Knoxford.

At the Wednesday evening prayer meeting in the United Baptist church in Lower Knoxford on April 17th, a large number were present and a most helpful prayer and social service was enjoyed. The church certainly seems to have had new life imparted to it in a degree it has not had in years before, and the very evidently changed lives testify to the power of Christ to save lost men. At the close of the service, the senior deacon, James Gallupe, was asked to accept as a small token of the respect and esteem of his fellow members, a nicely bound bible and a sum of money which were accompanied by an appreciative address read by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Bonnell. Mr. Gallupe, with his wife and daughter Florence, leave very shortly to reside in Iron River, Mich. He will be much missed in church circles. His wife is a very capable nurse and her place will be hard to fill.

Miss Lulu Cronkhite has been re-engaged to teach our school the ensuing term at a substantial advance in salary.

Fred Williams has invested in a gasoline engine as a cheaper motive power on his farm than horses.

Considerable stir potato-ward may be poticed; loads of fertilizer, a stray planter he had to suffer for it the next day. He has now and then, discussions and decisions about amount to be planted.

The grippe is visiting at Charles Margison. They will be glad when it bids adieu. George Thomas and son Harley have been quite ill; also Mr. Thomas's daughter Nellie. Mrs. Perry Nelson, who with her family removed to Presque Isle last week, took a heavy cold en route and is now very ill with pneumonia. Her sister Evelyn has gone to her relief.

Four other members of Mr. Thomas' family left for B. C. on April 10th. His son Charles with his two motherless children, and his daughter Maud, Mrs. Clifford Weade, who rejoins her husband at their home in Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lockhart are quite feeble this spring. Mr. Lockhart has had several severe attacks of illness in the past few years which have greatly reduced his strength.

Mrs. James Cain, an old and respected resident of Upper Knoxford, died on Tuesday morning after about two months' illness of paralysis. She is mourned by two sons and three daughters, twelve grand-children and two great-grand-children. The children are Theodore, at home, Samuel P. in Montana; Mrs. Evelyn Carlisle, Mrs. M. J. Cronkhite and Mrs. Wm. McGrath, a step-daughter. Mrs. Cain was a very kind and motherly woman, a good neighbor and a devoted mother to her orphan children; her husband died when they were young. Mrs. Cain had suffered from heart trouble for years before the attack of paralysis and was lovingly cared for in her home, especially by her grand-daughter, Rilla, who was unremitting in her attention. Mrs. Cain's daughter, Mrs. Cronkhite, a trained nurse from Boston, came home to assist in caring for her the last weeks of her life. The funeral sermon was preached at the home by the Rev. Mr. Dunham, rector of Centreville and was very helpful. The remains were interred at Centreville.

Alcohol Injurious

Is alcohol of use to mountain climbers? At a recent meeting in Berne of the Swiss Alpine Club Dr. Schnyder gave the results of some inquiries he had made. He consulted a number of climbers, and found that 72 per cent of them always take wine or liquor along on the tour. The guides do the same. Yet there is a consensus of opinion that alcoholic drinks are an impediment to climbing and should never be taken before the summit is attained, except in cases of great depression or sudden sickness. The effect of alcohol on brain workers has lately been tested by a similar method by a Dutch alienist, Dr. van Vieuten, who addressed his questions to 150 German men of letters, as by an association of Swedish students, who sought the opinions of artists as well writers. In both inquiries the majority pronounced the effect of alcoholic drink to be detrimental to inspiration. Auguste Rodin wrote: Alcohol is not for artists. Those who seek their inspiration in it are, like their works, doomed to early oblivion." Gustav Frenssen said: A thimbleful of alcohol suffices to weaken my faculties." Bjornstjerne Bjornson confessed that if he drank only a glass more than his usual amount with his dinner, always discarded literary sketches made under the stimulus of wine, having found them unnatural or morbid.

It is estimated in Detroit that the habit people have of throwing paper on the streets costs that city ten thousand dollars a year.

The rumor is persistent that Hon. A. S. White will be the seventh judge on the Supreme Court bench of the province. Under the new judicature act, an additional judge will be appointed to the New Brunswick bench, and Mr. White will probably be selected to fill the important position. Mr. White has had a long and successful career as a member of the bar and stands high in his profession. The appointment will be made in about a month.—Sussex Record.

If college life did nothing else but to show the student that there is something better in life than mere money making, than the pursuit of a sordid aim and piling up of dollars, it would justify its existence a thousand times over.

WILLIAM DOREY, general chairman of the maintenance of way men of the C. P. R., has just returned from Winnipeg where with John T.
