Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation. The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Fruits, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest positive power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying. No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box. For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of Household Hints.

Useful hints to housekeepers are the following: To clean a clock lay in the bottom a rag saturated with kerosene oil. The fumes will loosen the dirt, and it will drop out. In a few days remove and place another saturated rag in the clock, the fumes of which will lubricate the works.

A small, stiff brush should be used for cleaning all vegetables that grow under ground. It will remove the dirt which often stains the hands.

Another useful brush for use in the kitchen is a small soft varnish one for brushing biscuits, bread, rolls, and pastry shells with melted butter.

Fresh green vegetables will retain their bright color best if soaked uncovered. The steam confined beneath the cover of the kettle deadens any fresh coloring.

Spinach will be much improved in color if it is quickly boiled in salted water until nearly tender, then drained and dropped into cold water until chilled. It should then be thoroughly drained, after which it is ready for use.

Never use a whole egg to clear your coffee. If it is properly made from cold water, and allowed to stand a few moments after it boils it is sufficiently cleared without egg. Some housekeepers, however, think that egg gives richness to the coffee.

The finest white French china, with a narrow gold border and a gold crest or monogram at one side, is the newest and best style.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by All Dealers.

The First Air-Brake Trial.

(From "Everybody's Magazine.")

The air-brake was ushered into actual use in most dramatic fashion. The trial trip occurred in April, 1869. The train selected was the Steubenville accommodation, running between Pittsburg and Steubenville, O. When the train was going at full speed, suddenly as he came around a sharp curve the engineer saw a stalled wagon in the middle of the track dead ahead. With hand brakes only nothing could have prevented a terrible smash-up. The formal time for the trial of the air-brake had not come, but the brake was there, and in desperation, not believing for a moment that the thing could possibly avail, the engineer threw on the air. But it did avail. The observers in the rear were almost catapulted out of their seats by the shock of the sudden stop. But when they saw the engine fairly poking its nose into the wagon-bed, so narrow had been the margin between safety and disaster, they forgot all about their shock and stood in awed silence. The air-brake had come into its own.

Call at our store, please, for a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee." If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart, or Kidneys, then try this "Clever Coffee" imitation. While Dr. Shoop has very closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet he has not even a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. You will surely like Health Coffee. Sold by All Dealers.

Cigars That Cost $4 To $5.

A prominent tobacco importer of this city was asked the other day whether there was anything extraordinary in the gift of $2.65 cigars sent to King Edward VII. by Baron Rothschild. The baron it appears, is accustomed to send to the British ruler a box of these expensive "smokes" once in every year.

"That's not a record price by any means," replied the importer.

He produced a box of enormous cigars, rich brown in color, with fancy red bands around them. These, he said retailed for $4 apiece.

"You can get them as high as $5," he added. "Look at the Havana price list, here. You see this one? It costs wholesale, without duty, $1.50. The duty is somewhere in the neighborhood of 80 per cent. The cigar, when we get it, will sell for $4. Our profit, therefore, will be more than 30 per cent. However, we don't have enough demand for such cigars to make a fortune on them.

"The only time anybody buys such a thing is when he wishes to give it away or to use it for some specially elaborate dinner. For instance, the other day, a Wall Street speculator had a birthday, and several of his friends came to me and bought these $4 cigars to send to him. Each friend bought only one. We wrapped up the cigars in fancy paper and put them in ornate, gilt lettered boxes for shipment to the speculator. I remember, too a dinner given by a broker, at which a dozen of the cigars were distributed by the host.

"The guests at that dinner were in hard luck. I know, for I saw the effects of a $4 smoke on one of my friends. I gave him one of the cigars and watched him burn it up. The feat required about two hours, and when he was through, he told me he felt like a wreck. He said he'd stop smoking altogether if he had to use that sort of a cigar regularly. No, it wasn't the strength—the high priced ones usually are rather mild; it was the time consumed in continuously puffing away at the thing. Ordinarily even the most inveterate smoker takes a rest between cigars. In this case there was no chance of stopping, unless he wished to miss part of the treat."

The $4 cigar is about eight or nine inches long and proportionately bulky. According to the dealer, its value depends principally upon the length of the tobacco leaf from which it has been rolled.

"Of course," he said, "the tobacco is of the best quality, but quality in small leaves is plentiful. The difficulty is to find a leaf of the size required and of the proper quality at the same time. I should say that the leaf for this cigar measured about two feet.

"All the finest cigars come from Cuba. We could get long leaves up in Connecticut, but they wouldn't be good enough. I've no doubt that there is much tobacco of big sizes in the East Indies, but there is no country that rivals Cuba in the quality of its tobacco crop. Undoubtedly the Rothschild gift to King Edward came from there."

Incidentally he told of high-priced cigarettes. The most costly, he explained, was a domestic variety that sold for $200 a thousand, or ten cents apiece. There was no imported cigarette costing so much, he said.

"The $200-a-thousand sort," he explained, "does not bring that price because of intrinsic quality, but largely because of the fancy box in which they are packed. They are larger in size than the average, but not even an expert could detect a superiority in quality over many a cigarette costing less than half as much."

Not Satisfactory.

A party of tourists were visiting the ancient landmarks of England, according to a writer in the New Orleans Times-Democrat, and their guide was supplying them with valuable historic facts.

"This tower," he remarked, "goes back to William the Conqueror."

"Why, what's the matter?" inquired one of his listeners. "Isn't it satisfactory?"

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all dealers.

William S. Gilbert's punctiousness in the matter of good English is well known. The famous composer was one day standing out club where he was met by a man who said:

"I beg your pardon, sir, but do you know a gentleman, a member of this club with one eye called Matthew?"

"I can't say I do," responded Mr. Gilbert. "What is the name of his other eye?"—Argonaut.

A FOOD AND A TONIC

What the leading Medical Journal of the world has to say about FERROL.

After making a thorough test of FERROL in its own laboratory the London (England) Lancet published an article from which the following is taken:

F E R R O L

"This is a successful combination of the well-known valuable remedies, Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus. The formula is no secret, and our analysis showed the presence and amount of constituents as described. The preparation is a good one and of distinct therapeutic value. The association of an easily assimilable oil, in a fine state of division, with a phosphatic salt of iron which does not disturb the digestive functions and which is easily tolerated, determines its success as a food and tonic in wasting diseases."

What the London Lancet recommends as a food and a tonic in all wasting diseases must have very special qualities.

No higher endorsement is possible. The results following the use of FERROL for the past ten years have proved that this endorsement is well deserved.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed by the best Physicians. It is endorsed by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in prominent Hospitals, Sanitariums, etc.
