Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine acids, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous Kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

The Straight Road.

(Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman at Montrose.)

I feel entirely at home. There is something that gets at our hearts, and we put politics and all that nonsense aside when we recognize a really earnest attempt, however misguided, to do good to the whole country to which we belong. I owe much—far more than I can tell—to my honest constituents, who have stood loyally by me now through thirty-nine years, or something like that—so long that I begin to forget. I owe a great deal to the House of Commons, which has always been good natured and indulgent and forgiving and appreciative; I owe a great deal to my own followers—there is now a terrible host of them—who present to me no difficulties at all. I owe a great deal to my opponents in the House of Commons, who have always been kindly and friendly and considerate; and, altogether, I have no fault to find with anybody. It is because I have no fault to find with anybody that I am where I am. I have gone straight forward, and I find myself there, without knowing very well how I came there. An old friend of mine, Wilfred Lawson, who, although many people might think of him as nothing else but a water-drinking, temperance fanatic, was full of worldly wisdom and true statesmanship, was accustomed to say: "The man who is on the straight road never loses his way." I flatter myself that I have walked on a pretty straight road, probably because it was the easiest, and accordingly, I have not gone astray.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.

Maurice Nugent.

Maurice Nugent died at the residence of his daughter in Woodstock, Oct 29th aged 72 years. He was employed for years at Pokiok, York county, and about a fortnight ago came to Woodstock very ill. His wife died in this town about ten years ago. He had a wide acquaintance in the neighboring counties and was highly respected. Mrs. M. Murphy and Mrs. J. P. McCarron, of Woodstock, are daughters. William, John, and Maurice, his three sons, of Boston, were present at the deathbed, but Henry, who is employed in Maine, had not arrived Tuesday night. The burial took place in St. Gertrude's cemetery.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor.
"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool and expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for Coffee.—Sold by Could he Have Survived?

(Harper's Weekly.)

"It is a rule, to which good lawyers usually adhere," says a Philadelphia attorney, "never to tell more than one knows. There was an instance in England not many years ago, wherein a lawyer carried the rule to the extreme.

"One of the agents in a Midland Revision Court objected to a person whose name was on the register on the ground that he was dead. The revision attorney declined to accept the assurance, however, and demanded conclusive testimony on the point.

"The agent on the other side arose and gave corroborative evidence to the decease of the man in question.

"But, sir, how do you know the man's dead?" demanded the barrister.

"Well," was the reply, I don't know. It's very difficult to prove."

"As I suspected," returned the barrister.
"You don't know whether he's dead or not."

"Whereupon the witness coolly continued:
"I was saying, sir, that I don't know whether he is dead or not; but I do know this, they buried him about a month ago on suspicion."

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys.
That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by all dealers.

At a Police Station.

(Il Motto per Ridere.)

"Pardon me, but could I see the thief that was arrested last night?" a man asked the sergeant.

"Really, sir, you cannot; what communication would you like to make to him?"

"Oh, nothing; It is only that as it was my house he robbed I wanted to ask him how he managed to enter without waking my wife.
When I come home late at night I never succeed in doing so."

Rev. H. E. Dibblee Again Remembered.

A few of the members of St. Andrews church, Fredericton Junction, waited upon the Rev. Horace E. Dibblee, who for some 12 years in the past had charge of the mission at that place and just previous to his leaving for his new field of labor presented him with a beautiful set of gold cuff links with his initials engraved thereon, purchased from Shute & Co., of this city, at the same expressing their sincere regrets at his departure and wishing him every success in his new field of usefulness. Mr. Dibblee's work in connection with the mission at the Junction and Blissville has been singularly successful and the two beautiful churches there will stand as a monument to his earnest work in the service of his Divine Master. His leaving for the milder climate of California was necessary on account of his health and his departure is a source of sorrow to the members of his congregation by whom he was greatly beloved and who will follow him in their prayers for his perfect restoration to health and for every success in his new field of labor.—Fredericton Gleaner.
