Centreville.

The Rev. Samuel Belyea who has been engaged for a number of years in the Baptist ministry in the State of Maine occupied the Baptist pulpit here on Sunday morning. He chose for his text "Enter Thou into the Joys of thy Lord," and although nearly every one in the congregation had heard the same text preached from perhaps more than once before, yet the discourse of Mr. Belyea opened up a new line of thought which proved to be very interesting indeed.

F. B. Carvell M. P., in company with some officials of the McKenzie & Mann Railway Co., passed through the village last week on their way to Grand Falls. The party expressed themselves as being very favorably impressed with the conditions in general and the people with whom they discussed the matter were given the impression that some move would be made in regard to the St. John Valley Railway at an early date.

We have quite a number of visitors in the village at present.

The sick list at present is quite a large one and the dispensers of medicine are kept pretty busy.

The people of the village are at present up against a very serious difficulty. It is announced that a very respectable sum of money has been raised for the building of sidewalks. Those who took a deep interest in the raising of the money seem to think it should be spent for the benefit of those who walk. A number of committeemen have been appointed at the different meetings held for that purpose but the great difficulty of getting a chairman for the committee seems to block every avenue of progress in this great undertaking. It has been suggested to wait until McKenzie & Mann build the Valley Railroad and apply to them for help in the matter.

William McWaid is selling wire fencing to the trustees of the Methodist church at about cost for enclosing the church building and cemetery and offers the same liberal terms to the United Baptists if they wish to taken advantage of his generous offer.

Lager Beer.

The time has passed when right thinking men will contend that men should have liberty to drink ardent spirits if they want them, and that legislatures have no right to curtail their liberty in this respect. We have grown used to the different laws, such as high licence, Canada Temperance Act, local option, or prohibition.

While men have been fighting to get the reforms embodied in these several laws, another and a very great evil has sprung up over the land. The traffic in lager beer has grown exceedingly here, in the last few years, until now no village is too small to have its beer-shop to lure the young feet into by paths of the wickedness and woe that follow in the train of alcohol. The unhappy effects of lager beer we have all seen,—the bloated visage, the bleared eye, the muddled brain and the unsteady step (while perhaps not evidences of intoxication) indicate a sorry condition of mind and body.

The worst effect of lager beer is that of causing an appetite for stronger liquors. Even if there is but a small amount of alcohol in it there is enough to poison the nerves and tissue of the body and they cry out for more and more alcohol and larger and larger amounts of beer are taken until the alcoholic appetite is formed and the victim turns to distilled liquors to quench his fiery thirst. Tennyson Smith says that it is folly for the Temperance people of Carleton County to fight the liquors now known as Intoxicants and leave the lager beer to do its deadly work of creating the alcohol appetite. "Save the boys" has been our cry but we begin too late. Why not save them before lager beer has caused the craving for the strong drink which we try to keep from them.

Temperance people of Carleton County, the time has come for you to do something in regard to this evil. Public opinion must be aroused. Beer-sellers must be told that their business is not wanted in the several communities in which they are, and then laws must be made which will made them understand public opinion.

There are several ways in which to begin reform. One of these adopted by Woodstock is License. This is of more value in a Town as it roots out the lower "dens of iniquity" as one councillor expressed it. Local option might be granted to the several parishes.

The Scott Act might be amended. At present it forbids the sale of intoxicants and through this loop-hole lager beer escapes. But if the law were changed to forbid the sale of all alcoholic beverages, we then could get rid of the beer shop.

The time for reform is at hand and each one is responsible for his part of the work. Before another year many hundreds will have gone to fill drunkards' graves, and many young and innocent feet will have been turned in at the gate of intemperance. Some day it may be your boy or it may be mine. It is necessary that we make haste.—W. C. T. U., Cor.

To Editor of The Dispatch:—

Dear Sir,—Will you please let my 'friends and customers know through your paper, that the recent fire of May 24th has not put me out of business. I have not lost everything. The damage done was almost entirely confined to the contents of a hot-bed about 40 feet long which was but 10 feet from the burning building. The stock which was destroyed in this bed consisted of about 2000 transplanted Tomato plants and about 25 plots of flower and vegetable seedlings. That is all. I have two other frames situated 50 feet away filled with as fine Tomato, Cabbage and Celery plants as can be had anywhere. Especially I have a large stock of Cabbage plants; none of this stock was in the least injured. I write this to let my customers know that they can still get the fine Tomato and other plants that they like so well.

Yours truly,

WINSLOW C. WATT,
Albert Street, opposite Old Baptist Church.

"HEADACHE, WEAKNESS, HEART TROUBLE"

"I Suffered With for Years—Pe-ru-na Cured Me Entirely."

Miss Albina Chauvin, No. 50 Rue Agnes, St. Henri, Montreal, Can., writes:

"I consider Peruna better than any other remedy, as it cured me when nothing else could. I suffered for years and years with heart trouble, headache and weakness. I never expected to find anything to cure me. I saw one day, in 'La Presse,' that Peruna was excellent and I tried it. One bottle produced a change in me and if the price had been $100 a bottle I would have paid it gladly. I have taken six bottles and am entirely cured. Please accept my thanks and best wishes for your Peruna."

"Please Accept My
Thanks and Best Wishes For Your PE-RU-NA."

ALBINA CHAUVIN

Many cases of heart trouble are caused by reflex disturbances.

Derangements of the stomach and liver produce symptoms of heart trouble.

Catarrh of the stomach is a very frequent cause of sympathetic heart disease.

Palpitation, shortness of breath and bloating after meals are the most prominent symptoms.

Such a condition of the stomach is also liable to produce headaches of the worst sort.

Medicines that palliate the symptoms will never lead to a cure.

It is the effect which Peruna has upon the stomach, healing the mucous membranes and restoring the natural function of the stomach, that causes Peruna to bring such prompt relief.
