Hartland office in charge of Fred. H. Stevens, at Thistle's Jewellery Store, where orders for Advertising, Printing and Items for publication may be left.

A Hold up at Hartland.

On a warrant issued by Stipendiary Magistrate Farley of Bristol, G. Whitfield Green was arrested on Monday by Deputy Sheriff Foster on a charge of assault upon the person of J. Frank Owens of Glassville with intent to rob. The alleged assault took place in Hartland on Friday evening Aug. 16. Owens, a young man of 19 years states that he was walking along Main St., south of the school house at about ten o'clock when he was accosted by a masked man who laid forcible hold of his body and demanded money and saying that he was armed. Owens said he told his assailant that he had no money and the reply was "we will see," and the masked man proceeded to go through Owens' pockets taking therefrom a watch which, however, Owens recovered in an ensuing scuffle and the thug took to his heels and disappeared.

Owens identifies the man as G. Whitfield Green, a merchant doing business at Hartland and the warrant issued yesterday was served today and the Deputy Sheriff with his prisoner has gone on the train to Bristol this morning.

Mr. Green came here from Portage, Me., about two months ago and established a grocery store. He is a married man and was a heavy loser in the recent fire. Mr. Green claims to be a detective, being a member of a Boston concern, and has been working in the solving of the fire mystery. It was he who caused the arrest of Lorne McNally, charged with being concerned in the incendiary work, and he has also furnished other evidence at the investigation.

A party of Hartland young people had a pleasant picnic party on Riley Gillin's farm, across the river. There were present Mrs. A. C. Carr, the Misses Reid, Davis, McMullin, Curtis, Currie, Alexander, McAdam and Tompkins, Messrs. A. C. Carr, Deakin, Day, Arthur Dickinson, Birmingham, Sprague, Cameron, Barnett and Gillin.

Miss Annie Littlefield, of Boston, was visiting Hartland friends on Wednesday.

Miss Marion Stevens, Somerville, returned from Andover on Saturday.

Miss Georgie Reid arrived on Thursday from Waverly, Mass., where she is a nurse in training at the McLean hospital. She will spend a month at her home here.

Rev. G. A. Ross, of Hampton, and Rev. H. H. Marr, of Canterbury, were Hartland visitors last week.

Guy Sipprell came from Houlton on Friday and is visiting his parents at Victoria Corner. He intends leaving shortly for the Northwest.

Mrs. Fred Blair, of Debec Junction, was the guest of her brother, Oscar Deakin, on Friday.

Col. Gordon E. Boyer and family, of Fort Fairfield, spent last week with Hartland friends.

Some farmers are through haying while others have scarcely begun. One farmer says that he cut 80 tons this year where last season he had a yield of only 35 tons.

In the big electrical storm of last week a lightning bolt smashed to fragments a large plate glass window in the south side of J. T. G. Carr's store. No other damage was done to the building.

CIRCUS MEN CELEBRATE TWENTY YEARS OF PARTNERSHIP.

Norris & Rowe Giving Souvenirs Commemorative of the Event.

When the Greater Norris & Rowe circus gives its annual exhibition at Woodstock, Friday, August 30th, at 2 and 8 p. m. The public who have been so loyal to them in the past will be given something extra besides the Show. This year the young circus men are celebrating their twenty years of co-partnership and are issuing a handsome and costly souvenir to every person attending. The gift is one that every one will prize and it will adorn homes for many years. Twenty years ago Norris & Rowe formed a partnership. The beginning was a small one but their policy was one of expansion for they were ambitious to own a circus that would compare favorably with any on the road. The first years were strenuous ones, the profits of each tour going back into Show property but the amusement-loving public encouraged them by liberal attendance and each season they were given a more generous welcome until today the trade mark of "The Greater Norris & Rowe Circus, Museum, Menagerie and Hippodrome" is synonymous for all that is high-class and worth of patronage. The present tour of the Norris & Rowe Circus will go down into circus history as "The Jubilee Souvenir Season." To make the tour more notable the young circus owners have engaged an array of arenic features, sensational and novel, picturesque and entertaining that it is impossible to imitate. They have the first call on the very best talent for the reasons that they can give longer engagements, artists are assured their salaries promptly, excellent treatment and accommodations and above all, a season in the glorious west which so many performers covet. The present tour will be watched with interest by all those interested in the world of the white tents. The Greater Norris and Rowe Shows will exhibit at Woodstock Friday Aug. 30th.

done to the building.

Eric Nelson, of Boston, has arrived to join his wife and family at Joseph McGee's, Somerville.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Calder, Houlton, was visiting Hartland friends last week.

Rev. A. M. McNinch, who with his little son was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa McNinch at Victoria returned to his home in Hillsboro on Wednesday.

W. R. Gillin left for Montreal with a carload of live stock on Friday.

Keith & Plummer are headquarters for shingles at $1.15 to $2.50 per m.

George S. McLauchlan was in Fredericton last week where he played in the 71st band during the Governor General's reception.

C. Humphrey Taylor has a new roof on the Watson building which he lately acquired. He intends to secure the services of a first class cabinet maker and continue the furniture business. Mr. Watson will himself carry on the undertaking business.

The water in the river is lower now than at any time this season—and still it is above a seasonable height.

The flat in the McAdam building being prepared for a store for Horace R. Nixon is almost ready for occupancy while in the meantime Mr. Nixon is selling goods from a stock stored in the old woodworking factory.

Two Italian lads visited here the other day and made rather good music and lots of money on the streets.

Mrs. D. E. Morgan and grand-daughter, Mable, left on Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. Sterling King, in Kings County.

Mrs. George S. McLauchlan and son, Harold, will spend Old Home Week in Houlton.

C. Humphrey Taylor placed seven large plates of glass in his brick block last week to replace those smashed at the time of the fire.

It would appear that the boundaries of Main street need no longer be a matter for petty argument as for some time they have been. A few days ago Henry Tedlie, road superintendent, and A. Stone, surveyor, ran new lines two rods from the centre of the road as it exists today. The result showed that the old buildings that were burned did not encroach upon the highway to any extent but that nearly all the buildings on the east side are in the street limits several feet.

AUCTION SALE

Of Building Lots
And a Dwelling.

If not previously sold at Private Sale, the undersigned will offer for sale at Public Auction, on

SATURDAY,
31st Day of August, inst.

at the hour of Five o'clock in the afternoon, at BROWN'S CORNER, in the town of Woodstock, the following properties:

Five lots on east side of W. Wentworth street 60x100 feet each, upset price $60, a lot.

A lot on King Street South next to Mr. Duncan Simmons, dwelling size 60x100, upset price $100. Assessors value is $200.

A lot in rear larger but irregular in size, upset price $75.

Lot on Broadway, 55x100, next to new residence of ex-Mayor Lindsay, upset price, $250.

Lot 55x100 in rear of last mentioned lot and fronting on Charles street, upset price $150.

A triangular lot large enough for three dwellings and in rear of residences of J. Evans, Thomas Hoyt, and C. D. Jordan, and Samuel McKibbin on the northwest side of Queen Street South, upset price, $150.

Two lots on west side of Main street below the hay scales having each a frontage of twenty odd feet and extending back to Park street, upset price, $75 per lot. There is gravel and sand enough in these two lots to more than pay the upset price.

A lot above the last mentioned lots and known as the Pat Haney property, ground rent $30 a year, upset price $300.

Lot 60 feet front and extending from River street to the River St. John and situate below Carr's steam saw mill, upset price $150.

The leasehold lot on south side of Park street with two story double dwelling thereon. Monthly rent $10 per month. Ground rent $17 per year, upset price $400.

Each and all of the above properties will be sold without reserve at the best price offered at or above the upset price stated. I will also if the purchaser desires give a written agreement to take back the property bought by him at the end of one year at the price paid by him with 10% on the purchase money added. Each and all the above properties are sold clear of all rates and taxes.

The C. P. Railway are asking for tenders to build their new line from Upper Woodstock to Hartland same to be built by December 1st, 1907, thus doing away with Newburg Junction and making Woodstock the junction point on this division. This means a new station in Woodstock and an advance in Real Estate. For a railway man any of the above lots is a cinch at any price up to 100% over the upset price.

I am selling first because I want to use the money and secondly because I want to get a move on Real Estate in Woodstock.

Full particulars, terms of sale, and plans of the above lots can be had at my office.

J. N. W. WINSLOW,
WOODSTOCK.

August 19th, 1907.

Messrs. Jones, Britton and Connell came up from Woodstock on Saturday night and returned by canoe on Sunday.

Frank Aiton who has been on a trip to the Northwest returned on Saturday.

Chas. E. Allen visited Houlton this week.

Frank McCollom, Harold Bowser, Miss Darks and Martha McCollom went on a blueberrying trip to Cloverdale on Monday.

Baby's Hold on Life.

Baby's Own Tablets cost 25 cents a box. A box bought now may save your baby's life. Summer complaints come often without warning, and thousands of little ones die from them every summer. If children's stomach and bowels are kept in order there is little danger of these troubles, and that is just what Baby's Own Tablets do. They are good for the new born baby or the well grown child—and they are absolutely safe. Give your child an occasional dose of Tablets and you will keep it well. If you have not got a box of Tablets in the house now, send for them at once, and you may feel that your little ones are safe. Mrs. Wm. Parrott, Myrtle, Ont., says: "My little boy suffered greatly from colic, and cried almost continuously. A few doses of the Tablets cured him and now I give the Tablets occasionally to prevent the trouble returning." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Influence of Age of Cows on Production.

The production of milk and butter fat by dairy cows under normal conditions increase with each year up to the fifth or sixth year, when the cow is at her best. The length of time she will maintain her maximum production depends on her constitutional strength and the care with which she is fed and handled. A good dairy cow should not show any marked falling off until after ten years of age; many excellent records have been made by cows older than this. The quality of the milk produced by heifers is somewhat better than that of milk of older cows, for we find a decrease of .1 to .2 of one per cent. in the average fat content for each year till the cows have reached full age. It is possible that this is caused by the increase in the weight of the cows with advancing age; at any rate, there appears to be a parallelism between the two sets of figures for the same cows.

Young animals use a portion of their food for the formation of body tissues, and it is to be expected, therefore, that heifers will require a larger proportion of nutrients for the production of a unit of milk or butter fat than do older cows. After a certain age has been reached, on the average of about seven years of age, the food required for the production of a unit of milk or butter fat again increases both as regards dry matter and the digestible components of the food. A good milch cow of exceptional strength kept under favorable conditions, whose digestive system has not been impaired by over-feeding or crowding for high records, should continue to be a profitable producer till her twelfth year, although the economy of her production is apt to be somewhat reduced before this age is reached.—F. W. Wall.

The Progress Of Vancouver.

(National Magazine for August.)

When I alighted from the train at the Canadian Pacific Terminal Station in Vancouver, I saw beneath me the Steamer Empress of China, and other vessels making ready to loose from their moorings, en route for the Orient. In one glance the possibilities of this young giant City of the West were revealed. Close to the spot where I plumped my heavy suitcase, weighted with Canadian literature concerning every city we had passed, was the stump that had been marked out twenty years ago as the town site of Vancouver. The adjacent harbour is now lined with wharves at which craft of all kinds and sizes are loading. If Vancouver progresses in the next twenty years as she has in the past, her future prospects will be magnificent, multiplied in geometrical ratio.

The Chicago board of education is up against the union question with vengeance. Many of the teachers are members of a union which federated with other labor organizations of that city and now the parents of 100,000 "union" children threaten to withhold them from school this fall unless the 266 schoolhouses are renovated and rid of germs as the painter's union demands. This is a new field of endeavor for organized labor and the outcome will be watched with interest.

Among recent diplomatic negotiations there is one in the outcome of which all Europe is greatly interested. Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary is to be succeeded at his death or retirement by the Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria. Contemplating the possibility of a movement on the part of Germany to annex German Austria, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs has been arranging with Italy to take over part of the Italian territory still held by Austria so as to shut Germany out from the Adriatic and thus prevent her from using her fleet in the Mediterranean in the event of a war. Behold how the members of the Triple Alliance love one another.

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Dalhousie Ferry Wharf" will be received at this office until Monday, September 16, 1907, inclusively, for the rebuilding and enlargement of the Ferry Wharf at Dalhousie, Restigouche County, N. B., according to a plan and specification to be seen at the offices of E. T. F. Shewen, Esq., Resident Engineer, Chatham, N. B., on application to the Postmaster at Dalhousie, N. B., and at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of tenderers.

An accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for fourteen hundred ($1,400.00), must accompany each tender. The cheque will be forfeited if the person tendering declines the contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.
