American Settlers Becoming Canadians.
The complete returns of naturalization in Canada for 1906 have been tabulated by the secretary of state department and show that a very large proportion of Canada's new citizens from foreign countries are taking the oath of allegiance.

During the year the naturalization totalled 10,242 as compared with 6,632 for the previous year, an increase of 3,610.

The naturalization act requires three years' residence in the dominion before papers of citizenship can be taken out. Taking into consideration the fact that only the heads of families and young men over 21 years of age of foreign birth need to take the oath of allegiance, the total of 10,242 for last year probably represents a foreign immigration of 30,000 to 40,000. And since three years' residence is required it will be seen that almost the whole foreign immigration of 1903 has now become naturalized by law.

The total naturalizations of immigrants from the United States were 3,888, which compared with the immigration figures of 1902 03 show that nearly all the American male settlers in the west are taking the oath of allegiance to the British crown.

Nothing New.

Proof is below that ladies criticized each other's clothes in the seventeenth as in the twentieth century—and in "fonetik" spelling.

In 1686, May or June, Bridget Noel wrote to her sister, the Countess of Rutland: "My Lady Gansbourer meet us at Burley, but in such a dress as I never saw without dispute. Her jengon manto is the worst of its kind, it is purpel, & a great dele of green, & a letel gould, & great flours, ther is some red with the green, and noe lining which luka a bomeable."

E. R. TEED has moved from Broadway to the W. S. Saunders house on Connell St., and H. L. Grant who vacated the Saunders house took the Moore house out of which Mr. Teed moved.

A Story of the Loyalists.

Roger Davis, Loyalist, is a new story of the Revolution, written by the Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex.

Roger Davis, the hero, who lived with his parents and sisters in Cambridge, Mass., was sixteen years old when the British marched out of Boston and destroyed the arms and ammunition of the rebels at Lexington. He was a mere school boy thinking only of Oxford, but the fight that day and the death of his father made him at once the defender and councillor of his family and made it necessary for him to take sides in the fight.

The group round whom the story is built are Roger and his family, Dr. Canfield the church of England clergyman, and Duncan Hale the school teacher. The story tells them through the winter's seige in Boston then in the spring to Halifax and finally leaves them happy and wealthy on the St. John river with Roger a member of the first New Brunswick parliament. David Elton, who frequently reiterates "I wouldn't go back if they'd make me president," is an amusing farmer. If the story of Governor Carleton's losing himself in the forest is true it is new to many.

The good Father Bourg and Col. Franklin are both historic characters.

Roger Davis is a well written and accurate historical novel. The publishers are The Musson Book Co., Toronto.

MISS DUFFY of Sackville has been appointed Sloyd teacher in place of Miss Wetmore resigned. Miss Alexander has been granted a term's leave of absence. There are a number of vacancies in the staff to be filled at the July meeting of the trustees. The board contemplate heating the Broadway school by steam.

The Rev. S. A. Baker left on Monday for Beulah Camp.

"I admit," said Crittick, "that he's acquiring some notoriety, but not fame, as you call it." "But," said Dumley, "I don't see the difference between notoriety and fame." "You don't? Then you would not be able to distinguish between the odor of a rose and Limburger cheese."

NERVOUS INDIGESTION.

A Severe Case Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I suffered so much from nervous dyspepsia that I feared I would become insane," says Mrs. Alfred Austin, of Varney, Ont. "For months," says Mrs. Austin, "I was prostrated with this trouble. I got so bad I could not eat a mouthful of food without it nearly choking me. I was affected with such terrible feelings of dizziness and nausea that I had to leave the table sometimes with just two or three mouthfuls of food for a meal. My nerves were all unstrung and I grew so weak that I could not even sweep the floor. In fact my nerves affected me to such an extent that I feared to be left alone. I could not sleep at nights, and used to lie awake until I feared my reason would leave me. I was taking medicine constantly, but it did not do me a bit of good. I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on a former occasion with good results, and at last I determined to try them again. I can say nothing better than that these pills have been a blessing to me, as they have made me a well woman. Every trace of the indigestion is gone, and my nerves are as strong and sound as they were in girlhood. Now I can eat anything that is on the table, and I get sound refreshing sleep at nights. All this I owe to the faithful use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I shall never cease to praise."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills fill the veins with new rich red blood. That is why they strengthen the nerves and every organ in the body. That is why they cure all troubles due to bad blood or weak shattered nerves, such as anaemia, with its grinding, wearing backaches, headaches and sidosches, rheumatism and neuralgia, heart palpitation, indigestion, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis, kidney troubles, and those special ailments that render the lives of so many women and growing girls a burden. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
