IN KINGSTON, ONT., last Wednesday a little boy was in swimming when he was attacked by a bull dog. The boy was becoming exhausted in his efforts to fight off the animal when a couple of penitentiary guards in a prison tower half a mile away happened to notice the struggle through their long distance glasses, jumped into a boat and despatched the dog with their rifles at close range. At the hospital it was found that the boy had been fearfully bitten and his life was despaired of for a time.

In the absence of Ensign Martin and Capt. Porter who expect to leave here Saturday next for St. John, to be present at the big meetings which are to be held in that city by General Booth on Sept. 21-22. Envoy Gerow of Halifax Headquarters has kindly consented to be here and take charge of the Army meetings for Saturday night and all day Sunday. This is indeed a very kind thought of the Envoy to do this and the many friends of the Army should appreciate his effort in coming and hear him. Everybody should remember the date Sept. 21-22

YES, 1907, has been the worst year within the memory of middle-aged man. Now September 11, and a few farmers not done haying, many not begun harvesting, and they are lucky not to have begun; potatoes drowned out or rusted, so that a small crop is assured; much hay gone back to the earth for manure; grain rotting and sprouting in the fields; weather so wet all the hired men can do is to lounge round the villages, too many of them drunk,—this weakly portrays the miserable conditions in northern Maine and New Brunswick.—Fort Fairfield Review.

AT THE city of Rockland, Maine, on Friday evening the 6th the members of the Courier Gazette staff and a number of other friends called on His Worship Mayor Arnold H. Jones and helped him and his wife celebrate the silver anniversary of their wedding. The mayor and his wife were taken quite by surprise. A banquet was served, a magnificent wedding cake was cut, addresses were made and Mr. and Mrs. Jones were made the recipients of many handsome presents. Mr. Jones, who is a native of Woodstock, and a brother of Mr. R. B. Jones is a credit to his native town and the town of his adoption.
