

Who said BOVRIL?

"I" said the physician;
"For that run-down condition—"
"I said
Bouiril"

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., MARCH 6, 1907.

Kilburn.

Charles Inman, jr. went to Bath on Friday to work in the C. P. R. station, assisting J. W. Gaines.

Frank Giberson spent Sunday with friends at Bath.

Mr. Jameson of Fort Fairfield is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop of Coronation.

William Matheson of Cabano, passed through here on Sunday, on his way to Kintore, calling on his sister Mrs. Leslie Mavor, and his brother Alex Matheson at Kincardine.

Miss Edith Daggett of Fort Fairfield, was visiting B. L. Daggett and wife last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Broj. Kilburn entertained about forty of the young people on Friday evening; quite a number driving down from Bon Accord. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games and music. Mrs. B. E. Daggett recited a few pieces which were well rendered and gave lots of fun. A song from David Aitken of Kincardine was well received. Refreshments were then served. Mrs. Kilburn was assisted by Mrs. B. L. Daggett, Miss Daggett, Miss Annie McConnell and Miss May Pickett. After luncheon a good old-fashioned sing was enjoyed, Miss Viola Stewart and Miss Kate Bishop presiding at the organ.

Kirkland.

We have had very severe weather and blowing most all the time for a few days. The men turned out with shovels, snow plough and four spans of horses and worked hard tramping snow in order to make a way to bring a doctor from Debec for a man who is very ill. They deserve the highest praise for their efforts.

Charles Nicholson, who is at the home of A. J. Slater is very ill of pneumonia. There is not any hope of his getting better. Two doctors have been to see him, Drs. Ebbett and Griffin.

Mrs. Charles Nicholson and two little children were summoned from Fort Fairfield on account of the illness of Mr. Nicholson.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bustard of Golden Ridge, York County.

Rev. A. J. Polly attended the funeral services of the late David Kennedy.

Etta Blue, who is attending Normal School in Fredericton, came home to be present at the funeral of her grandfather Mr. Kennedy. Rumor says Matilda Graham will teach the school in Maxwell, commencing Monday, March 4th.

Meta Slater, our milliner, contemplates going to Boston in a few days where she will practice her profession.

Watt Taylor has been visiting friends in this vicinity.

There was a quiet wedding at the home of Mrs. Rachel Jackson, Feb. 20th, when her youngest daughter, Mary was married to Archie Estabrooks of Amity, Me. The Rev. Mr. Harrison, Methodist minister, performed the ceremony. About noon, after dinner, the newly married couple took their departure for their home in Amity, followed by the good wishes of the company present. A very large number of useful presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Littleton were in this place recently.

Some of the poor in this section have had a serious time for fuel and provisions during the blustery weather.

Mount Pleasant.

The Rev. Mr. Sterling preached to us last Sunday. After the service there was a baptism.

The frequent storms of late have called for the use of the snow plow.

Miss Emma Phillips has arrived home from her recent visit.

The Rev. J. J. Barnes was calling on friends here last week.

Davy Phillips and wife left Wednesday for Woodstock on a visit to his sister.

We are sorry to hear of the failing health of Mr. Rideout, our postmaster.

Phyllis Foster is staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Byron Foster.

Our mail carrier Enoch Estabrooks makes his regular trips despite the bad storms and rough roads.

Mrs. Lloyd was calling on friends Saturday.

The Rev. Lorenzo Foster was visiting his brother on Friday.

Lansdowne.

Times are quite lively in this place at present owing to the arrival of the young men from the woods.

On Saturday evening a basket social was held under the auspices of the Union Circle. The proceeds which amounted to $35.75 are to be used in building a horseshed at the church. We are thankful to the young folks of Oakland who helped us so generously. Owing to the storm many were prevented from attending.

Burrell Campbell who has been sick for some time, is slowly recovering under the care of Dr. McIntosh and a nurse.

Miss Bell visited her parents at East Florenceville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parlee, and Mary, of Bath spent Sunday with friends here.

Howard Quick has returned home from Bridgewater.

Isaac Pelkey is the proud father of a young son.

One of our young men, who expected to return West in March, has decided to remain at home for the present.

Centreville.

Wilmot Harold, who met with an accident a short time ago, is able to get about on crutches and has been in the village a number of times.

H. T. Scholey has been on the sick list for more than a week, but is improving somewhat.

Miss Belle Simonson came home with a slight attack of fever some time ago and now she is threatened with disease of the lungs. Her case is considered critical.

Wm. Page, agent for the Massey Harris Co. is putting in larger quantities of fertilizer and machinery and many farmers are encouraged to plant largely on account of the large price of potatoes at present.

The Opposition convention was attended by a large number from this section of the county and the conservatives report it as one of the most enthusiastic ever held in the county.

Revival meetings in Bloomfield have been very successful and the work still goes on.

Evangelist Beatty was called to his home on account of the death of his wife's brother but has returned and his services are being continued.

Mr. Chappel of the Gleaner is in the village soliciting subscriptions and is meeting with much success.

George Lewis took a sudden ill turn last Friday and for a short time his life was despaired of, but at latest accounts he was much improved.

D. Kennedy, organizer for the C. O. F. was in the village one day last week for a short time.

Bath.

Our town was saddened last week by the sudden death of Mrs. John W. Bohan, which took place on the 27th ult. Mrs. Bohan was an only daughter of the late Charles Kearney of Florenceville and was a highly cultured and estimable christian lady and will be greatly missed in the community. She leaves besides a husband, a family of four small children, one boy and three girls. Mr. Bohan has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his sad affliction. The funeral obsequies took place at Johnville on Saturday, the 2nd inst and the remains were interred in the Catholic burying ground at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gray returned from a visit to Fort Fairfield Me. and other towns last week.

The farmers are still busily loading potatoes at the C. P. R. station here. They are now quoted at $1.30 per bbl.

Rev. G. A. Giberson was called suddenly to Knowlesville on Sunday last to attend the funeral services of Mrs. George Lawson, an estimable young woman of that place.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick has returned from a visit to his old home in King's county.

James T. Lister who has been confined to his home by a severe attack of la grippe is again around.

Miss Hartley, teacher of the primary department of the Bristol school spent Saturday and Sunday here, the guest of her sister Mrs. S. W. Tompkins.

Lakeville.

A large number of Methodist people attended the Women's Missionary meeting in the church at Williamstown Sunday evening. The Rev. George Ayers gave an address and a report was read by Mrs. Ann Savage on the work of their society. Recitations were admirably rendered by Mrs. Wm. McWaid, Mrs. Robert Smith and Misses Effie Smith and Mamie Emery. Mrs. George Ayers and Miss Mary Fowler sang effective solos. A silver collection was taken in the interest of missions amounting to upwards of eight dollars. At the request of Mrs. John McLaughlan, one of the Woodstock ladies interested in the fund for the famine stricken Chinese whose crops have been destroyed by floods, Miss Mary Fowler collected a substantial sum in the village on Saturday, and forwarded it to Mayor Munro who in turn will forward the total Carleton county subscriptions to the proper authorities in charge of the relief fund.

Mrs. Armstrong, relict of the late William Armstrong, died at the home of her son Charles, Fort Fairfield, Me, March 6th. The deceased lady was a resident of this place for many years and had been in failing health for two years. The funeral took place at Fort Fairfield on Saturday. Owing to his present illness William Armstrong was unable to attend the funeral of his mother; his son Frank went up to attend.

John Ronald, another valuable citizen and a genial man having many friends in this section, passed away suddenly at his home in West Glassville on Thursday, Feb. 28th. Mr. Ronald had been married twice, his late wife being Miss Marjorie King of this place. He leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter. Three sons have settled in the United States; Robert and Katie are at home. Colin King, James D. King, James P. King and Miss Louise King, also Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Carvell attended the funeral in Glassville on Saturday.

William Stickney of Bridgewater, a foreman in the placing of machinery in Sherwood's new saw mill at Centreville, was in the village on Sunday. Mr. Stickney lived here many years ago and operated the mill owned now by Carvell Bros.

Miss Nellie Beairst spent Sunday with her friends the Misses McLeod of Jackson-town.

Handford Lindsay left suddenly for Boston Saturday last, on receipt of news that his daughter Mary, now at the Homeopathic hospital must undergo another operation for abscess. The young lady has many relatives and friends who are anxiously hoping for her speedy recovery.

Harmon Carvell, assisted by Smith Bros. have been successful in a difficult proposition of moving a building recently. What is known as the "old factory", a two story building with rotten foundations close to the bank of the stream, was raised several feet from its tilting position, hauled several rods over rough rising ground across the race way and placed in position near Mr. Carvell's out buildings. Some of the leading authorities on moving buildings said it could not be done but the success of these gentlemen points strongly to the fact that "where there's a will there's a way."

Centerbury Station.

Hauling and loading maple and lathe lumber seems to keep a lot of our people busy.

J. S. Law, post master, is quite sick with a cold. He has been confined to the house for a few days.

Mrs. J. Hillman is sick with congestion. She is stopping at the home of her son, Moses Hillman.

Mrs. John Glew and Mrs. Ellen Depow were calling on Mrs. James Harris on Friday evening.

Herb Jamieson, Custom House Officer, is spending a few days at home.

Mrs. Fannie Grant left on Monday for Waterville, Maine, expecting to remain a few months with her sons and her daughter.

Congratulations are being received at the home of George Dickinson on arrival of a young son.

N. C. Campbell, photographer, of Woodstock, on Thursday took a group of sportsmen and hunters with bruin in the midst.

Miss Selena Low is visiting at Calais, Me. The Baptist and Catholic Sunday schools are closed for the winter months.

The Methodist Sunday school is held at Brick Store and Dwelling at Upper Woodstock.

This property is the best stand for business at Upper Woodstock. This fall Upper Woodstock will be one of the largest shipping points in the county for potatoes, hay and grain. If you want a good stand call or write at once. Don't delay Do it now. Feb. 18, 1907, 2i.

J. N. W. WINSLOW, Woodstock.

Only Two of Those 8 Roomed Houses Now Left.

Remember they are well situated in Wellington Ward and have all modern improvements. Prices $1,500 and $1,200. Terms $200 down and balance if desired by monthly payments. Interest like rent and yet on every payment you are getting a larger hold on your own house. Don't delay if you want one as houses are selling fast this spring. Feb. 18, 1907, 2i.

J. N. W. WINSLOW, Woodstock.

6-ROOMED HOUSE, $750.

A very convenient and well-situated 6-roomed house with shed attached, close to the yard station. I sold the other house last week to a railway man, and expect this one to go quickly, so don't delay if you want it.

Terms easy, $50 down, if you cannot pay more, and the balance monthly, just like rent. You won't feel it, yet at the end of a few years you will own your own house and lot. Come and see me.

J. N. W. WINSLOW, Solicitor.

Building Lots in Wellington Ward.

PRICES.	TERMS.
$100.00	10 per cent. in cash
$125.00	and $5 a month
$150.00	until paid for.
$200.00	No interest on lots under $200.
$250.00	Every lot will advance in value.
$300.00	If desired will loan half cost of dwelling when first payment made.

J. N. W. WINSLOW, Woodstock.

Feb. 18, 1907, 2i.

Farm for Sale.

200 acres at East Newbridge, known as the Hartin farm, dwelling and two barns, cost over $1,500. Enough lumber and hard wood on farm to pay cost of it. If you want it call at once as it is for quick sale. Will accept $200 cash and balance by easy yearly payments secured by mortgage. It is a good potato farm. Feb. 18, 1907, 2i.

J. N. W. WINSLOW.

THE GOURLAY

What Mrs. Adney thinks of the Gourlay:

"I have at various times used nearly every make of piano, and I unhesitatingly pronounce the Gourlay to be the best that is made today in Canada. Indeed I regard the Gourlay as superior in its tone and mechanism to the similar piano of the three most famous American makes."

two o'clock in the afternoon in the new Methodist church. Henry Carr superintendent.

O. J. Fraser is Superintendent of the Episcopal Sunday school with Miss May Scott assistant, Lelia Cumming, organist and Miss Alice Price librarian. Undoubtedly there would be a much larger attendance were not for the storms and cold weather.

Central Southampton.

G. A. Grant is very busy repairing telephone wires and placing telephones.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage, of Lower Southampton, spent Sunday here, guests of Mrs. Ezra Miller.

Miss Eunice Schriver spent part of last week in Campbell Settlement.

Miss Lula Ross of Prince William is visiting friends here.

William Dore is home from the woods.

Daniel Schriver of Campbell Settlement is very sick.

Mr. Nason and Leigh Brown spent Saturday in Woodstock.

Our mail carrier Mr. Ebbett deserves much credit as he has never missed a trip this winter and the weather has been very severe with plenty of snow.

Ezra Tabor spent Sunday at Green Lake.

Joel Freeman lost a valuable horse last week. Woster Cronkrite also lost a valuable horse.

Mrs. Stephen Patterson who has been quite sick is better.

The Rev. A. Rutledge held service in the United Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Meductic

Mr. Carpenter, of Richmond, is visiting relatives here.

P. S. Marsten returned last week from a bust trip to Campbellton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gerow visited at the Barony last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Olts and Miss Vera Olts, of Benton, spent Sunday in the village.

Mrs. Allen Dow is recovering from her illness.

P. S. Grosvenor spent a few days of last week with his mother here.

ROBERT N. WINSLOW son of the late E. B. Winslow, who has been in the C. P. R. engineering office at Montreal, has been transferred to Mattawa, Ont., which is west of Ottawa. In the party with Mr. Winslow is Mr. Bennett a recent U. N. B. graduate. The party is in charge of H. M. Dibblee, formerly of Woodstock, and will be working in the Cobalt region next month.—F'cton. Gleaner.