

RAIN COATS!

The season the weather seems to change with less notice than usual, is that a Rain Coat becomes more than ever a necessary addition to a man's wardrobe. The man who buys one of our useful Rain Coats need not have any fears as to what kind of weather we have, for if it rains he is well prepared for rain. If it shines he has a stylish dressing light weight overcoat on. We know that our rain coats are excellent and are impatient to show them.

$15,000 In Cash.

The Fredericton Exhibition advertisement makes its first appearance in our columns today, and the large amount of money ($15,000) that is offered in premiums should bring together the greatest number of exhibits ever shown in this section. Fredericton has always put up a gilt edge fair, and from appearances this year's will surpass them all. With increased facilities and large additions to their grounds the management seem to be keeping pace with the times.

Starting in 1888 with one small building costing about $4000.00 and running a small County Cattle Show, offering a premium list of about $500.00, and to-day with a plant valued at nearly $25,000, and offering prizes of $15,000, places the Fredericton Exhibition among the Big Fairs of Canada and certainly points to good management on the part of the Association in the last nineteen years.

The programme for this year is a good one. Persons interested in Agricultural pursuits can feast their eyes on the best products of the soil of the Maritime Provinces-by the sea are noted for. The Poultry and Pet stock lover will have much to attract his attention, and the Ladies Department, Arts, Domestic and Fancy Work, promises a magnificent display of all that delights the feminine heart.

The management has not forgotten the amusement end and offer unusual special attractions costing thousand of dollars, which have never before appeared east of New York City.

Special Excursions and low rates are offered by all transportation lines, and realizing that the "Celestial City" will be invaded by vast crowds of visitors during the week, September 14-21, the Exhibition. Directors have opened a Lodging and Information Bureau in charge of competent persons who will attend to the wants of all who are unable to find accommodations at one hotels. The management assure us that there is room and accommodation for all; everybody will be looked after and nobody neglected.

Corner Stone of Methodist Church Laid.

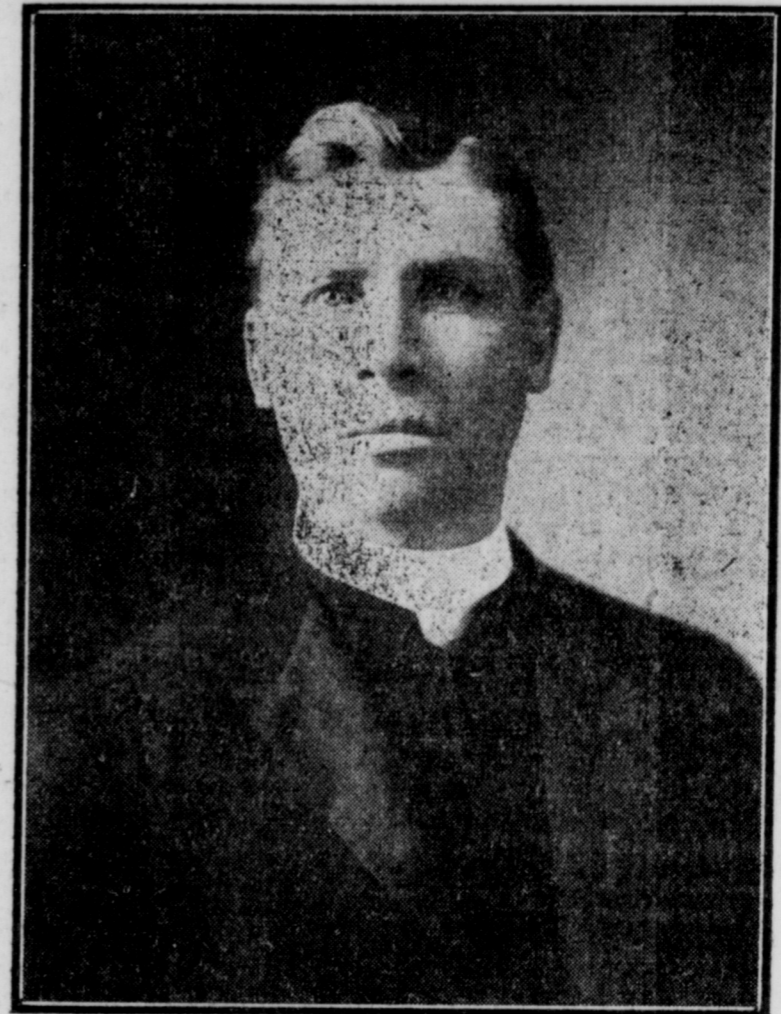

Thursday was a beautiful day for laying the corner stone of the new Woodstock Methodist church. The afternoon was bright and cool and by three o'clock quite an audience had gathered to witness the ceremony. A part of the floor of the auditorium had been laid and here an organ had been placed and the choir and those who took part in the ceremony and others gathered.

The corner stone, of smooth white granite, bearing the year 1907 on its face, was suspended by a light derrick over its resting place and covered with the Union Jack.

Among those who surrounded it were the is conducted in some room in a dwelling house, then a public hall is built, than a church and after a while as people prosper they take down the early church and replace it with a modern structure.

The laying of this stone may also be regarded as an expression of gratitude. In return for temporal prosperity and providential mercies God's people erect temples to His praise. The laying of this stone is also an evidence of "enlightened patriotism." It is right that we should utilize all the resources of our country, but after all it is "righteousness that exalteth a nation." We trust

THE REV. R. G. FULTON.

Rev R. G. Fulton pastor of the church, the Rev. James Crisp president of the Methodist Conference, the Rev. Mr. Turner, pastor of the Jacksonville circuit, the Rev. Mr. LePage, Supernumerary, F. B. Carvell, K. C., M. P., Albert J. Hayden, A. W. Hay, William Balmain, G. A. White, G. E. Balmain, J. A. Lindsay, Dr. Sprague, Francis Bird, Benj. Griffith and Brundage Hay. The sidewalk of Chapel and Green Streets was lined with spectators.

After a short introductory address the Rev. James Crisp, president of the confer-that here in this house many will learn the way of truth and rejoice in the ways of the Lord.

The Rev. R. G. Fulton then read the list of things deposited in the box that was to be placed within the stone. This list contained: The names of the officers of the conference- The names of the pastor of the church and the supernumerary minister.

Names of the Trustee Board.
Names of the Quarterly Official Board.
Officers of Sunday School.
Officers of Ladies Aid Society.

ence, opened the ceremony by reading the appropriate part of the "Form for laying the corner stone of a church" as contained in the church discipline.

After prayer had been offered by the Rev. Mr. Turner and a hymn sung by the choir a psalm was read responsively, after which Mr. Crisp read a chapter from the bible. After another hymn by the choir Mr. Crisp delivered his address for the occasion. He began by reading a selection from Dr. Wilson's History of Methodism in Carleton County, recounting some very interesting facts about the early ministers of the denomination in the county.

He went to say: The laying of this stone today reminds us of progress. At the beginning of the settlement of a new country like ours a few houses are built within sight of each other and religious service on a Sunday

The stone, which was hanging by pulleys, was then lowered by the mason and Mr. Fulton handed the president a small trowel and with it gave the stone a few taps and said: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I lay this corner stone for the foundation of a house to be built and consecrated to the service of
