

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., APRIL 3, 1907.

Lansdowne.

Thomas Clark of Carlisle, was a visitor in our community the other day.

Sammy Quick is busily engaged marketing his hay and oats. He raised 1500 bushels this year.

Wm. Clark is preparing to build a large barn.

Isaac Pelky wears his hat on one side of his head. It is a boy, the only one of the family.

George Foster has purchased a new horse. J. A. Drake got stormstayed at Avondale during the gale of March 20th.

Mrs. Rockwell of Avondale is visiting at her daughter Mrs. Byron Foster's.

Miss Ethel Foster of Lowell is visiting her parents.

Bedell.

With the warm sun and mild weather the snow is disappearing fast.

James W. Montgomery intends building a new house this summer.

Hiram Kirkpatrick died at his home on the 25th, aged 64 years. He leaves a widow and four children, William, of Houlton; Mrs. Everett Atkinson, of Richmond; Edward and Annie at home. He was buried under the auspices of the Orange order.

Miss Pearl Beardsley of Presque Isle, has been visiting friends in this settlement.

Miss Mamie Kirk is spending a few days in Woodstock.

Mrs. John Montgomery, sr., is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. William Montgomery and Miss Jennie Kennedy spent Easter with their sister, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, in Houlton.

VanWart Bros. are getting out lumber for a shed.

John T. Kerrigan, who has been buying potatoes in Woodstock this winter, is home at present.

Miss Mae King of Maple Dale is sewing for Mrs. J. W. Slipp.

John Currie's family is sick with the measles.

Joseph McKeen intends finishing his house this summer.

Robins have been seen.

Union Corner.

Mrs. Thomas McNeerlin and son George, from Maxwell, York County, were at Mrs. George McNeerlin's last Thursday.

All the men have got home from the lumber woods. Aaron Nevers and Greely Hillman came last week.

Jessie Dickinson and Lydia Finnigan have gone to attend the Farmington Normal School.

Earle Barton, who has been at the Farmington Normal School, came home the first of March.

George Carpenter, who is attending the institute at Houlton, is home during Easter holidays.

Sammy Curran, while cutting shingle-bolts in Stevens mill, got his foot badly cut with the saw.

Mrs. George McNeerlin, having a severe attack of asthma, together with kidney trouble and general debility, is very sick at present.

Vernon and Earle Barton were down to Temple, York county last week on a visit.

Mrs. Thomas Lloyd of Haynesville, Me., and Mrs. George Parks of Bridgewater, Me., were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, recently.

Miss Alberta Barton, who has been teaching in Hodgdon, Me., has returned to her home at Cumberland Bay, Queens County.

A number of the people have had the measles but have got around again.

Miss Cora Hillman is visiting at her brother, H. G. Hillman's. The neighbors won't leave her alone, they keep her sewing continually.

Miss Mabel McNeerlin is also kept very busy dressmaking. The women must have dresses.

Canterbury Station.

William Glew, of Woodstock, and Robert Glew, of Lincoln, Me., passed through town on a pleasure trip.

H. N. Grant while driving his horse around the corner of Mr. Fox's mill residence at Skiff Lake the bit of the bridle broke and the horse ran into the snow at the side of the street. The other occupant on the team was Master Knony Grant who jumped escaping injury. The horse was kept well under control; the damage was slight.

There was a fair attendance on Sunday at the services held in the Baptist, Catholic and Episcopal churches.

Allen Hillman shows great skill in handling his spirited horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grant are ill with grip.

C. G. Folkins, M. D., is in attendance.

N. C. Campbell, photographer of Woodstock, has rented Grant's studio on Maine street.

Miss Annie West and Mrs. A. I. Fox were calling on Miss Alma Glew this week.

W. H. Foster spent Sunday in town calling on friends.

The Pokiook and Hawkshaw Dramatic Company presented that beautiful drama, The Last Leaf, in the Orange Hall on the 25th of March. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. Those taking an active part were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allen and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Maxon, Misses Theresa Dann, Lillian Sharp, Mable Sharp, Helen Sharp, Messrs Herb True, Lewis True, Le-Baron Bull and John Sharp. Specialties were worthy of note. Recitation, Miss Lulu True; solo, Miss Mable Sharp; duett by Misses Lillian Sharp and Mable Sharp; Miss Helen Sharp, organist.

Miss Maude Bramer has returned from Boston where she has been spending the winter.

Percy M. Grant of Lincoln, Me. is in town visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Bessie London has returned from Collage, on her vacation.

Mrs. John Price called on her sister Mrs. George Price on Friday.

Miss Stella Carr returned home after an absence of a few months.

Mount Pleasant.

Walter Craig has arrived at Mt. Pleasant and intends to stay for the summer.

Rumor says that Rice Watson is to take up his residence among us.

Meril Rideout has moved to East Coldstream.

Election talk has died away and phosphate and potatoes have taken its place.

The hay press is again at work with Byron Foster in charge.

Several of our citizens took in the Quarterly Meetings of the Primitive Baptists' at Lansdowne on Sunday, March the 24th.

Kilburn.

A large number of people from here took advantage of the cheap fare for Easter holidays and went to different points along the line.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mavor of Lower Kintore entertained a large number of their friends on Wednesday evening last.

Miss Bessie Kilburn is spending her Easter vacation at Jacksonville and Woodstock.

Frank Giberson left on Thursday for his home at Bath. The first of the week he will take part in a very interesting event at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Kilburn took Easter dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stewart.

Miss Nellie Mallory of Perth is visiting her friend Miss Gertrude Kilburn.

Mrs. C. R. Inman is visiting friends in Presque Isle and Caribou.

Andover.

I. R. Cameron, who has been very ill, is slowly improving. Miss Eva Cameron, who was called home on account of her father's illness, returned to Caribou on Thursday last.

Misses Beatrice Welling and Iva Baxter, Messrs John Curry, Paul Porter and Fred Baird spent the Easter holidays at home here.

Mrs Harry Tibbits was visiting friends at St. Elmo last week.

On Thursday evening the school team and the town girls team went to Florenceville and played basket ball with corresponding teams from that place, and were victorious, the Andover girls winning with a score of 31, and the boys, 7-10. After the game a pleasant time was spent at an informal reception, chaperoned by Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Anderson. Several young ladies and gentlemen accompanied the players and all speak in high praise of their entertainment by the Florenceville people.

Miss Bessie Curry came home on Friday for the Easter vacation and returned to her school on Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Ward, Fredericton, spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. Lawson. Miss Bessie Lawson also spent Sunday with her mother.

Miss Sara Tibbits came home on Saturday from a pleasant visit with Mrs. Wesley Vanwart, Fredericton.

Harold Perley, who has been in the west for a number of years, is at home for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perley.

G. R. Burt, Hartland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Carter.

Rev. Arthur Ross, McAdam, held service in Presbyterian church on Easter evening. The church was prettily decorated with plants and cut flowers and special music was furnished.

Robert Ross, St. Stephen, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Robert Wiley returned last Thursday from a visit at St. John.

The Messrs Curry gave a pleasant whist party at their home on Monday evening.

Several of our young people attended the Easter Ball at Woodstock on Monday evening. Among them were, Misses Ethel Armstrong, Florence Porter, Mildred Armstrong, Lillian Stewart and Messrs Cecil Merritt, Harry Hopkins, Guy Porter, Herman Turner.

Guy McAdam, principal of the Grammar

School, spent Easter at his home in Woodstock.

Frank McCollum spent Easter at his home in Hartland.

Centreville.

The funeral of Everett Harold was held on Tuesday March 26th and was largely attended. He was buried under the rites of the Masonic Order of which he was a member of long standing. A procession of the order was formed at H. J. Clark's hall and under the direction of Col. Hartley marched to the church where they were met by the funeral procession. At the grave the services were performed by Dr. Ross and were most impressive. Much credit is due both Col. Hartley and Dr. Ross for the efficient manner in which their several services were performed.

The funeral service of Mrs. Elijah Gray were conducted by the Rev. Wm. Bonnell at the house on Wednesday assisted by the Rev. Mr. Cosman. The burial took place the next day at Pembroke, her remains being placed beside those of her husband in the cemetery at that place.

There is a good deal of sickness in this place and the surrounding community, colds or gripe being the prevailing diseases.

A number of the teachers and Normal School students were home for the Easter holidays.

Those who have followed the proceedings of the celebrated Thaw trial are now fully convinced that at the time of the shooting he was insane else he would have engaged White in a game of Hockey, as killing in Hockey games are not considered a crime. Or he might have induced White to enter the prize ring as principal or second and have killed him with impunity.

The assessors are in the village today and have entered upon their arduous duties.

Central Southampton.

Rev. A. Rutledge assisted by Rev. J. Gravinor and Mr. Hamilton held an Easter service in the United Baptist church Sunday morning. Special music was prepared by the Sunday school. After the service G. A. Grant read a farewell letter from the church and Sunday school to the family of Rainsford Way who are moving to Michigan.

Rev. A. Rutledge baptized three converts for Mr. Valace at River View Sunday afternoon.

A large number from this place attended the baptism at River View Sunday afternoon. Mr. Hamilton has moved in the William Clark house.

Mr. Hall has moved his family to Campbell Settlement.

Ansel Draper of Campbell Settlement has sold his property at Campbell Settlement to Adolphus Bates.

Guy Farnham has gone to Worcester to secure a position.

Mr. Nason has gone to his home at Fredericton Junction to spend the Easter holidays.

Miss Lily Grant of the private hospital, Fredericton, spent Easter here.

Albert Patterson, of Woodstock, spent Sunday here.

Inspector Brown spent Easter at his home. He will spend this month visiting the schools in Fredericton.

Mrs. Bishop of Hopewell Cape, Albert county, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. N. W. Brown, left for her home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Farnham were the guests of Mrs. Richard Dore Friday.

John Dore, who has been very sick, is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Patterson had a wood-splitting Saturday afternoon, and a party in the evening. All enjoyed it very much.

Pembroke.

Mrs. William Hale spent Easter with her daughter, Mrs. Warren Bull, Northampton.

Miss Bessie Phillips of the Normal School, returned from Fredericton last week and spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Phillips.

George Sharp's little child has been very sick but is slowly recovering.

Whitfield Shaw has been sick for some weeks. His many friends are glad to hear he is recovering under the skilful attendance

—THE—

NEW DRY GOODS STORE
IN THE PAYSON BLOCK,
CORNER MAIN AND CONNELL STS.

Is now open for inspection and the transaction of business.

NEW GOODS ARRIVING DAILY.

A Beautiful Line of White Silk
Waists for the Easter Trade.

Also, Long Silk Gloves in White and Black.

Any customer holding checks for premiums of the firm of McManus Bros. can have them redeemed and continued by trading at this store.

JAS. S. McMANUS.

of Dr. Rankin.

Warren Sharp and Myles Sharp left for Vancouver, B. C. last week.

Doras Sharp of the University of New Brunswick, spent Easter with his mother, Mrs. Charles Sharp. He preached in the United Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Brooks is holding revival services in the Primitive Baptist church.

Bristol.

Mrs. Samuel Giberson is very seriously ill. Neil McLean of the bank of New Brunswick, St. John, spent Easter at home.

Fire broke out in Tize Dyer's house on Tuesday night, and was with some difficulty put out. Loss about $100, covered by insurance.

Rev. Mr. Pierce preached in the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, and Rev. Mr. Sterling in the evening. Both were Easter sermons.

Harry Lipsett has bought the Mac Gardiner farm near Waterville and moved there on Monday.

Ambers Giberson went to St. Stephen on Monday last to attend the funeral of his uncle Marshall Giberson, whose death occurred on March 24th. The late Mr. Giberson was well known in this community where he formerly lived.

George Stickney, a well known resident of Fielding, died on Monday morning, aged 64 years. He leaves two sons, Thomas and Samuel, well known lumberman. Mrs. Stickney died only a few months ago.

G. R. Farley spent Sunday in Woodstock.

The Bristol Woodworking Factory commenced work on Monday, having been closed for the past two months.

Florenceville.

The Misses Maddox will hold their Spring Millinery Opening at their millinery room Florenceville, on Monday and Tuesday, April 8th and 9th, with all the latest styles and trimmings.

Meductic.

R. E. Post spent a few days of last week in Fredericton.

Mrs. John Stairs, of Woodstock, is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. S. Marsten.

P. Z. Caverhill spent Easter at his home in Lower Southampton.

H. F. Grosvenor returned from Fredericton on Wednesday.

Fred. K. Marsten, of this place, was married on Tuesday, March 26th, to Miss Bessie Wright, of Middle Southampton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. B. MacDonald.

Percy Bourne, of Woodstock, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the service and baptism at Riverview on Sunday.

The first maple syrup of the season was on sale last week at $1.25 per gallon.

Hartland.

Joe Barnett, who has been teaching at Temperance Vale, spent Easter at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Knox, of Houlton, Me., spent Easter with Mrs. Knox's parents, the Rev. T. S. Vanwart and wife.

Amos Rideout went to Fredericton last week to visit his son, the Rev. A. A. Rideout.

Harold Bowser, of Victoria, who has been attending college at Wolfville, spent a few days at home this week.

Misses Mamie Corey and Sadie Barnett of the Normal School, spent Easter at home.

H. E. Gardiner was laid up with lagrippe two days of last week.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to one candidate on Sunday.

Miss Inez Bradley has been confined to the house by an attack of lagrippe.

Miss Janet McMullin intends enlarging her fruit store this summer.

Percy and Harry Hayward, both of the U. N. B., were the guests of M. L. Hayward on Sunday.

Hartley Boyer and sister spent Easter at home.

Miss Edna Hagerman, of the Fredericton Business College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagerman.

A. McFarlane, of British Columbia, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McFarlane.

Amasa Plummer is repairing one of his houses to rent. It will be occupied by H. E. Gardiner, the barber.

Miss Armstrong is visiting at J. E. McCollom's this week.

For additional correspondence see opposite page.

There is as much difference between good poetry and fine verses, as between the smell of a flower garden and of a perfumer's shop.

RED ROSE
TEA "IS GOOD TEA"

The more particular you are,
The better you will like it

The fine quality of Red Rose is most appreciated by those who are the most particular.

Notice the clear, amber color in the cup and the delightful fragrance when poured from the teapot.

Will you try a package to-day? Ask your grocer to send you one!

SNOW WHITE FLOUR EQUALS

Snow White Bread.

Light Bread.

Most Bread from a Barrel.