James D. Reid.

James D. Reid, one of Fredericton's oldest citizens, passed away at Victoria hospital at Fredericton, Nov. 6th, after a brief illness from paralysis. He was a son of the late James Reid, of Paisley, Scotland, and was born in St. John eighty-three years ago. He came to this city with his parents when quite young and learned the trade of harnessmaker. In 1846 he removed to Boston and resided there twenty-eight years, and upon returning to New Brunswick, carried on business at Woodstock eight years.

For the last twenty-five years he has made his home here continuing to work at his trade up to the day before his death. He was believed to be the oldest active harnessmaker in the dominion. While at Woodstock he married Miss Baird, sister of the late Col. Baird, but she died many years ago without issue. He is survived by two brothers, John H. Reid, of this city and Robert A. Reid of Edmundston. The deceased was an old time cricketer and horseman and for some years has been a member of St. Andrew's society.

That Scottish Night.

There is magic in the word Scotch, to the musical and unmusical alike. What is more entertaining than a Scottish concert given by eminent Scottish artists right from the old sod, who know just what the songs mean and have the proper interpretation of the words and music instilled in them from childhood. Such an event is that booked for December 3rd, when J. H. Hamilton the greatest of Scottish tenors, with his Imperial Scots Company, including a soprano who is the equal of Jessie MacLachlan, will be heard here. Don't forget the date. This will be the best Scottish night for many years and hundreds who do not grasp the opportunity will be sorry afterward.

Don't sit back and groan while your neighbor is relishing a good dinner. Buy your meat at the People's Cash Market and you may be happy too.

Town Council.

The council met on Friday evening, Coun. Dunbar being the only absentee.

The committee appointed to look into the settlement of Pickel & Davidson's bill on which there was yet unpaid $68, after a lot of discussion, brought in a written report awarding the above firm $34. The reason the bill was cut down is that Pickel & Davidson's measurement was 200 feet, while Supt. Carr could only make it 132 feet. But as there was a lot of heavy boulders to take out and blasting to do, it was only fair to split the difference.

The committee who were appointed to look in the matter of A. E. Jones' property on King Street said that the wharf was pushing into his building too much and brought in a written report recommending that the town take steps to remedy the grievance. The report was received and adopted.

John Thompson claimed damage to the extent of $5 to his property by work done when putting in curbing on King Street. Referred to street committee.

Coun. Sutton said there were ten ton of hay and 200 bushels of oats which he would like to dispose of for the town team, but Coun. Burt said there was not room enough for their storage at the stables and the matter dropped.

Supt. Carr asked the council for a lease of the land running down to the river in the rear of Bull Street. It was not used for anything now, and would be of use to him as it runs down by his mill property. Referred to street committee.

Coun. Noble said there were many complaints being registered as to the way the Scott Act was being enforced. He saw the Inspector who told him that since being appointed there had been 34 informations, 17 convictions and six cases impending. Coun. Noble said he had told him to go ahead and enforce the act and the council would stand by him and pay the bills.

His worship said that $350.00 in Scott Act fines had been paid in since the beginning of the year, and the council should see that the matter is proceeded with.

Coun. Noble said there were a lot of complaints coming to him about the condition of Emerald street. It was impossible for pedestrians to walk down the street as it is piled up with rubbish, and he thought it was time it had been cleaned up, and he made a motion to that effect. This was seconded by Coun. Sutton and carried.

Their Golden Wedding.

SNOWHOMISH, Oct. 24th.—A large number of Snowhomish people were in Bryant Tuesday afternoon to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Orser. Harriet Britton was married to Mr. Orser in Carleton county, New Brunswick, just fifty years ago. The guests from this city were old friends and neighbors of the host and hostess when they lived on the East coast. Numerous children, grand and great-grandchildren and about seventy-five guests were at the Orser home to greet the aged couple and congratulate them upon passing the half century anniversary of their wedding. Fourteen children, all of whom have reached maturity, are the issue of that marriage. In all there are about fifty descendants of the marriage. A most elaborate wedding dinner was served, and many presents, each commemorative of the golden event, were received.

[The above paragraph from the Seattle Post-Intelligencer will interest many Carleton County people. Mr. Orser is a son of the late Samuel Orser of Hartland and a brother to Mrs. A. J. McLean, Bristol, and Mrs. James Barter, Avondale. Mrs. Orser is a sister to John Britton of Upper Woodstock.]

WHERE SHALL THE HIGHWAY BE?

A Question of the Route or Location of the Road Through Newburg.

Almost everyone knows that the C. P. R. is making a change in the location of the railway between a little above Upper Woodstock and a point above the present Newburg Junction, whereby the heavy grade will be avoided and the high Acker Creek bridge done away with. The contract for the work has been let. But, a difficulty has arisen over the location of the highway road. The new railway line takes in part of what is the present highway at two points; one between the Phillips crossing to the mouth of the Pembroke highway, the other from about Mrs. Ernest Hale's towards Newburg Junction, a matter of about half a mile. Now the C. P. R. having taken the present highway road must provide a road, and it is said that for once, the C. P. R. and most of the residents are agreed as to the most suitable location, which will be pretty well east of the railway through a side hill, or along the hill. Mr. Wetmore, the Government Engineer, is said to be strongly in favour of a road not so far east, and to be quite earnestly pressing his point. Then, as to the portion of the road nearer to Newburg, it is a question whether the road will run east or west of a little burying ground. In this case it is said the landowners who are concerned want the road to go east, but the public or most of them wish it to go west of the burying ground.

The men in authority have been more or less besieged with representations as to the locations, and just now one does not know how it will all end.

F. E. Sayre & Co's. Mill Closes.

F. E. Sayre & Co's. big mill at the mouth of the Becaguimac closed down on Friday evening having completed the season's cut of deal and other long lumber. This closes one of the best years work the mill has ever turned out. The lumber was got down from the headwaters with less than the usual amount of labour and expense; the water has been at such a pitch that all the deal was sent away by raft, making a great saving in the cost of transportation. The mill has run steadily, not having been shut down for more than a day at a time since early last May; furthermore no one was any way seriously injured while employed about the mill.

The cut of deal is some five millions, all of which has been shipped via St. John. Large quantities of boards have also been cut beside the immense amount of lath. At the present time there is a large quantity of boards and lath piled in the yard awaiting a rise in price although so far as Messrs Sayre are concerned all the season's output was cut under contract before the prices fell. The great stock in hand is sold long ago and the American dealers who bought it are the ones affected by the drop in the market.

Sayre's Mill is a big industry and the community would miss it if removed. All summer about forty-five men have been employed under a pay roll of close to $1700.00 monthly. During the winter ten men will be employed about the mill and about 200 in the woods.

Men are now in the forests getting out lumber for next season's cut, which, by the way, will be somewhat less than usual.

It is expected that next Monday lath-sawing will be resumed and continued throughout the winter. Last winter the experiment of getting lath wood at the head of the stream and driving it down with the rest of the lumber was successfully carried out. Enough for about 3,500,000 laths was secured in this way and it is expected that 1,500,000 will be cut from wood hauled direct to the mill.
