Your Doctor

Can cure your Cough or Cold, no question about that, but—why go to all the trouble and inconvenience of looking him up, and then of having his prescription filled, when you can step into any drug store in Canada and obtain a bottle of SHILOH'S CURE for a quarter.

Why pay two to five dollars when a twenty-five cent bottle of SHILOH will cure you as quickly?

Why not do as hundreds of thousands of Canadians have done for the past thirty-four years: let SHILOH be your doctor whenever a Cough or Cold appears.

SHILOH will cure you, and all druggists back up this statement with a positive guarantee.

The next time you have a Cough or Cold cure it with

The Press and Crime.

(New Orleans Picayune.)

Let us suppose that the newspaper could be censored, so as to exclude from publication all mention of crimes, outrages, catastrophes and shocking events of all sorts, and the columns of the press were filled with accounts of charitable and religious occurrences and everything that can be considered decent and entirely respectable. What a paradise it would make for criminals, villains and rascals of every sort. The most of them would never be brought to trial but for the publicity given by the press, and if the same sort of suppression of the truth were extended to the courts, few would ever be convicted, since the pressure of public opinion in important cases goes a long way with the average jury. Fortunately, secret trials of criminals are barred by the national constitution, if that counts for anything.

The same considerations of justice which demand a public trial demand likewise the printing of the testimony. There is no argument in favor of suppressing or garbling the evidence which does not apply as well to the exclusion of the public from the court room. The right "to a speedy and public trial" is fundamental.

Home Sweet Home.

(London Express.)

Recently a district visitor in the east end of London asked the wife of a notorious drunkard why she did not keep her husband from the public house.

"Well," she said, "I have done my best, ma'am, but he will go there."

"Why don't you make your home look more attractive?"

"I'm sure I've tried hard to make it 'omelike, ma'am," was the reply. "I've took up the parlor carpet and sprinkled sawdust on the floor and put a beer barrel in the corner.
But lor' ma'am, it ain't made a bit of difference."

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee.
"Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee.
It is wholesome, nourishing and satisfying. It's safe even for the youngest child. Sold by All

A Professional Judgment.

One evening a physician in Buffalo was persuaded by his wife to attend a concert, although he has no knowledge of or interest in music. A number of fine musicians gave evidence of their skill, but the doctor was extremely listless. However, when a certain lady came forward to sing the physician seemed to brighten up.

"Who is that contralto?" asked he.

"Contralto!" repeated his wife, surprised.
"Why, she has n't a contralto voice—it is a high soprano."

The doctor made no reply.

"Don't you like her voice?" inquired the wife.

"Well," said the doctor, after a pause, "I really can't say much for the voice, but she has one of the finest bronchitises I've ever encountered!"—March Lippincott.

Your Boy and Good Manners.

Mothers make a mistake if they do not insist on good manners in the family. There is no reason why a boy should be boorish when his sister is polite, that a boy should be grumpy and awkward, ill at ease before strangers and unacquainted with table etiquette when his sister possesses the savior-faire of good breeding. We are talking about the growing boy. While he is still under your daily care, teach him to take off his hat when he meets you on the street, to rise when you enter the room, to place a footstool for his grandmother, and to carry any bundle or parcel not too heavy for small hands. A little fellow who is permitted to wear his hat in the house when only his mother and sisters are present cannot be expected to take it off because visitors have arrived.

"Freddie, why do you stand there with your hat on," asks the mother severely, when Freddie thus transgresses propriety and the minister's wife or the lady from Baltimore or the aunt from Philadelphia is in the room. If Freddie had been taught always to stand bareheaded in the house, if it were his custom to pull off his hat whenever he met a lady or an older person of his sex out of doors, the act would be automatic.
Let your boy wait on you. Do not rush wildly to wait on him. Let him button your shoes, put on and take off your rubbers, perform little services at home. If you are wise you will send him on errands to your friends, give him notes and messages to carry and otherwise make him at ease when obliged to address some one he knows slightly.—Margaret E. Sangster in Woman's Home Companion for March.

Cause of Stomach Troubles.

he should or of some article of food or drink his bowels are habitually constipated. Take

The Origin of "Plug" Tobacco.

An old Missouri farmer visiting Kansas City said, as he took a chew of tobacco:

"All the difference in the world in tobacco.
I've tried some 20 different kinds and none is as good as that we used to make ourselves down on the farm. We would take a maple log while 'twas green and bore a dozen holes in it with a two-inch auger. They were our molds. We selected our choicest tobacco and soaked it for a week or more in wild honey. Then we'd take the leaf to the log, get a good hickory tampin' stick and go to work.

"A little ball of the honey soaked tobacco would be put in an augur hole and tamped in with the stick and a hammer. We'd pound it in solid. Ball after ball would be rammed in and pounded until the whole became a solid plug. When the hole was nearly full we would pound in a plug, and then the log would be put away to season. As the wood dried the moisture would be drawn from the tobacco. And when it was taken from it we called it "plug" tobacco, and that's where the name originated."

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 34 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by All Dealers.

The Gambler's Hands.

"That man is a 'night worker,' probably a faro dealer," said a detective to a friend, as the two stood on a street corner the other afternoon, while the person alluded to by the detective passed by. "Know him?" asked the friend. "Not yet," replied the detective.
"but I may later." "How do you know he's a faro dealer then?" "I don't know it," was the reply, "but that he is in some such business is evident from the peculiar look of his face, which you may have noticed. You would not get that particular shade if you worked in a bank or at a desk all day long. It's the artificial light and the bad ventilation that does it, I guess. Keeping in the noise of the rattling chips keeps out the air in most cases, and those dealers work as steadily and as regularly as anybody else. Perhaps you noticed, too, that his hands were smooth, and clean, in far better condition than yours or mine, or the average business man's. The professional gambler may not like his pal-lor, but he takes great pride in his hands."— Philadelphia Record.

"That dog I bought of you yesterday turns out to be a ferocious animal. He's bitten a he was very fond of children?"

RANGES, COOK STOVES AND HEATERS.

Did it ever strike you that when you buy a Stove from Connell Bros., that if by any chance it does not WORK RIGHT, they are at hand to MAKE IT WORK RIGHT. They cannot afford to let the stove do anything else but WORK RIGHT.
Their stoves are all built to WORK RIGHT, made from good patterns; of the best material, and by good workmen. Another thing, too, they have all pieces for the stove, so you don't need to get rid of a good stove that was made by them because you can't get the repairs for it. We have repairs for stoves sold 25 years ago.

So intricate is the mechanism of the modern the reputation of the piano. There are two
