THE DISPATCH is in receipt of an invitation to attend the graduating exercises of the Framingham Training School for Nurses, at Framingham, Mass. Miss Gertrude E. McKendrick, daughter of Conductor McKendrick, of the town, is one of the nurses who will graduate at these exercises, and to whom we are indebted for the invitation.

A WEDDING of much interest in this section of the county will be solemnized on Wednesday next at the bride's residence in Northampton, when Jesse Knowlton, a popular young man, of Debec, will lead to the altar Miss Augusta M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rogers. After the honeymoon trip they will take up their residence at Debec.

THE SALVATION ARMY is certainly doing a great work for the Master. Souls are coming to the Cross at most every meeting and proving true. The Army in Woodstock stands No. 1 on the List at Headquarters in St. John. There will be a change of officers this month throughout the Maritime Provinces but the people of Woodstock do not wish any changes made in regards to this, as they are fully satisfied with their present commanders and more than pleased with their able Leadership.—Com.

T. U. MAXON and J. Dudley Dow, sportsman of Pokio, York county, returned last week from a hunting trip on the head waters of Little Pokio, where they had the rare fortune to secure a white moose. The moose shot by Messrs Maxon and Dow was only a fair sized one, his antlers measuring about 45 inches. It was reported by a party of local sportsmen that they had seen either the same one or another white moose last year about this time, probably the same one, as a white moose is a pretty rare thing.

WORK on the new Methodist church is progressing very favourably despite the continued bad weather. Two of the three large window frames for the main building are already in place, the front and side concrete stairways are finished, and the rear of the building which contains the Sunday school and other rooms will soon be ready for the plasterers, if they have not already begun. The carpenters have been working in the evenings on this part of the building, as it is the intention to hold services there until the main building is finished.

THE Fall & Winter C. P. R. Time Table came into effect on Sunday, October 13th. The noon express from the west now arrives at 12:01, 19 minutes later than under the old schedule, and the evening express from the north gets here at 5:42, 24 minutes earlier. The Plaster Rock train now arrives at 11:41 and leaves at 1:35, giving up river visitors one hour and 54 minutes in town, the same length of time as before but a little earlier in the day. The early morning train for St. Stephen and St. Andrews leaves at 6:45, half an hour later than before.

A DELIVERY wagon, and part of a set of harness the property of Sterling Peabody, were stolen on Saturday evening last. Mr. Peabody hitched his horse in front of Henry Moxon's store, and was gone a short time attending to some business matters. When he came back the horse and wagon were gone and no trace of them could be found. Later on the horse turned up at his home with only part of the harness and without the wagon. The matter has been placed in the hands of Marshall Kelly.
