Queen Victoria and the Stuarts.

An intense pride in her Stuart forbears was one of the late Queen's most marked and, in view of her highly virtuous character, most feminine traits. Her descent from the Stuarts through James I. was always a source of keen satisfaction to her, and she never forgave Lord Macaulay for a certain indiscretion he committed in this connection. The great historian was more famous for his erudition than for his knowledge of courts, and he failed constantly in that agreeable lip service which, from their courtiers, is the meed of kings—and queens. Her majesty once, in the course of a conversation, referred to Charles I. as an ancestor of hers. This was too much for Lord Macaulay. "Not an ancestor, ma'am," he bowed, "only a collateral." And the Queen was cross.—The By-stander.

September 'Canadian Pictorial'

A Canadian girl sitting at the end of a pier jutting out into one of the great lakes, her head silhouetted against the setting sun, which touches the dancing water with its slanting rays—this is the cover picture of the September 'Canadian Pictorial,' the monthly which, though in only its second year, announces that there is a surprise in store next

About Pe-ru-na.

MRS. MCGOUGH.

Depressed Feeling.

Mrs. M. McGough, 219 W. 53rd street, New York, N. Y., writes:

"I gladly add my mite of praise to Peruna for what it has done for me. Two years ago a depressed feeling took hold of me. My back and sides ached continually. My stomach got out of order so that at times I could not hold a glass of cold water. I didn't like to eat, afraid that my stomach would get sick. I have been using Peruna for the three past months and now I feel as well as I ever did. My stomach is as strong as ever and my nervous troubles have disappeared. I keep recommending Peruna to my friends who are troubled as I was, and I have been thanked for doing so."

MRS.

MOOERS.

Mrs. Wilda Mooers, R. F. D. 1, Lents, Ore., member Order of Washington, writes:

"For the past four years I was a wretched woman suffering with troubles peculiar to my sex, causing severe backache and bearing down pains and leaving me so weak and weary that it was only with difficulty that I was able to attend to my household duties. I used different remedies and injections, but found no relief until I had tried Peruna. Within two weeks there was a complete change for the better and in less than three months I was a well and happy woman and all the praise is due to Peruna."

MRS. NELSON.

Headache and Backache.

Mrs. Tressie Nelson, 609 N. 5th Ave., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"As Peruna has done me a world of good, I feel in duty bound to tell of it, in hopes that it may meet the eye of some woman who has suffered as I did. For five years I really did not know what a perfectly well day was, and if I did not have headache, I had backache or a pain somewhere and really life was not worth the effort I made to keep going."

"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."

The above testimonials represent actual experience of every-day life. They are the truthful utterances of women who have been ill and have found a reliable remedy in Peruna.

It means a great deal to the women of America who have at hand a remedy capable of performing such cures. Nervousness, backache, dyspepsia, headache, melancholy, bearing down pains. All these and a host of other symptoms are relieved by Peruna. At least this is what the women say. They have no object in saying such things, except to render truthful testimony to their suffering sisters.

The reader will note by reading these testimonials that in most cases other remedies were tried, doctors were consulted, and finally Peruna came to their rescue and made them well again.

Peruna is making such cures every day. It is the testimony of the people that has made Peruna so justly famous.

Suffered Thirteen Years.

Mrs. Anna Munden, Hollygrove, Ark., writes:

"I suffered with female troubles for thirteen years."

"I saw an advertisement of your Peruna and bought one bottle and before I had taken it all I could get out of bed and walk about."

"After taking three bottles I was as well and hearty as ever and gained in flesh. I would not be without it."

Headache and Deafness.

Mrs. Mary E. Sampson, Londonderry, N. H., writes:

"I had terrible headaches, both ears run and I was nervous all the time, was deaf in one ear for thirty years. I took six bottles of Peruna and one of Manalin, and am happy to say that it is the best medicine that I ever heard of. I am not so nervous, my appetite is good, everything I eat agrees with me, and I am feeling better in every way."

A Severe Cold.

Miss Marie Calvin, 927 Main street, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:

"I caught a cold coming home from an evening party and as I did not pay particular attention to it, I quickly became worse and found myself in a serious condition."

"I took Peruna and it brought me immediate relief. Within a week I was cured and now whenever I feel badly Peruna will set things right."

month, as it is to be enlarged considerably. In the series of distinguished Canadians, the public man chosen for this month is Sir Louis Jette, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, and Lady Jette's picture appears in the woman's section. The result of the photographic competition is announced, the sovereign going to Ontario, and the prize picture is reproduced with several 'honorable mentions.' The important happenings of the month are illustrated: the explosion at Essex, Ont.; the fire at Old Orchard, in which half the summer hotels were destroyed and thousands of guests rendered temporarily homeless; the pilgrim Doukubors in Winnipeg; the annual outing of the Canadian Alpine Club; the birthday of Professor Goldwin Smith. There are two pages of summer scenes in the country, and by the lakeshore that will interest everybody. The women's department includes a sketch of the work of the W. C. T. U., the Dominion convention of which is to be held this month in Winnipeg, with articles on autumnal fashions, care of the teeth, and other timely topics. Ten cents a copy; one dollar a year postpaid, the world over. The Pictorial Publishing Co., 142 St. Peter street, Montreal.
