Hartland office in charge of Fred. H. Stevens, at EVERETT'S AGENCY, where orders for Advertising, Printing and Items for publication may be left.

The Hartland Debating Society had their first linguistic combat at the residence of M. L. Hayward on Friday evening. Mr. Hayward led the affirmative side of the resolution, "that there should be a tax on bachelors." The question was decided in the affirmative by a vote of all present. The negative side, ably championed by Frank Aiton, put up a good defense but was outnumbered, their being sixteen young ladies and three hen-pecked husbands for the affirmative, against thirteen (an unlucky number) for the negative side. It is said however that the vote was very close as while all the young women were firm in the conviction that unmarried men should be taxed there was only one, the leader, who voted with them. The question was devised by the young women and the chief argument against it was that the bachelors are already taxed to their utmost since it devolves upon them to be the gay gallants to twice their number. One view of this debate which an outsider might take as significant is that the estimated average age of those on the affirmative side was considerably greater than the youths who bravely fought for the keeping of their independence.

Mrs. G. W. Watson was visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. James E. Drysdale at Woodstock last week.

Mrs. George McCollom who has been visiting her brother, Allen Clark, left on Thursday for the woods where she will spend the winter with her husband on the Restigouche.

Mrs. Nettie Dickinson and children of Windsor were visiting Hartland friends last week.

Mrs. Doran Gray and little daughter came from Bridgewater, Me., on Thursday and was the guest of her sister Mrs. W. P. McMullin. T. A. Lindsay, inspector for the Manufacturer's Life Insurance Co., was in town on Friday.

Miss Lizzie Estey after spending several months with relatives at Amesbury, Waltham and Boston, Mass., returned on Friday and will stop with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Sipprell, Somerville, throughout the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Sipprell, Victoria Corner were visiting their son, Scott, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cliff left for their home at Lower Queensbury on Friday.

There was quite a serious smash-up across the river last Wednesday. James C. Lakin, of Waterville, Me., who represents Swift's Lowell Fertilizer Co., was driving a pair of horses down the hill approaching the bridge, when the pole dropped and the wagon was overturned throwing Mr. Lakin out on the frozen ground. Charles Gray, of Waterville, was coming along immediately behind and witnessing the accident, hastened to the assistance. Lakin was in a dazed condition and did not fully recover his senses until he was taken to the exchange hotel where he was carefully attended. The horses were stopped before doing themselves any damage. Dr. MacIntosh attended the injured man and at first it was feared he was seriously injured but he recovered rapidly and was able to go to his home the following day. Mr. Lakin is well known throughout the county, having visited most of the farmers in company with his agent, Mel. DeWitt, of Waterville.

Charles Caldwell who formerly lived at Middle Simonds, but who a year ago went to Millinocket, Me., has returned to Carleton Co., and bought Holland H. Smalley's farm near the village. He has moved his family here. Mr. Smalley has bought the F. N. Shaw house on Richardson St. from C. Humphrey Taylor and moved into it. He will

Mrs. Foley, of Perham, Me., who has been stopping at Victoria Corner with her sister Mrs. Sandford Shaw, died on Saturday aged 72 years. Her husband and children died years ago. The remains were taken to Perham for burial on Monday.

For several years the church of England services have been held in Burt's Hall but negotiations having been completed with Hagerman & Baird the congregation will hereafter meet for divine service in the new Foresters Hall.

Order for printing left with THE DISPATCH correspondent will be promptly attended to.

The 67th Regt. Band of Woodstock, under the leadership of George S. MacLauchlan, will give a concert in the Forester's Hall on Dec. 3.

Miss Clara Matheson intends leaving today for Boston where she will take a course in vocal music at the New England Conservatory. Miss Matheson is possessed of an exceptionally sweet soprano voice and as a soloist has won much favor. The Methodist choir will lose a valued member but only temporarily, it is hoped.

Rev. H. H. Marr of Canterbury and Rev. E. J. Webber, pastor of the Methodist church made an exchange of appointments on Sunday.

The Hartland friends of Manager John G. Dickinson of the Bank of Montreal at Andover congratulate him upon the arrival of a daughter at his home.

Mrs. Thomas Connor of Houlton after spending two weeks with her father, the Rev. T. S. VanWart, returned home on Saturday.

The Hartland congregation of the church of England have bought from Dr. MacIntosh the lot on Main St. between the United Baptist church and E. Alexander's residence and will erect a church building thereon some time in the near future.

Immediately after the big fire of last July Hagerman & Baird, the enterprising machinery agents, purchased the Forester's Hall and converted the ground floor, which had hitherto been utilized as a skating rink and hall, into a commodious warehouse. Since then they have worked great changes in the second story and as a result Hartland has a fine hall, 35x50 feet, that will accommodate nearly 500 people. The whole flat is made into one auditorium reached by easy stairs. In the west end the lodge anti-rooms are located while opposite there is a stage 10x35 feet. If ever the venture is warranted additional stage room will be built on the rear. Although not yet furnished with full seating capacity the hall is practically completed and is the nearest approach to the "real thing" in the way of a place for public entertainment the village has ever had, thanks to the enterprise of Hagerman & Baird.

Miss Pearl Currier, a former Hartland teacher, has temporarily been in charge of the manual training department of the Hampton Consolidated school, with most satisfactory results.

Mr. Rex R. Cormier, principal of the Leinster street school, St. John, spent from Friday till Monday among old associates at Hampton Station. Mr. Cormier is a former Centreville boy.

Mr. F. Arnold Jewett, principal of the Kingston Consolidated school, visited the school at Hampton last Friday and, on his way back to the station, lost his gold watch. Although his name was written on a slip of paper placed inside the case, no word has yet been heard of the person who found it, although a notice of the loss has been posted for some days. Mr. Jewett is a son of Fred Jewett, Waterville.

MADE NEW BLOOD.

That is What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Do--That is Why They Cure So Many Diseases.

When persons have not enough blood, or when their blood is weak and watery, the doctors name the trouble anaemia. Bloodlessness is the direct cause of many common diseases, such as indigestion, palpitation of heart, debility, decline, neuralgia, nervousness, rheumatism and consumption. The surest signs of poor blood are paleness, bluish lips, cold hands and feet, general weakness, low spirits and headaches and backaches. If anaemia is not checked in time it will probably develop into consumption. There is one certain cure for anaemia—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new, rich, red blood, which fills the veins and brings new life, new energy and good health to bloodless people. In proof of this Miss Mabel Clendenning, Niagara Falls, Ont., says: "For two years I suffered from anaemia. I was weak thin, had no appetite; I sometimes had distressing headaches and felt low spirited. My heart would palpitate violently; I could do no work around the house; I became very pale and my nerves got unstrung. The effort of two good doctors failed to help me, I was in such a pitiful state. One day a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I did so. Soon I saw the pills were helping me and by the time I had taken nine boxes I was completely cured. I had a good appetite; gained in weight, I hadn't an ache or pain, could sleep well and I am in far better health now than I ever was. I cannot speak too highly of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for Miss Clendenning they have done for thousands—they will do for you. But you must get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box. If your dealer has got the genuine pills you can get them at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A fat woman, bearing a number of bundles, entered a crowded tram-car. The only semblance of a seat she could find was a small space at the right of a disagreeable youth. Into this space, sufficient only for an individual of ordinary size, the fleshy woman squeezed herself, much to the annoyance of the youth. After a moment or so the woman produced a cheese sandwich, which she proceeded to devour with every evidence of relish. At this the youth gave her a look of ineffable disgust, and drew the skirts of his frock coat closer to him.

"I suppose, me lad," good naturedly said the woman, "that ye'd prayfer-r to have a gintleman sittin' next to ye?"
"I certainly would!" snapped the youngster.
"So would I," calmly responded the fat person.
