Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

The Indian,
(Harper's Weekly.)
'Twas the dead of night and as still as death,
Save the murmured prayer of the wind,
And the soaring clouds wrapt the sky in shrouds,
With a glimpse of the moon behind.

The pale-face glanced through the open door,
While his heart beat quick with awe
At the spectral sight in the desert night
And the harrowing thing he saw.

Oh, the pale-face thought of his wife and home,
But never a sigh sighed he;
And he tiptoed out like a veteran scout
To whatever his fate might be.

And he grasped the savage around his waist
With the strength of an iron chain;
Not a sound was there on the mid-night air,
While he wrestled with might and main.

And he dragged him in through the portal wide,
And stood him behind the door,
Then he whistled a tune to the rollicking moon,
And closed his tobacco store.

About Digestion.
It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and enable them to perform their functions. The result is a relish for your food, increased strength and weight, greater endurance and a clear head! Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by all dealers.

For any of the ordinary diseases of the skin Chamberlain's Salve is excellent. It not only allays the itching and smarting but effects a cure. For sale by all dealers.

The labor-unions of Chicago have purchased a cemetery where only the members of the union may be buried.

All his life in a union shop
He earned his daily bread;
They buried him in a union grave,
When the union man was dead.

He had a union doctor,
And he had a union nurse;
He had a union coffin,
And he had a union hearse.

They put him in a union grave,
When he was good and dead;
They put up a union monument
Just above his head.

And then he went to heaven,
But to stay he didn't care;
He kicked because he said that some
Nonunion men were there.

He then went down to the other place
And there produced his card;
Then Satan threw an earnest face
And studied good and hard.

And then he laughed, his hands did rub
Till he thought he'd never stop;
"Lord bless your soul," said Beelzebub,
"Why, this is an open shop."

A Home Made Happy By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—GEORGE W. SPENCE, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by all dealers.

One Too Many.

A lawyer died in a provincial town, and his fellow lawyers wrote over his grave: 'Herein lies a lawyer, and an honest man.' Not long afterward a great personage visited the town, and among other places inspected the cemetery. When he came to the lawyer's grave he stopped, read the inscription once or twice, and, turning to the head inspector, said: 'Look here, my friend. We wink at a good many things in this place, but I do object to your burying two men in one grave.'—London Opinion.

TO CHECK A COLD AND CURE A PAIN.

A Simple and Safe Remedy that Should be in Every Home.

Everyone should be prepared for emergencies. Everyone should keep in the house a remedy for colds and pains. Being thus prepared very often prevents serious illness, and saves the expense of the doctor's visits.

No better remedy can be kept in the house than a bottle of good liniment. Such a remedy is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment—a liniment that has been doing good for almost a hundred years, and which is guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act June 30, 1906; serial number 513.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is a sovereign remedy for coughs, colds, croup, la grippe, catarrh, bronchitis, colic, cholera, diarrhoea, bruises, cuts, wounds, bites, stings, burns, scalds, stiff joints and muscle soreness. Mothers need have no fear of the ordinary diseases of children, even when dangerous, if they keep a bottle of this old household remedy on hand. It is perfectly safe, whether taken on sugar internally, or rubbed on externally, and the results are sure and speedy.

Montreal Daily Witness.
On Nov. 26th the Montreal Daily Witness issued a special industrial edition. The outstanding feature of which is a business proclamation on behalf of Montreal signed by the leading captains of finance and industry in the city, whose signatures are reproduced in fac-simile. The unique transportation facilities of Montreal, the city's financial and commercial interests, and its numerous important industries, are described in concise readable form. This is the first time that such a comprehensive description of Montreal's commercial interests has been given, and we think that the information as to the citizens here, but to all Canadians; and the issue will be put away by most editors for future reference. Many leaders in the commercial life of Canada have warmly endorsed the idea. Arrangements have been made with over thirty U. S. newspapers to reproduce the supplement in its entirety with the regular issue of their journal.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all dealers.

If I think of the world, I get the impress of the world; if I think of my trials and sorrows, I get the impress of my trials and sorrows; if I think of my failures, I get the impress of my failures, if I think of Christ, I get the impress of Christ.—Sel.
