

The effect of Scott's Emulsion on thin, pale children is magical.

It makes them plump, rosy, active, happy.

It contains Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites and Glycerine, to make fat, blood and bone, and so put together that it is easily digested by little folk.

A Truthful Tablet.

"That 'a prophet is not without honor save in his own country' is as true today as when it was written. Nevertheless, the 'eminent author,' mentioned in the Argonaut, believed for a moment that the old rule had been suspended.

"I was in the town where you were born the other day," said the friend of the eminent author.

"Indeed! Quaint little place, isn't it?" observed the author.

"Yes. While I was there a friend of mine pointed out the house in which you were born."

"Is it possible? I did not think the building was standing yet."

"Oh, yes. It is a little run down, but it is still rather a respectable-looking building, by the way, the city recently placed a handsome tablet on the side of the house."

"You don't say so. Put a tablet on the house in which I was born? Well, well! Now that is certainly handsome of the city. After all, it goes to show that the folks among whom one was reared, while they know all his faults, are still inclined to cherish his virtues, to see the good there is in him, and to rejoice in doing the kindly little things, in paying the friendly tribute that means so much, doesn't it?"

"Of course I've always had a warm friendly feeling for the old town and the people, but I hardly supposed they had kept track of me, or followed my career. By the way—er—ah—er—do you happen to recollect the wording of the tablet?"

"Yes. It says 'Main Street.'"

Stomach Troubles Of Long Standing

WHEN DOCTORS' TREATMENT FAILED THIS SEVERE CASE WAS ENTIRELY CURED BY

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Doctors failed to cure Mr. De Courcey because they were satisfied to treat the stomach instead of getting at the cause of trouble in the liver and bowels.

The most complicated and deep-seated digestive troubles yield to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, because of their direct and combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. We are continually receiving such letters as the following in regard to the failure of mere stomach treatment:—
Mr. Patrick De Courcey, Midgell, lot 40, P. E. I., writes:—"For some time I had stomach trouble, and was scarcely able to do anything at all. I was treated by doctors, but they did not seem to do me any good. A friend advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I did so, to very great advantage, for my old trouble has disappeared, and, though past middle age, I feel young and hearty again. I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's medicine."

Another interesting case of liver derangements and stomach troubles is that described in this letter:—

Mrs. James Monteith, Saurin, Simcoe County, Ont., writes:—"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for liver complaint, biliousness and terrible sick headaches, and have found that they are more effective than any treatment I ever tried. They cleanse the system thoroughly, remove the cause of pains and aches, and make you feel fresh and strong again. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are also excellent for stomach troubles."

By means of their direct and specific action on the liver—causing a healthful flow of bile—they regulate and enliven the action of the bowels and ensure good digestion in the intestines. At the same time they stimulate the kidneys in their work of filtering poisons from the blood.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by All Dealers.

A Few Pertinent Questions.

When the catalogue comes from a mail order house, draw an easy chair to the table where the light will shine full upon the page, and put on your glasses that no bargain may escape your eye. What a wonderful book it is, to be sure? Wonderful for what it does not contain as well as what it does. You will miss some things you would be glad to see. Where is their offer to pay cash or exchange goods for your wheat, oats, corn, beans, butter, eggs, and hay? How much do they pay for cattle, sheep and hogs, f. o. b. at your depot? How much tax will they pay to support your schools and educate your children—for improving roads and bridges; the support of the poor of the county; for the expense of running the business of the township, county and state? On what page is their offer to contribute money to the church? What line of credit will they extend to you when your crops are poor and money gone—when through illness or misfortune, you are not able to send 'cash with order' for your groceries, clothing, farm tools and crockery?

Sayings Over 400 Years Old.

You have all heard these familiar sayings many times. Did you ever consider when and by whom they were originated? They are all over four hundred years old, and came from the pen of Francis Rabelais, a noted French writer:—

Like hearts of oak.

A leap into the dark.

And thereby hangs a tale.

He had other fish to fry.

It was performed to a T.

How well he feathered his nest.

Let us fly and save our bacon.

By robbing Peter he paid Paul.

Plain as a nose on a man's face.

He did not care a button for it.

Looking as near like as two peas.

Speak the truth and shame the devil.

He looked a gift horse in the mouth.

We will take the good will for the deed.

What cannot be cured must be endured.

You have hit the nail right on the head.

Nothing is so dear and precious as time.

He thought the moon was made of green cheese.

Save your breath to cool your porridge.

I believe he would make three bites of a cherry.

One-half the world knows not how the other half liveth.

Don't Take It.

(Kincardine Review.)

Young man—be warned in time. Let no one—not even your own self—entice you to seek a public office or what is commonly called a government job. In this age, when your life is young and your health good, and when an independent competence awaits any man who has snap, some intelligence and a willingness to work, you would be a fool to take a government office. If there are fifty thousand office-holders in Canada, depend upon it that 40,000 of them are sorry for being in the list. The other 10,000 are men who get the few public offices that are worth while, or are men who were broken down in health, or had been relegated to the shelf. The average public office is not a private snap. Make no mistake about it. From the fury men show in rushing for a vacant office you might suspect that it is worth while, but note how soon it turns into Dead Sea fruit or apples of Sodom. Once you get it, you are measured with red tape. If you say your soul's your own some kind friend reminds you that a change of government will see your finish. When you take sick, two score of your friends will be after your job with the characteristic fury you displayed when you were after it. If you recover they will all be sorry. If you die, 39 of them will, in the course of a month, regret your death, and curse your successor and the man who appointed him.

Nor, sir, don't do it. If you would be a man among men—if you would retain your ambitions, your self-reliance, your independence—trek northward when a government job is vacant in the south.

Must Pay Full Price For Hunting Licenses.

Sometime before the opening of the game season application was made by many of the engineers and others employed on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway construction in the province for residents' hunting licenses. The matter was placed before the surveyor general and it was decided that as many of the applicants had only been in the country for a few months and were liable to leave before a year or two had passed, the licenses should not be issued to them.

It was suggested that licenses, similar to those granted to lumber camps be given the construction camps that is, to allow the killing of two moose to each camp.

This suggestion was also decided against and now if the men desire to go gunning on the side they must pay the full $50 for license for moose or $10 for deer or birds.

The Proper Immigration Policy For Canada.

Admit no one with a criminal record or criminal ancestry.

Establish the same prohibition against hereditary paupers.

Bar out all sufferers from contagious or incurable diseases.

Refuse permission for the formation of either racial or religious colonies.

Rigidly close the doors against those who, either in the present or next generation, are unlikely to inter-marry with and become part of our own people.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by All Dealers.
