Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.
For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

King of Beverages.
(From 'What to Eat.') Water is the king of beverages; it is the beverage to which all turn when they would cure themselves of the injudicious habit of consuming other beverages. But water that is not pure may be more harmful than the most harmful of other drinks. Water is the basis of all other beverages. All beverages of man's manufacture are water that has been adulterated by admixtures and chemical treatment. Pure water is the one beverage which has stood the test of science and come down to us unscathed through continuous use for countless ages. It is nature's chiefest blessing to man. Other beverages undergo many changes with time. Each age brings them forth in new styles, new methods of manufacture, new processes of chemical treatment, aging and keeping. Foods change with each successive generation. We eat different kinds of foods from time to time, each generation prepares them differently; there are different methods of compounding them, different methods of cooking them.
Pure water is the same yesterday, today and forever.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys.
Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the RESULT of your ailment, and not THE CAUSE. Weak Stomach nerves —the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitable have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr.
Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for samples and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by All Dealers.

Her Maiden Effort.
A certain judge had been away from his native city for several years, and upon his return found it difficult sometimes to recognize former acquaintances. One morning a young-ish woman, accompanied by a tall boy, entered the trolley car and sat down next the judge.
"How do you do, judge?" she said cordially. "I don't believe you remember me? I am Mrs. X."
"Why, so it is! Mrs. X, I am delighted to meet you again. How do you do? And who is this with you? It can't be your son!
Bless me, I would not believe you had a son so big."
"Oh, yes," replied the guileless Mrs. X, flattered by his cordiality. "He is my first-born—my maiden effort, judge."—July Lip-

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.
People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services.
Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by All Dealers.

What Did She Mean?
Mrs. Armitage had a negro servant who continually prated of a certain Mrs. Reed for who she she formerly worked. Weary of hearing Mrs. Reed quoted so often, the mistress asked one day:
"Well, Samantha, what kind of work did you do at Mrs. Reed's any way?"
"Well, honey, I cooked foh huh, I did, an' I cleaned foh huh, an' I swep' for huh, an' I washed huh pussonel appe'ance."—July Lippincott's.

The English farmer fares rather hardly in many ways compared to his American brother, for he is held up for some tax or other at every turn. He must consult the excise officers to get permission to keep a sheep dog. If he has a gun he must put up a $2.50 license, and if perchance he desires to trap a rabbit or a weasel which is eating up his chickens he must put up $3.76 more for a trap license. If he keeps a gasoline engine or traction engine to do his work he must pay a license of $50, and if he wants to kill a pheasant or partridge which he has raised on his farm he must pay a tax of $15 for a game license. The selling of milk to town patrons calls for a further tax, and the killing of a critter on his place makes necessary a slaughter house license. This and much more is your English farmer subjected to, so bear it in mind and do not kick on a nominal road tax.

A Test.
The story is told about one of Toronto's "new rich" hostesses that in commendation of a man with whom she had been conversing, she uttered the emphatic verdict: "I know he was a gentleman, because, when I riz he riz."—Canadian Courier.

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.
Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it."

Pickles.
Pickles, from the early age at which children first hear of the alliterative specimens which Peter Piper picked, have for young people a fascination which their elders often vainly attempt to destroy.

Some years ago a lady had written a child's story which Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, who was a friend of her family, kindly offered to read and criticize before publication. When he returned the manuscript, however, she found but one penciled note upon the margin, which she hastened eagerly to read. Was it a literary criticism? No, it was merely a comment against a passage descriptive of a young folks' picnic, in which the viands were enumerated.

"Don't let those children eat pickles," Doctor Holmes had written; and that was all.
He, to be sure, was a physician as well as an author; but the masters of pure literature have also lifted warning voices. Thackeray, illustrating the verse with an expressive drawing of a sobbing and squirming little girl, once wrote, to entertain the little daughter of an artist friend:

Little Miss Perkins, she loved pickled gherkins.
She went to the cupboard and stole some—But she found her mistake when her stomach did ache,
They were so shocking unwholesome!

Oddly enough, Charles Dickens, who resorted to verse but rarely, once "dropped into poetry," as his own Mr. Wegg would remark, to much the same effect. The little Nancy of his lines, now an Australian matron, with a grown Nancy of her own who has a little Nancy, has so often recited them to friends that they have at last found their way into print. They were given her with a box of sweets after the episode narrated:

Naughty Nancy, surnamed Nicholas, Slyly pilfered puckerly pickles.
Swift the sequel—only fancy Pains and plasters for Miss Nancy.
Ne'er again, O Nancy Nicholas!
Tea-e that tum with puckerly pickles.

Better Than They Knew.
A congregation in a hilly district in Ohio bought a small tract of land and erected a church building upon it. Then the question of insurance came up. Mr. Sipes, the wealthiest member, who had contributed more than half the money needed for the new structure, declared that he did not believe in insurance.
"This is the Lord's building. He'll take care of it," he said.

His view prevailed, and there was no insurance. In a few weeks the building was struck by lightning and almost totally consumed by fire. Another one was erected, Mr. Sipes contributing the greater portion of the fund, as before. This time the demand was almost unanimous that it be insured, but Mr. Sipes again objected, on the same ground.

"If it burns down again, brethren," he said, "I'll agree to rebuild it myself." Again he carried his point. In less than a month the new church was struck by lightning again, and although strenuous efforts were made to save it, the loss was almost total.

"There must be some reason for this, brethren," said Brother Sipes. "I am going to find out what it is."
Thereupon he employed a force of men to sink a shaft on the site of the twice-destroyed church. Within a few days a rich vein of iron ore was found, and the church property was sold for many times the amount needed to buy land in another locality and build again.

"I tell you, brethren," said Brother Sipes, "it pays to trust the Lord. He's a great deal better business manager than anybody in this congregation."
