party of boys and girls on Friday, 24th in the evening.'

He also wrote that he would bring with him six young men, ages running from fifteen to seventeen years, who were anxious to come to Canada and make a way for themselves. These young men are well educated and will come provided with a good kit and will not expect very heavy wages for the first year. They do not come from the Home, but merely come under the care and guidance of Mr. Jackson.

He is not bringing out any girls outside of the children from the Home. You were in error in so stating in yesterday's issue.

Any one wishing to procure one of the young men will please communicate with me."

Farewell to Harold Garden

Last Thursday night some of the friends of Harold Garden invited him to be their guest at a supper at the Cafe Royal where they presented him with a travelling bag and the following address:—

"We, the undersigned, who have been your schoolmates and companions since early boyhood; take this occasion of expressing our regret that you are about to leave Woodstock. The tendency of the day is to go West and we have no doubt you will find the change to your advantage. We hope you will, and at the same time wish to repeat that we are very sorry you are leaving us, and that you will be greatly missed by us all.

We wish you once more all success in the new life in which you are about to enter, and trust that while you may make many new friends you will not forget the boys in old Woodstock.

Please accept this slight testimonial which we trust you may find a useful reminder of the days of your boyhood amongst us."

Monster Band Competition

Some weeks ago the 67th Regt. Band mailed a circular letter to some thirty or more bands in the maritime provinces and Maine asking them what they thought of the idea of coming to Woodstock during the summer to take part in a band competition for substantial prizes. To this circular fifteen bands have replied expressing a hearty interest in the idea and asking for further particulars. The band then sent out a second circular stating that if the competition were held it would be for two days, August 1st and 2nd; that the prizes would be as follows: For first class bands consisting of 24 men or over, 1st prize $300.00 and second prize $200.00. For second class bands of less than 24 men, 1st prize $200.00 and 2nd prize $100.00. On the strength of this circular the 63rd Regt. Band of Halifax and the Charlottetown Band have expressed a desire to come and want full particulars in reference to rates etc.

Allowing a safe margin for those who will back out the 67th Band believe that they can safely count of from eight to ten bands who will be sure to come if the plan can be carried out. They believe it will bring the biggest crowd to Woodstock that the town has ever had for any former event and the plan will be a decided novelty for this part of Canada. A number of the citizens met at the Council room on Monday evening to discuss the matter and a telegram has been received from the C. P. R. Passenger Agent in St. John stating that he will be here this week to arrange for cheap rates.

Committees have been appointed with his Worship the Mayor as Chairman to take the matter in hand and from now on it is going to boom. This promises to be the only attraction to be held here during the present season and it is hoped that every one will take hold and help it along. The expenses are estimated at $1000, and as pretty nearly that amount was subscribed by the citizens for the last carnival the soliciting committee hope in this case to come pretty near making up the required amount.

The Tennis Club.

The annual meeting of the Tennis Club which met in the office of E. K. Connell last Wednesday evening, was largely attended. The dues were placed at—Gentlemen $3, ladies $1, and all dues to be paid by May 24th.

The following officers were elected and committees appointed:—

Loggie Ross, president; Frank Ruggles, vice president; E. K. Connell, secretary treasurer. These gentlemen form the executive committee with Miss Marion Dibblee, Miss Jessie Davis and Miss Trixy Aughterton.

Ground committee—Messrs Raymond Gabel, V. B. Lingley, Misses Marguerite Lamb and Madeline Connell.

Tournament committee—Messrs, Claud Aughterton, Arthur Slipp, Misses Mary Wright and Marguerite Dibblee.

The three courts were prepared on the Friday following the meeting and are now marked and ready for players.

Politicians and the Senate.

(From the Canadian Courier.)

The politicians on both sides of politics love the Senate. They do not see how they can keep house without it. It is the only "rotten borough" they have left. It is the only "safe constituency." Even East Toronto has been known to turn down the Tory candidate, and Oxford has rejected a Grit. But the party in power can always elect its candidate to the Senate. The party out of power does not think of running one, but it waits patiently until its turn in power comes, and then it will begin to manufacture Senators. The people may reject a tool of the Government but it has no need to worry—the Government will put him in the Tool House. A rich man may want to buy his way into parliament, but may fear that the jaw will catch him if he tries to accomplish his purpose by buying votes. Still he need not despair. A few good subscriptions to the party funds; and he joins the Millionaire Club. A leader lags superfluous on the stage. He is carried by a form of political euthanasia to the Vaulted Chamber. A faithful party servant in the Commons clamours for promotion. He lacks the training to be made a judge; he is not fit to be Lieutenant-Governor anywhere; he dislikes work too much to take a customs' collectorship. So he is translated to the Senate. It is the escape pipe of the political boiler; and the people might as well make up their minds to pay for it until the end of time.

MARRIED.

WELCH-EDWARDS.—At the residence of T. H. Edwards, Esq., Meductic, May 13th, by Rev. J. H. Coy, Mr. Robert S. Welch and Miss Berdie E. Edwards, both of Woodstock.
